A MARYLAND LYNCHING.

Speedy Vengeance on a Negro Who Assaulted a White Woman.

NONE OF THE LYNCHERS MASKED.

The Mob Broke Through the Jail Doors with Sledges and Crowbars, and the Guilty Wretch was Hanged with a Rope Taken from an Electric Lamp.

FREDERICK, Md., Nov. 18.—James Goings, who assaulted Miss Lillie Jones, at the home of Hamilton Geisler, near this city, Saturday night, was taken from the jail by a mob of 300 men yesterday morning and hung to a tree in a field on the Jefferson turnpike, one mile from the city.

A mob was quickly gotten together, and unmasked, but armed with revolvers, the men marched to the jail. They had previously broken into a machine shop in the neighborhood of the jail and procured sledges, crowbars and files. They made at once for the door on the west wing of the jail, and began to batter upon it.

In twenty minutes the large door panels gave way under the heavy blows, and the mob burst into the corridor. They quickly overcame the slight resistance the officers on the inside were able to offer, and found the cell in which Goings, cowering and crying, was confined.

The lock was opened, the bolt swung back, and the trembling wretch seized and dragged out in his night clothes and stocking feet. In the meantime the friends of the lynchers on the outside had lowered an electric lamp near the jail and cut the rope from it, extinguishing the light.

Goings was led out amid the howls of the crowd, the rope placed around him, and he was hurried down the road to his place of doom. He protested his innocence as they dragged him along, and begged them not to kill him. He was promptly recognized by a number of men who knew him, and the mob did not hesitate in its work.

Arriving at the tree, the negro was asked to confess, but this he would not do. Two officers of the Salvation Army asked to be allowed to pray with them, and their request was granted. The Lord's prayer was then repeated, and the negro and most of the crowd joined in.

Goings' feet and hands were then tied and the rope was drawn around his neck. A man seized the other end of it, climbed the tree and threw the cord over a limb. "Let him go," was shouted, and quick as a flash he was jerked from his feet and hung dangling in the air six feet from the ground. One shot was fired into his body, and in a few minutes he was dead.

The mob during the process of lynching observed order. None were allowed to fire at him except the one. A member of the mob made a brief speech, in which he said that they were there with the unfortunate wretch not in a spirit of malice, but to make an example of him, and teach his race that they must let the women of Frederick county alone.

After watching the body swing in the air a few minutes the crowd left it dangling there and dispersed. The assault for which Goings suffered death was a cruel and dastardly one. Miss Jones has thirteen cuts and stab wounds on her body where he hacked at her with a knife and razor. She says he asked her for something to eat, and when she gave it to him he said: "I will give you a dollar."

She screamed and ran about fifty feet down the garden, where he overtook her, knocked her down and cut her, also crushing her nose. The field in which the negro was lynched is the same spot the negro Biggins was lynched on in November, 1887.

General Harrison Did Not Invest.

NEW YORK, Nov. 18.—Ex-President Harrison denies that he has had an attack of the South African mining fever. He was seen last night at the Fifth Avenue hotel, and was asked concerning his fortunate speculation in South African stocks, whereby, it was reported, he had realized $100,000 on an investment of $500.

Murder Follows an Elopement.

ASHLAND, Ky., Nov. 18.—Marshal Black, colored, and Bertie Wooten, white, daughter of a well known farmer, on Saturday eloped to Ohio. Black's brother Jim worked for Bertie's father, and helped the girl get away.

ALMOST INCREDIBLE.

A Professional Nurse Afflicted With Bright's Disease of the Kidneys Finds a Cure.

(From the Buffalo News.)

Mrs. A. E. Taylor has resided in Buffalo for over 40 years, her address is 250 Herkimer Avenue, as a professional nurse she has nursed back to health many a sufferer. Disease in all its varied forms have become as familiar to her as to the regular practitioner. Her occupation is one that taxes the strongest constitution, but the fatigue of long watching and nursing at last brought her to a bed of sickness.

Mrs. Taylor speaks of her complaint and cure as follows: "After being confined to my bed for some time my disease assumed such a serious aspect that a doctor was called in. He pronounced my ailment Bright's disease of kidneys in the third degree and a very bad case. My limbs ached so that I could not walk across the floor or, indeed, help myself in any way. My face bloated up and my eyes averted so that the sight was badly impaired. This condition continued for nearly two months without any marked improvement from the doctor's treatment. I have taken quarts of buchu and juniper. I tried battery treatment, but all without any lasting benefit until I felt like finally giving up in despair. Hearing of Doan's Kidney Pills I gave them a trial, and after taking three boxes I was able to get up without assistance and walk, something I had not done in months. I continued steadily to improve with their use. The swelling in my leg left, the color returned to my face, changing from a dusky color to a healthy bloom. I now consider myself entirely cured and I shall never miss praising the little pill that saved me."

