TURKEY QUIETING DOWN "I FEEL IT IN MY BONES."

The Sultan Now Seems Anxious to Push the Reforms.

THE POWERS' DEMANDS EFFECTIVE

The Armenian Patriarch Offered His Services to the Tuckish Government, but the Offer Was Declined-Victims of Turkish Brutality Threatened with Starvation.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Nov. 21.—A dispatch received here from Tiffls. Russian Trans-cancasia, says that the Armentan Catholicos has received a reply to the communication which he recently sent to the Russian ambassador here, M. de Nelidoff. It Is as follows:

"The Armenians of Constantinople are now reassured. They are threatened with nlans, who were instigated by their revolutionary committees. The result is ter-rible revenge upon the part of the Turks in the shape of horrible massacres of Chris-powers, and preparations are now preing to carry them out. To this end it is necessary that the leaders of the people should persuade the latter to desist from volutionary attempts, to abandon the idle hope of foreign intervention, to put a stop to all disturbances and to co-operate in the re-establishment of universal peace, in improving the situation and in the in-traduction of the new order of things."

The attitude of the porte, or of the sultan, has undergone a decided change since the other fleets began to join the British fleet in the naval demonstration in Salonica bay. There is no doubt that the pressure brought to bear upon the sultan has been strong enough to make him take personal charge of the work of reform, and it is now hoped that there will be no further bloodshed, except in the case of putting down the insurrections which have broken out against Turkish rule in different parts of Asia Minor.

There is no longer any talk of the armed intervention of the powers in the Turkish empire, and if any display of force is neces-sary upon the part of Europe, it might be in the friction of supporting the authority of Great Britain.

The concentrating of Turkish troops at Marash for the advance upon Zeitoun, which is still held by the Armenians in atrong force, continues as actively as possible under the circumstances. The commanding general declares that unless the Armenians of Zeitoun and its vicinity are subjugated within a fortnight the campaign is likely to be both protracted and difficult, as heavy snows and bad roads, which are to be expected soon, will hinder the operations of the troops.

Advices from Aleppo say that all the American citizens at Aintab, Orfah and Mardin are safe under the protection of the Turkish authorities of the places men-The Turks, it now appears, are really taking steps to protect life and propreally taking steps to protect life and property.

Armenian refugees who have arrived here from the different provinces from which they fled at the time of the recent massacre have petitioned the patriarch to assist those of their co-religionists who were unable to get away, as famine is threatening their country, and that the most terrible sufferings may be anticipated when the cold weather sets in, thousands of Armenian families being without shelter. The Armenians ask the patriarch to appeal to the different countries of Europe for money, food and clothing, as it seems next to impossible for the Turkish government to assist the distressed people.

There has been some sharp exchange of messages recently between the Armenian in the others as the best medicine I ever used."

Mr. John A. Davis, postmaster of the town of Wentworth, says:

"I am personally acquainted with Mr. baniel A. Foster, and have known him for forty years and can vouch for the truth of his stery, for I have long known of his ease. Mrs. Daniel Foster also used the Nervura and adds her recommendation:

"I never take medicine I ever long known of his ease. Mrs. Daniel Foster also used the Nervura and adds her recommendation:

"I never take medicine I ever long known of his ease. Mrs. Daniel Foster also used the Nervura and adds her recommendation:

"I never take medicine II can possibly help it, but sometimes I can't. My food distressed me and soured in my stomach, causing considerable gas. This gave me great pair. I was also very sleepless, and at times of the different countries of Europe for money, food and clothing, as it seems next to impossible for the Turkish government to assist the distress of dyspepsis. I cardially recommend it to others as the town of went with the country had an addisher

There has been some sharp exchange of messages recently between the Armenian patriarchs, the Turkish ministers and the foreign ambassadors. The patriarch was desirous of calling in person upon the minister of the interior or other government officials for the purpose of placing certain complaints before them, and to tender his services in the work of relief and reform. But the Turkish officials positively refuse to receive him in audience until he shall have published an encyclical condemning the alleged intrigues and demands of the Armenians.

As it has been demonstrated that the letter, free of charge. Turks, in the great majority of cases, were to blame for the massacres, and as the sultan has agreed to the powers' scheme of reforms for Armenia, the patriarch was printed on every sack. unable to issue such an encyclical, for it would practically have admitted that the demands of the Armenians were not justified, and would, it is believed, have considerably hindered the work of reform, Consequently, the patriarch made an appeal to the ambassadors, and placed before them the strongest evidence he could procure regarding the massacres which have recently occurred, and begged them to use their influence to put an end to this condition of affairs.

The patriarch was assured that everything possible was being done, but he was informed that evidence had been furnished which established the fact that the agents of the Armenian revolutionary committees had been actively at work inciting Armonians against Turkish rule, and that the Armenians themselves were to blame for a number of the outbreaks which had occurred, although this did not justify the bloody revenge taken by the Turks.

Kurds Killed by Russian Frontier Guards. LONDON, Nov. 21 .- A dispatch to The Times from Odessa says that it is stated from Kars, which is located on the Arpa-Chai river, a hundred miles northeast Erzeroum, that the Russian frontier guards have killed or captured numerous Kurds who have been engaged in pursuing Armenians trying to escape. Three Armenians who have just arrived at Kars state that they are the sole survivors of an Armenian village, which numbered a thouand inhabitants before the massacres.

Victims of the Ameer's Wrath.

