THE INNOCENT ARMENIANS

Turkish Reports of Their Aggressions Contradicted.

ALL EUROPE WOULD STAND AGHAST

Were the Full Report of the Consuls Given Out for Publication—Further Confirmation That the Massacres Were by the Sultan's Orders.

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—The following letter has been received in Boston from a reliable correspondent in Constantinople:

"The Turks have induced some of the subsidized European papers to speak of these crimes as Armenian outbreaks, but the ambassadors have full reports which they ought to publish, that refute all this, and show conclusively that the sultan, within a day or two after he signed the reform scheme, ordered the Armenians to be massacred in order that there should be no question of an Armenian majority in any of the provinces. The people flew on the spot, and so did not execute the sultan's wish to the full. But the loss of life has been awful. Moreover, there seems no way of preventing more of the same sort. It is the most awful crime of the century, because it is so persistently falsified by its authors. Everywhere the story is the same—a deliberate preparation, and then a story sent to Europe that the Armenians attacked the inoffensive Turks, and were reduced to order after a few had been killed.

"Worse times are in store for us. Europe is divided in council, and the Turks, finding that the matter is done for this winter, will go on to extremities. The highest Moslem court has declared that the sultan cannot lawfully be restrained in the exercise of his will, since he is the representative of God for the whole earth.

"From 15,000 to 20,000 people have been cruelly slaughtered during the last month, and in consequence no less than 100,000 persons heretofore dependent on them for their daily food are now in want. The coming winter will witness a vast amount of suffering. It is not alone at Sassoun, but all over the land where these occurrences have taken place."

All Europe would stand aghast. LONDON, Nov. 26.—A dispatch to The Daily News from Constantinople, giving a general resume of the situation, declares that the recent massacres, and the earlier outrages of Sassoun and Moush entirely in the background. If either England, France or Russia should publish the stories reported officially by the cool headed consuls all Europe would stand aghast at the proof, surprised to think such things possible. Wherever these consuls have investigated matters they have found that the accusation that the Armenians provoked the riots is false.

Gaining Signatures by Compulsion. VIENNA, Nov. 26.—It is known here that strenuous efforts are being made throughout the Armenian provinces to compel clergy and prominent persons by threats to sign addresses to the sultan declaring that the Armenians provoked all the outbreaks. It is claimed that the one which recently appeared from Erzeroum was procured in this fashion.

Kurds Declare a Religious War. OBERSA, Nov. 26.—A private dispatch from the peninsula of Anantolia announces that the Kurds in several districts have renounced obedience to the Turkish empire and declared a religious war, the extinction of the Armenians being the avowed object.

The McCormick-Rockefeller Wedding. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The marriage of Miss Edith Rockefeller, daughter of John D. Rockefeller, to Harold McCormick took place this forenoon in the apartment of Mr. McCormick. On Thursday last Mr. McCormick was taken with a severe cold, resulting in an attack of pleurisy. It was fully expected that he would sufficiently recover to be married in the church, as announced, but late yesterday afternoon his physicians advised that he would be incurring serious risk of pneumonia by leaving his room. Only the immediate members of the families were present at the ceremony. The wedding reception took place at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. John D. Rockefeller at 12.30, as previously announced.

Nebraska Solid for McKinley. NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Senator John M. Thurston, of Nebraska, is at the Fifth Avenue hotel. In an interview he said: "The Republicans of Nebraska are for McKinley for the next presidential candidate first, last and all the time." "Do you think the Republicans will be able to organize the United States senate at the coming session?" the senator was asked. "Yes," he replied, "I believe we will be strong enough to assume control. I believe that all of the Populist members of the senate will vote with the Republicans this session."

Attempt to Poison a Priest. SHAMOKES, Pa., Nov. 26.—Rev. J. Jack-Inowicz, of the Polish Catholic church in Mount Carmel, narrowly escaped being poisoned at the early Sunday morning mass. A quantity of Paris green had been placed in the wine vessels from which he is in the habit of drinking during the service. Fortunately the powder was visible on top of the wine, and as a previous attempt had been made on his life the reverend gentleman became suspicious, and did not partake of the wine.

Breckinridge Will Try Again. FRANKFORT, Ky., Nov. 26.—Colonel W. C. Breckinridge, of Lexington, it is now understood, will make the race for congress in the Seventh district next year. It is said that he has told his friends that he will make the race, and that he expects to win. During the late campaign Colonel Breckinridge stamped the district for the Democratic state ticket, and everywhere drew immense crowds.

