EVENING HERALD

FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 15, 1895.

A PRETTY WEDDING.

Robert W. Taylor, of Delano, married to Miss Sarah G. Wenner. A fashionable wedding took place at Hazleton last evening, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ruben Wenner, the contracting parties being their daughter, Miss Sarah G., and Robert W. Taylor, of Delano. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. A. Hoock, of the M. E. church. The couple left for an extended wedding tour after partaking of an excellent wedding supper. The groom is employed as assistant chief engineer of the Delano division of the Lehigh Valley railroad, and the bride is one of Hazleton's most prominent society belles. They will reside at the latter city.

Among those present were John Hoop, Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Packer and sister, W. C. Wagner, Mr. and Mrs. Richmond, W. Wagner, Delano; Mr. and Mrs. George Wasley, D. F. Glover, Elmer Wasley, Shenandoah.

BILLS IGNORED.

The Grand Jury ignores the Charge Against Sheriff Scott. The Grand Jury at Pottsville yesterday ignored the bill against Sheriff Alexander Scott, charging him on oath of Thomas Tesh with bribery and violation of the election laws. The costs were put on Tesh. In the case of Edward H. Shevier, of Mahanoy City, against Mrs. John Costello, of Shenandoah, the Grand Jury ignored the bill and put the costs on the prosecutor. In the cases of Joe Miller and two others against Chief of Police Tesh, Policemen Lee, Waldris and others for assault and battery the Grand Jury ignored the bills. The cases grew out of the raid made at the Semanin saloon, when Miller and his associates were arrested for creating a disturbance. A true bill was found against William Dempster, Barney McKoon and Hugh McDonnell, the three men, who broke open a Lehigh Valley freight car and stole tobacco consigned to Huser & Reddell.

Another Obit Against Spain.

DANBURY, Conn., Nov. 14.—A claim for $50,000 against the Spanish government will be filed at the state department in Washington by Attorney Walsh, of this city, in behalf of John Repko, an Italian by birth, but a naturalized American citizen. He is the proprietor of the Roma Grand Continental hotel in Havana, one of the largest hotels in Cuba. The officers of several Spanish regiments, sent there from Spain to quell the revolution, made the hotel their headquarters for six months, and Repko claims that one night in the summer he and his family were driven from the hotel, which was confiscated on the ground that he was a sympathizer with the revolutionists.

Pennsylvania Day at Atlanta.

ATLANTA, Nov. 14.—The Pennsylvanians had possession of the exposition yesterday. Governor Hastings and staff, the justices of the supreme court, the Manufacturers' club, of Philadelphia, and the Pittsburgh Press Cadets came in on special trains. During the forenoon the governor and staff were escorted to the exposition by the Governor's Horse Guards of Atlanta. The speeches were delivered at Pennsylvania's handsome building. In the evening a reception was tendered by Governor Atkinson to Governor Hastings of Pennsylvania, Greenhalge of Massachusetts and Lippitt of Rhode Island.

The Remenyi Concert.

Edouard Remenyi, the violinist, received an enthusiastic welcome at the concert given last night in Ferguson's theatre for the benefit of the Primitive Methodist church, and with the assistance of his company gave one of the best concerts ever given in the theatre. Every number was encored and at times the audience appeared rapturous. Remenyi certainly sustained his title to the fame which had been heralded prior to his visit here. He was assisted in the program by Miss Pauline Stein, a soprano who possesses an excellent voice; Miss Louise Roman, a brilliant pianist, and Mr. Eugene Davis, who is very pleasing both as a vocalist and piano accompanist. The church fund will be considerably swelled by the receipts. The committee in charge of the concert are to be congratulated upon the success attending their efforts.

Consumption in its advanced stages is beyond powers of man to cure. It can be prevented, though, by timely use of Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, nature's own remedy for coughs and colds.

MATINEE LECTURE OF FOOD.

An Entertainment of Real Value. Let us housekeeper overlook Mr. Worrall's lecture in Ferguson's theatre to-morrow afternoon. The entire range of food will be discussed. The lecture will be valuable, not only for the knowledge it will impart in dietetics, but for its many practical points which in no other way could be so concretely presented. There will be a magnificent platform exhibit of raw food products obtained from the Botanical Museum of Harvard University, at Cambridge. Every seat reserved for housekeepers. Admission by ticket only. None but housekeepers can secure them, free, at Kirilin's drug store.

Sally in Our Alley

Has just discovered that she can buy a very fine dress shoe at $1.25, $1.50 and $2.00 that will dress her feet like a queen, and she is happy and tells all her friends about the new FACTORY SHOE STORE, Reddell Building.

A State Organization.

