THE STORM.

Only Incandescent Light Wires Suffer From the Gales.

The storm with its accompanying gales played havoc with the wires of the incandescent electric light service last night and they are down in many places. Aside from this it has done no damage, but been very beneficial. The greatest good has been felt in connection with the water works, and the reservoirs of both the old water company and the borough plant will be very much replenished. The rain is the heaviest of the season. Those acquainted with the operations of such affairs say that there should be no more complaint about drought until after next spring, as the rain brought by the present storm soaks into the ground and springs that have been holding back for a good start must now yield their storage.

The commercial and street electric lights were out of service for an hour last night. The trouble was thought by the people to be due to a breaking of wires by the gales, but inquiry at the station brought out the information that the plant was obliged to suspend operations on account of a leak of water. The plant is connected with the old water company's mains. A supply was procured in time to put the lights in operation again shortly after eleven o'clock.

Local prognosticators say that a severe cold snap will follow on the heels of the storm.

Patrons of the telegraph office were today notified that all messages to be sent west of Pittsburgh and Buffalo would be subject to indefinite delay, on account of the most severe sleet storm known in the history of that part of the country.

Foot Ball at Sunbury.

On Thanksgiving Day a game of college football will be played at Sunbury between the teams of Dickinson College, Carlisle, and Bucknell University, Lewisburg. Hickock of Yale, is coaching the Dickinson team, whilst Bucknell has had the training of two coaches, one from the University of Chicago, and the other from Cornell. Her recent victory over the Indians has brought Bucknell very prominently to the front this season.

It Was a Fake.

The much-talked-of fight between "Scaldy Bill" and Davis, which has been declared off on one or two occasions, took place near Hazleton last night. There were about fifty sports present, who paid $2.00 to see a fake performance. When the referee declared the fight a draw at the end of the fourth round, buffetings of dissent were heard. Davis was no match for his antagonist. The contest lasted thirty minutes.

Murderous Firebugs Arrested.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Adolph Hirschkopf and Meyer Dietcheck have been arrested on the charge of murder. Hirschkopf was arrested several months ago, accused of arson in connection with the operations of a gang of firebugs that had been operating extensively in this city. He confessed, and on the promise to furnish evidence against his confederates was permitted to have his freedom under police surveillance. His statements, however, did not hang together. It is alleged that Hirschkopf and Dietcheck set the fire in the tenement house No. 159 Suffolk street, May 25, 1894, in which Lizzie Sparger lost her life.

UNITED THANKSGIVING.

All the Protestant Congregations to Join in Service Thursday Morning.

For several years it has been the custom of all the Protestant congregations in this town to hold joint service in one of the churches on the morning of Thanksgiving Day and to take up an offering to be devoted to some general and worthy object. In accordance with this custom joint service will be held in the Primitive Methodist church, corner of Jardin and Oak streets, on Thursday morning, next, at 10:30 o'clock. The program arranged for the occasion is as follows: Organ voluntary; invocation; hymn, "The God of harvest praise"; prayer, Rev. Sechrist, pastor of the English Lutheran church; anthem; scripture lesson, Rev. Robert O'Boyle, pastor of the Trinity Reformed church; hymn, "Before Jehovah's awful throne"; thanks offering; sermon by Rev. J. F. Meredith, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church; hymn, "Great God of nations," with doxology and benediction.

By general consent of the pastors it has been decided that the thanks offering that will be given at the service shall be donated for the purchase of magazines and papers to be placed in the public reading room which is maintained by Hope Section No. 10, Junior Templars of Honor and Temperance, in the Beadall building. The reading room has already been conducive of much improvement in the habits of many young men and an advance in similar work is expected this winter, so that the clergymen of the town are unanimous in the sentiment that no better object presents itself for the offering this year. It is hoped there will be a large attendance from all congregations at the service. People who are not members of congregations are also cordially invited.

For comfortable, perfect fitting men's, ladies' or children's footwear, you want to go to Womer's, on North Main street, the most popular priced shoe store in town.

The Gorman Murder.