LONDON, Nov. 21 .- The Evening News published a letter from Quetta, a small town of Beloochistan, near the Afghanistan frontier, which states that the ameer of Afghanistan is greatly annoyed at the failure of Nazrullah Khan, his second son, during his recent visit to England, to arrange for a permanent Afghanistan representative at London. In consequence of the rage of the ameer many persons have been burned alive, a great number of his subjects have been imprisoned, while many others have fied from the country. A notable, who accompanied Prince Nazrullah, on the occasion of his visit to England, named Kotwal, is to be tortured as soon as he arrives at Cabul. It is ex-pected that Nazrullah Khan himself will be punlahed, and that possibly he will be banished from Afghanistan.

Rheumatic Persons Perfect Barometers.

Not a Foolish Notion but Explainable on Scientific Principles.

Some Account of a Painful and Deforming Disease.

Many persons claim that they can fortell changes in the weather, the only explanation for their knowledge being that "they feel it in their bones." This is not a foolish no danger. In the provinces, however, there are regrettable conflicts, which in most cases were caused by the Armetian those of other people, and for that reanotion. The nerves of persons suffering son they are more easily affected by any change in the atmosphere. How few of us are exempt from this common disease. After some exposure to wet or cold, there are "The sultan has sanctioned the scheme slight chills, lassitude, no appetite, bitter for reforms submitted by the three great | taste in the mouth, coated tongue, and excessive soreness, lameness and swelling in some joint, muscle or portion of the body. The pains shift from one place to another; sometimes the disease may settle in the back, or chest, and one can scarcely breathe without a sharp pain; the shoulder or arm may be affected, or the rheumatism may settle in the feet and legs. At any time there is danger that the rheumation may attack some vital organ like the heart and carry of its victim.

attack some vital organ like the heart and carry of its victim.

The seat of the disease is in the blood and nerves. Get the blood and nerves right and you remove the cause of the trouble. Mr. Daniel A. Foster, of Wentworth, N. H., who had been suffering for years, at last found prompt relief from pain and describes it in the following letter:

"I have been in an extremely nervous condition," says Mr. Foster, "I had the grip so that I was unconscious for several days for most of the time. I have had the rheumatism for seven years enough to kill a man. When I had the grip everybody thought I would die, but I pulled through. I have used medicine, every kind that we could hear of, but that did not do me any good. I have had many dectors prescribe for me, but they didn't hit my case.

"I saw Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy advertised and watched the papers to see how people talked in the papers to see how people talked in the seament good that I went down and got a bottle. That did me so much good that I went down and got another bottle, and that helped me still more. I have now used five buttles, and can truly say that it has helped me more than all the other medicines and doctors put together that I ever used. I had the rheumatism so hadly that I could not sit up, nor dress myself, and I thought I knew what pain was, but not before. But now that is all gone. I do not have an ache or a pain and I work every day and do as much work as any man in town.

A POSTOFFICE LOOTED

The Town of Summit, N. J., Visited by Burglars.

SAFEBLOWN OPEN WITH DYNAMITE

The Robbers Secure Five Thousand Dollars In Stamps and Two Thousand in Cash, and Escape Without Leaving a Clew to Their Identity.

SUMMIT, N. J. Nov. 21. -Burglars broke into the postoffice here at 3 o'clock in the morning, blew open the safe with dynamite, stole $5,000 in postage stamps and $2,000 in cash, and got away with their booty without being seen or leaving be-hind them any clew that would serve to ald in their capture.

The robbery was discovered at 6 o'clock by Mrs. Bridget Lane, the postmistress, when she opened the office to send out the morning mail. No mail matter was disturbed, but the only thing left in the safe was a money order for $150 and seven registered letters that the explosion blew out

The burglars left behind them the bit and brace which had been used for drill-ing the door of the safe and also a stout cord which had been tied to the safe and strung along the wall through the cellar to the sidewalk, evidently having been intended as a signal cord by which a man, who probably watched outside, could have communicated with the burglar who opened the safe.

There are only two policemen on duty at night in Summit. One of these, John Stewart, was standing at the railroad station, about 3:0 yards away, when he heard the explosion, but he paid no attention to it. Chief of Police Kelly has but small hopes of catching the thieves.

About a fortnight ago Mrs. Lane was notified by the postoffice department that she must not deposit any moneys belong ing to the government in a state bank There is no national bank in Summit, and therefore Mrs. Lane drew the postal funds out of the savings bank and put them in the safe in the postoffice. Mrs. Lane will be obliged to stand the entire loss caused by the robbery, unless congress shall pass a special act reimbursing her.

Fitzshumons Signs the Articles. DALLAS, Tex., Nov. 21.-Dan A. Stuart returned from El Paso yesterday with Fitzsimmons' signature to the articles of agreement for a fight with Corbett. He leaves for New York in a day or two, and says he is confident of securing Corbett's signature. Stuart says there will be no further legal complications, and that the fight can certainly be pulled off. He would not say where the battle ground was lo-cated, but said: "If all who wish to see the fight will be in El Paso on the morning of the fight, which will be announced later, they will have the opportunity.

Another Trusted Employe Goes Wrong. Philadelphia, Nov. 21. — Daniel H. Brenizer, secretary and treasurer of the Citizens' Trust and Surety company, at No. 1408 Chestnut street, has been missing since Thursday of Inst week. Simultane ously $25,000 worth of the company's securities have disappeared. Brenizer's downfall is attributed to speculation in stocks. He had been married only a month, and his young wife is heart broken. Bren-izer had been in the employ of the company since its formation in 1889, and thoroughly enjoyed the confidence of his employers. His salary was $1,800 a year.
