Arrested for the Gorman Murder. Yesterlay two tromps were arrested at Frackville for the nurder of Mrs. Catharine

Gorman, who was strangled to death in her home at Mill Creek. They gave their names as James and Charles Ryan, aged 33 and 14 years respectively. They were given a hearing before 'Squire McGinnis, and were subsequently placed in jail at Pottsville. James has thick curly red hair and freekled face. They tell two different stories, and the youngest says two years ago he lived with Revs. Haussmann, of Philadelphia, and Mrs. John Murphy at Lanigan's patch. Ground coffee was found on the door steps of Mrs. German's house and the same kind of coffee was found in the shanty in which the tramps were captured. Their description, however, does not correspond with the one sent out as the supposed murderer, which is that of a tramp, 5 feet 6 inches, weight about 150 pounds, a heavy set man with dark hair, about 25 or 40 years old, wearing a heavy overcost with cloth buttons; wears a big black slouch hat, and supposed to be traveling with a tall man.