Carload of Pianos. O'Neill Bros., the furniture dealers, will receive next week a carload of upright Malcolms Love Pianos, which they will sell at reasonable prices during the holidays. These pianos are rich in tone, elegantly finished and would be a joy to every household. If you wish to buy a good piano, call on us first before going elsewhere. O'Neill Bros., 106 South Main street. 11-23-14

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The Local Corps of Instructors Consider Some Important Questions.

TEACHERS' INSTITUTE.

The local teachers' institute convened in the high school building at 4.30 o'clock yesterday afternoon, Superintendent M. P. Whitaker presiding. This session of the institute was of more than ordinary interest and benefit to the teachers.

Prior to attending the County Institute the local corps of teachers was divided into sections, each section to critically report the proceedings for the different days, and to discuss at length the various theories advocated by the several instructors. At the meeting yesterday afternoon, each section presented a careful resume of the proceedings, and the methods for school management advised by the instructors were discussed in full.

The great advantage of attending County Institute was certainly appreciated by our teachers, and the benefit they have derived will surely manifest itself in better results along all lines of school work. The discussion showed plainly that the teachers had profited very much as a consequence of the impressions received from the eminent authorities they were privileged to hear.

Miss Mame Wasley conducted the singing of "God speed the right." The reports of the various sections on Institute were then presented. Messrs. Herbert C. Hooks, James M. Mullaly, Richard A. McHale and Miss Hattie Hess presented these reports, which were discussed generally by the teachers.

At the next meeting the methods of Dr. Byron W. King, Dr. John DeMotte and Dr. Edward Shaw will be discussed by Messrs. Britt, Cooper and Misses Fanchild, O'Connell, Cavannah, Ella Connolly and Corinne Tompsett. Miss Mary McGuinness read an article on "Leadership among Scholars" from the Pennsylvania School Journal.

At Breen's Cafe.

Purse of pen soup for free lunch during and between the acts to-night.

Free hot lunch every morning.

Meals served at all hours.

A Strong Company.

When the curtain went up at Ferguson's theatre last night every seat in the house was taken. Seldom has such a large and enthusiastic audience greeted an actress in this town as that which was present to witness the production of "Queen" by Miss Ethel Tucker and her strong and well-balanced company. The work of the star showed her to be an artist of rare ability, and at once won the hearts of those present as attested by the enthusiastic curtain call at the end of the third act. It was in the "mad scene" that Miss Tucker displayed her emotional powers to great advantage and won hearty applause. Her support was of a high order, especially that of Mr. H. P. Meldon as "Lord Walter Huntingdon," who is a talented actor. In fact, each member of the company is deserving of special mention. The specialties introduced between the acts were good, Beja winning much applause by her fancy dancing and marvelous feats of contortion. Little Vavone, the smallest child dancer on the stage and only six years old, captivated the audience. A full orchestra is with the company and their music was highly appreciated. We bespeak for Miss Tucker packed houses during the week. To-night she will produce "That French Woman," written especially for her by Hal Reid. It is a strong modern drama.

Watson House Free Lunch.

Hot lunch served to-night and to-morrow morning.

New Jr. O. U. A. M. Council.

At a meeting of Major Jennings Council No. 367, Jr. O. U. A. M., last evening, a committee of five was appointed to organize another Council of the order in this town.

The membership of the old Council has now reached 387 and within three weeks will go over the 400 mark. This number is considered sufficient for one body of officers to handle and there appears to be ample material in the town for a new branch. The committee appointed is composed of William Reeves, Edward Doherty, James H. Morgan, George Davis and District Deputy Detrey. They will begin work at once and expect to have a charter list ready within a week.

Columbia Brewing Company.

The best in the world.

The Rain Fall.

The heavy shower of rain during last night and to-day, the heaviest fall we have experienced since last April, is appreciated in every locality of the coal regions. It is of sufficient quantity to swell the streams and springs. Weather prophets have predicted we would witness such a fall before winter sets in, otherwise there would be a scarcity of water during the winter.

Linens for the Thanksgiving Table.

We offer this week a new line of cream and bleached table linens, 36 inches wide, at 25c per yard. There's lots of bargains in our linen stock it will pay to see.

L. J. WILKINSON.

Birthday Party.

A birthday party was held last evening at the home of James Coogan, of West Coal street, in honor of the 49th anniversary of his birth. A very pleasant evening was spent in amusements of various kinds and at a reasonable hour the many guests departed for their homes, extending their many wishes for the celebration of many more such occasions.

Died Suddenly.