It is altogether likely that a State Retail Merchants Protective Association will be formed in a very short time. Shamokin, Scranton, Pottsville and Philadelphia are the prime movers in the scheme. A convention will be held in Shamokin for the purpose of organizing within a month or so. The purpose of the Association will not only be to protect business men from those who make a practice of defrauding them, and against peddlers, but to have laws enacted that will remedy many evils which are directly affecting the retail merchants. Effort is now being made to bring into the association all the large towns in this county.

FOR THE POOR.

Funds in Reserve For People Who Are Entitled to Relief.

ERRON EVENING HERALD: No doubt the general public will be pleased to have a report from the committee in charge of the charity concert given last March, under the leadership of Prof. Zeitz, for the worthy poor of Shenandoah. I hereby submit the following report: The total amount given into the hands of the treasurer, William M. Brewer, amounted to $406.15. The relief committee, composed of Dr. D. W. Straub, P. J. Gaughan and Phillip Bierman, distributed: April 5, $9; 9th, $50; 12th, $48.50; 19th, $12; 26th, $21.50; May 3, $12; 17th, $10; 24th, $10; June 7th, $2; 10th, $2; July 30th, $2; total, $185.

The balance on hand ($221.15) is still for distribution during the coming winter months to those who can substantiate their worthiness on making application to the members of the relief committee.

Very respectfully,
C. M. BORDNER, Secretary.

THE FACTORY SHOE STORE.

Name the Man.

Shenandoah Cor. to Parker's Record.

If one half that is said about our police being corrupt, is true, then we need a Lexow and a Roosevelt. And even some of the dispensers of justice are said to be implicated in it. We are informed that a certain Shenandoah lawyer presented some damaging evidence before the present grand jury yesterday concerning the mode of one of our justices in securing cases. He charged him with writing letters to parties urging them to bring suits before him in certain cases. The surface indications are portending to a great upheaval of some of the tricks that are used to dupe the foreigner. Several prominent politicians have their war paint on, and old sores will be scraped off and exposed to the public gaze. Let the good work go on.

Is Still Waiting.

From Mahanoy City Record.

In the office of Squire Wm. F. Dochney, last Saturday, J. J. Coyle stated that he intended to publish an affidavit to the effect that he had no connection with or knowledge of the "last circular" of the King-Coyles campaign prior to its issuance. We accepted this statement in good faith, and wait the appearance of the affidavit.

THE SULTAN'S GUARDS.

A Reported Conflict Between the Albanian and Negro Members.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—A dispatch to The Times from Constantinople says that a report is current of a conflict on Wednesday evening between the Albanian members of the palace guard and the negroes, subjects of the sublime porte in Africa, also members of the personal guard of the sultan. The correspondent adds that the details seem unworthy of belief, however. The dispatch also contains the statement that the Dardanelles garrison has been doubled, and that a lookout and search lights have been established on the summit of Mount Elias on the Island of Tenedos, off the western coast of Asia Minor.

A dispatch to The Standard from Constantinople says that Katakul Pasha has been repeatedly summoned to the palace of the sultan, but he steadily refuses to be grand vizier. While the sultan is thus unable to form a respectable cabinet, public opinion everywhere clamors for the proclamation of a constitution.

"A member of the diplomatic corps," the correspondent of The Standard continues, "remarked to me today that wherever foreign ambassadors had established consuls the allegation that the Armenians had commenced the disorders had been disproved. Much can be done to stop the massacres, and it is believed that the sultan now recognizes that he must do something."

A dispatch to The Daily News says that a careful estimate makes the total number of persons killed outright in the massacres 15,000, and it is probable that 30,000 will die of starvation during the coming winter. It cannot be realized in Europe how awful is the situation.

The Chronicle says: "We are inclined to believe in the imminence of the intervention of the six powers and America in Turkish affairs. The nearly simultaneous movement of all of the squadrons of the different countries can have no other meaning. Probably Smyrna and Salonica will be occupied first."

New York Cabmen on Strike.

NEW YORK, Nov. 15.—The strike of cabmen employed at the stable of Search & Son is spreading, and this afternoon the cab business of this city is nearly at a standstill. The number of cabmen who have left their seats in response to the organization's orders is estimated at from 500 to 1,000, and several hundred stable hands are off duty. The original cause of the strike was the employment of non-union men at the stables where the trouble started.

Rescued from Chinamen.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 15.—Ruth Raymond and Jennie Hamilton, two girls who said their ages were 17 and 18, respectively, but who are said to be under 16 years of age, were consigned to the care of the Society for the Prevention of Cruelty to Children by Magistrate South. Special Policeman Sell, of the Sixth district, found the two girls, who are said to be runaways from New York city, at a laundry at No. 833 Race street, kept by Chinamen.