"Doan's Kidney Pills are certainly a surprising discovery for kidney ailments. I shall be glad to tell anyone of the wonderful cure they performed on me."

AUTHOR OF "AMERICA" DEAD.

The Venerable Dr. Smith Stricken in a Railway Station at Boston. Boston, Nov. 18.—Rev. Dr. Samuel F. Smith, the venerable author of the famous hymn, "America," beginning, "My country, 'tis of thee," died suddenly here Saturday evening, in his 83rd year. Rev. Dr. Smith was on his way to Readville, where he was to address a meeting, and was taken ill at the New York and New England depot. He was removed to the Emergency hospital, where he died.

Rev. Dr. Smith was ordained a Baptist minister in 1834, and became professor of languages at Waterville academy, now Colby university, at Waterville, Me. He returned to Boston in 1842 and edited the Christian Review, a leading Baptist organ. Soon after this, however, he gave up the editorial chair and for several years was pastor of the First Baptist church at Newton. Following this he was the editorial secretary of the Missionary union.

A Too Forgiving Husband.

BRATTLEBORO, Vt., Nov. 18.—George A. Cushing committed suicide near the home of his faithless wife in Townsend, in this county, on Saturday. The woman refused to allow the body to be brought into the house. Mrs. Cushing became infatuated with A. A. Ross while living at Montague, Mass., four years ago. Her husband left her on this account. He went to Oakland, Cal., made a home and wrote for his wife to come on. She raised the objection that the place in Montague should first be sold, and he signed the papers. Mrs. Cushing sold the place, bought another at Townsend and went to live there with Ross. Cushing came on from California Friday, and upon learning the state of affairs shot himself through the head. He left a letter saying that he forgave his wife.

Responsible for a Fatal Wreck.

WILLIAMSBURG, Pa., Nov. 18.—Two freight trains collided on the Fall Brook railroad at Jersey Shore Junction. William McQuade, unmarried, of Corning, N. Y., fireman of the north bound train, was crushed into the firebox and instantly killed. Brakeman Daniel Kirkendall, of the same train, had a leg broken. Engineer Valiely and Conductor Maynard Allen, the crew that made the mistake, jumped. The coroner's jury found Valiely and Allen responsible for the wreck. The shocking feature of the wreck was that Fireman McQuade was forced down into the firebox and was so fearfully burned that it was impossible to recognize his features.

Life Saving Statistics.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 18.—Mr. Kimball, superintendent of the life saving service, gives some interesting statistics in his annual report, which has just been presented. Following is a general summary of the statistics of the service from the introduction of the present system, in 1871, to the close of the fiscal year ending June 30, 1895: Number of disasters, 8,902; value of vessels, $92,959,220; value of cargoes, $40,855,785; value of property involved, $133,641,974; value of property saved, $102,342,047; value of property lost, $31,299,927; number of persons involved, 67,358; number of lives lost, 750; number of persons rescued, 12,013.

A Mammoth Express Company.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., Nov. 18.—One of the most stupendous business enterprises since the establishment of the Western Union Telegraph or the Bell Telephone companies has just completed its organization, an enterprise capitalized at $5,000,000, and which contemplates the establishment of agencies in all the principal cities of Central and South America and in all the cities of the United States and Canada with upwards of 30,000 inhabitants. The name of the new company is the International North and South American Transportation and Express company. James E. Briggs is president of the enterprise.

Looks Like Pittsburg.

PITTSBURG, Nov. 18.—The Dispatch says that Robert Lindsay, ex secretary of the National League of Republican clubs, has received a letter from General James S. Clarkson, in which he instructs Mr. Lindsay to engage a number of rooms at leading Pittsburg hotels for the national convention week. The letter makes no provision, but positively engages the rooms.

Three Men Buried Alive.

HAZLETON, Pa., Nov. 18.—By the caving in of a wall at Mt. Pleasant one man was killed and two others seriously injured. Their names are: Adam Kelloch, killed; Howard Pewter, injured internally and badly bruised; John Lafinko, legs and head crushed. Pewter can hardly recover.

How To Use Cottolene

the new shortening, like all other things must be rightly used if you wish the best results. Never, in any recipe, use more than two-thirds as much Cottolene as you used to use of lard. Never put Cottolene in a hot pan. Put it in when cold and heat it with the pan. Be careful not to burn Cottolene. To test it, add a drop of water; if hot enough, it will pop. Cottolene, when rightly used, delights everyone. Get the genuine, sold everywhere in tins, with trade-marks—"Cottolene" and steer's head in cotton-plant wreath—on every tin. Made only by THE N. K. FAIRBANK COMPANY, CHICAGO and 132 S. Delaware Ave., Philadelphia.