Annie, the 16-year-old daughter of Joseph Miller, of Mahanoy City, died very suddenly Saturday evening. She had been suffering for the past two months with lung trouble, and on Saturday complained she was not feeling well and laid on the lounge. She expired a few minutes afterward. The funeral took place this morning.

HARKINS' NERVE LEFT HIM.

A Man Who Lays His Ruin to the Evil Effects of Whiskey.

WAS ARRESTED FOR STEALING!

His Employer's Stock of Leather Diminished More Rapidly Than the Trade War-ranted—It Was Being Transformed Into Liquor.

William Harkins made a sorrowful looking prisoner before Justice Williams this afternoon. He was arrested on a charge of larceny preferred by Joseph Ball and seemed to feel his position keenly. At first he stoutly denied the charge and challenged proof, but his courage did not stand by him and within a few minutes he abandoned his bravado and broke down completely, acknowledging that he was guilty and volunteering to show Constable Dando and Detective Amour where the stolen goods could be found. The man appeared to be on the verge of delirium tremens and muttered to himself as he paced to and fro in the Justice's office. Turning to the officers he would say, "Yes, I did it; I did it. I wish I were dead. It is all through whiskey," and a bottle of whiskey he carried in one of his pockets confirmed the statement that it had played a part in the man's down fall.

Harkins has been employed as a shoemaker by Ball off and on for the past five years. About six weeks ago he started on a spree which he has kept up constantly since that time. Last night Harkins was seen leaving the rear of the shoe store with a roll of leather under his arm. Ball was notified and upon inspecting his stock he found that he was short six rolls of leather, valued in all at about $35.

Harkins was not arrested until this afternoon, the time allowed to intervene being used by the complainant in gathering evidence. As a result of what was gleaned at the hearing Peter Henry, of West Centre street, and Joe Strenich, of East Centre street, both cobblers, were arrested on charges of receiving stolen goods, produced a small piece of leather which he had purchased from Harkins, knowing him to be a shoemaker and not suspecting that the leather had been stolen. Strenich said he asked Harkins if the leather was stolen before making the purchase. Harkins, he said, told him that it was not; that he (Harkins) was giving up shoemaking and sacrificing the leather he had on hand. Notwithstanding their statements Henry and Strenich were held in $200 bail for trial. The latter purchased leather valued at $4.80 for $1.50. Harkins was unable to give $500 bail and was committed. Considerable leather is missing, but the prisoner says he knows nothing of it.

A CAR LOAD OF APPLES.

We have a carload of York state apples consisting of Baldwins, Smokehouse, Pippens, Winesaps, and others, which we offer at $2.15 per barrel.

JAMES GOODMAN & CO.,
27 West Centre street.

Mine Workers' Convention.

The annual convention of Anthracite District No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, will be held in Centennial hall, Pottsville, on Wednesday, 27th inst., at 10 a. m. All officers will be elected for the ensuing year and other business of an important nature will be transacted. The first annual ball of Anthracite District will be held on the evening of the same day.

For fashionable hats, MAX LEVIT'S.

Want More Money.

The Poor Directors have applied to the County Commissioners for an additional appropriation, the $83,000 granted them for the year having been expended. A large number of almshouse orders are outstanding, and the merchants holding them are subject to much inconvenience. No more relief will be granted unless the additional appropriation is forthcoming.

Schelly House.

Vegetable soup to-night.
Finest lobsters in town.
Chicken soup. Little neck clams.
Rappahannock oysters.
Ham. Sardines. Swiss cheese.
Fish cakes. Oysters in every style.

The Reform Institute.

The meeting of the local branch of The National Reform Institute, held in the Primitive Methodist church last night, resulted in an informal discussion which was of brief duration and it was decided to adjourn to meet at the same place after the Thanksgiving services. The main subject before the institute will be the appointment of a delegate to the national convention, which will be held at Baltimore next month.

Cloak News From Our Busiest Department.

Coats are selling very rapidly and stylish garments were never lower in price. Every day brings new additions to the cloak stock; competent judges say we carry the largest and finest stock in the county.

Return From the South.

J. K. P. Scheiffy and his son-in-law, Claude Knight, Esq., returned last night after an extended trip through the Southern states for recreation and incidentally to find an opening for business locations. They are delighted with the results of their trip and it is quite likely that Mr. Knight will locate at Sparta, South Carolina. There is also a probability that Mr. Scheiffy will locate at the same place. He says the people down there require the assistance of active Northern men with capital and there is a big field for factories of different kinds. With $10,000 or $15,000 Mr. Scheiffy believes a few Northern men could put thriving industries in the place and he is seriously contemplating the step. The developments of the ensuing week will cause him to decide on something definite.