The authorities have gleaned nothing new concerning the murder of Mrs. Catharine Gorman, at Mill Creek, although the surrounding country has been flooded with telegrams and other active steps have been taken. The two tramp suspects arrested at Frackville are still in custody, but it is very doubtful that they are the guilty parties. They have told contradictory stories as to their names, homes and ramblings in this country, but thus far the District Attorney has not succeeded in gleaming anything to warrant him in announcing that he has struck a trail to a solution of the mystery. He has, however, held the tramps for further examination. One of them is a boy 15 years old. He first said his name was Charles Ryan and that he was a nephew of his companion in crime. He now says his real name is Charles Johnson, that his home is in Middletown, Orange county, N. Y., and he is not related to the other prisoner, James Ryan, the tramp arrested with the boy, refuses to give his real name, but says his home is at Patterson, N. J. The inquest in the case has been opened, but nothing in addition to what has been given the public has developed. No trace has been secured of the three tramps who are alleged to have left New Castle at 4 a. m. on the day of the murder.

A Very Bright Youth.

Shenandoah has many tailoring establishments, but only one of them can boast of an apprentice who bids fair to become President. The other day his employer gave him a package to deliver on South Jardin street, with specific instructions not to leave it at the wrong house. This bright youth has a sweet heart, and he is so badly smitten that his name is continually upon his mind, and as a consequence he was hardly half way to his destination on this particular occasion before he forgot the number of the house. In his efforts to find the number on the door, he used up two boxes of blue-head matches and the neighbors became frightened at his antics. They mistook him for a robber, and the shrieks of the women caused him to retrace his steps to the shop. He now declares he'll never deliver any more goods. Do you know him?

Wanted to be an Engineer.

George Thomas, of Turkey Run, was brought before Squire May on Saturday evening, charged by G. & I. officers with damaging the scraper (the engine at Maple Hill colliery). Thomas was employed as a laborer and on Friday evening went into the engine house during the absence of the engineer and started the engine. Not knowing anything about the workings of an engine Thomas was unable to stop it and after trying several times jammed the reverse lever down with a full head of steam on which blew out the cylinder head and damaged the engine to the amount of $300. Thomas acknowledged that he had done the act and furnished bail in the sum of $200 for his appearance at court.

Ushered All Over and Out.

An amusing incident occurred at the theatre last night. A gentleman, stranger in town and stopping at the Ferguson House, bought a ticket to witness the performance of Miss Ethel Tucker's company. Anticipating a crowded house he went early and was shown a seat. Soon after he was informed that he must vacate his seat as it was reserved. He was ushered to another locality, and presently the same request was again made. This was not to his liking, and foreseeing a continuance of the move act, he quietly left the theatre vowing vengeance upon the Shenandoah play-house and the ushers in particular.

He Committed Suicide.

A most distressing case of poverty and squalor was brought to light by the self-inflicted death of Daniel Erhart. The suicide killed himself by hanging in a neighbor's barn. His home was a rickety old shanty on a small patch of land in the woods about five miles from Mahanoy, near Herndon. A widow and seven children survive Erhart. The oldest is eighteen years and the youngest a babe. The mother is insane and will be taken to the county almshouse with the four youngest children. Poverty and his wife's condition is thought to have induced Erhart to take his life.

Ministers Should Use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

THERE IS NO PROFESSION, whose labors so severely tax the nervous system, as that of the ministry. The derangement of the nerve centers of the brain by over work, frequently brings on attacks of heart trouble, and nervous prostration. Rev. J. P. Kester, M. D., Pastor U. B. church, London Mills, Ill., himself a physician, writes Feb. 26, 1895: "Heart affection and nervous prostration had become so serious last fall that a little over work in the pulpit would so completely prostrate me that I seemed certain I must relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. Heart palpitation became so bad that my auditors would ask me if I did not have heart disease. Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nerve and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of 10 weeks, preaching nearly every night and twice on the Sabbath. I can speak for hours without suffering as I formerly did. Hard working ministers should keep Dr. Miles' grand remedies on hand." Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.

A Cock Fight.

The sporting fraternity of this section have arranged for a series of rooster fights to take place at Mahanoy Plane on next Saturday evening.
