EVENING HERALD

THURSDAY, NOVEMBER 28, 1895.

FIFTY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Region Chronicled for Hasty Perusal.
Dubites, or United Evangelicals, have at last been legally ousted from the Evangelical Church at Tower City.
Reading's traction companies will merge as the United Traction Company with a new charter on a $400,000 basis.
Mahanoy City is troubled with chicken thieves.
Miss Lizzie Wolf is lying dangerously ill at her home in Mahanoy City.
The public schools were closed yesterday and will not open until Monday morning.
Frank Butler, of Girardville, has accepted a position in the public schools of Wilkesbarre.
A marriage license has been issued to John O'Donnell and Annie Grady, both of Butler township.
A new parish will be formed at Frackville and a Catholic rector appointed, after many years' agitation.
"Red" Connelly, of Wilkesbarre, and John Carney, of Philadelphia, will contest for points in 15 rounds at Tumbling Run this evening.
The T. A. B. Society will give an excellent entertainment at Lost Creek this evening. Some of the best talent in the county will take part.
James Goodman & Co., the produce dealers, have put an attractive new delivery wagon on the road to supply the wants of their many patrons.
John Davison, a farmer living near Brandywine, while watering his horses near the barn, received a kick in the face from one of the animals, which fractured his jaw and made a cut about four inches long. The kick rendered him unconscious, in which state he remained for about eight hours.
Have the leaks in your gas and water mains repaired by P. W. Bell, the plumber.
The Garter Assembly.
The November assembly of the Garter social club, at Arroyo hall, Girardville, last night, was a brilliant event and was attended by prominent people from all parts of the region. The dancing music was furnished by the Schoppe orchestra of this town and was exceptionally fine. Among the residents of this place who attended the assembly were Misses Mary A. Stock, Laura Robinson, M. Delcamp, Tullie Kase, Gertrude, Sallie, Lizzie and Gertrude Reese, Lizzie Staak, Lizzie Bell, Nettie and Gertrude Laxine, and Messrs. Ervin Meyer, Harry Hatcher, Robert Hammer, Harry Reese, Joseph Grinnam, M. J. Kelley, James Leckie, F. C. Portzund, H. J. Muldoon, Joseph Beddall, of Wm. Penn, and William Neiman and Max Mayer were also in attendance.
Best gas fitting is done by P. W. Bell.
"The Russian Slave."
The military drama, "The Russian Slave," was produced by Miss Ethel Tucker and her excellent company last night. With such appearance Miss Tucker adds new laurels as an actress of great ability, and carried her audience with her all through the interesting romantic story. Mr. Meldon's acting was especially strong, and was greeted with hearty applause. A detachment from the Jennings Guards appeared in the battle scene. The orchestra traveling with the company added much to the evening's enjoyment. This afternoon the company presented at the matinee "The Golden Child," in its excellent style. The universal verdict among theatre-goers is that Miss Tucker's company is the best that has been seen here this season, and they should be greeted with packed houses. To-night they will present "The Lost Paradise," the great New York success.
School Shows.
At Women's, the best article for the least money, that is why we show about half the children of Shenandoah. 11-27-95
Pan-Tina! What is it?
The greatest cure for coughs and colds. At Grubler Bros., drug store.
Best plumbing is done by P. W. Bell.

TURKEY DAY.

Thanksgiving and its Bearing on Farmers and Consumers.

Today (Thanksgiving Day) being a legal holiday the banks and many other places of business were closed. Many more people were upon the streets than there have been for some time, certainly since the collieries commenced working full time. But while it is a holiday and is observed by the great majority of the people, it is not such a one as arouses a general observance other than a wholesale attack upon turkey.

If Turkey, the Mohammedan, ever suffers what turkey, the fowl, was subjected to in Shenandoah to-day she will never again be able to treat her Christian Armenians as she has in the past. More turkeys fell to slaughter during the past few days than the market has ever recorded before. But this has not been solely due to the coming of Thanksgiving Day, but was due in a great measure to a slash in prices that created the demand for the "bird of the day."

The slash also had victims in the farmers, who for years have had a corner in the fowl. Note the engagement in which the turkey trust fell. Last year the farmers brought their turkeys into the town and held them at prices ranging from 16 to 22 cents a pound. They had no real competition, as home dealers were too slow. This year, however, many local dealers flooded the town with live fowl brought from Western Pennsylvania and other distant points. When the farmers arrived with their loads they were staggered by the pyramids of coops on sidewalks and in stores, and found that local dealers were selling the fowl at from 10 to 15 cents a pound. That is why the people are to-day giving thanks that the farmers do not rule the roost.

It's Queer How Quick

Pan-Tina cures coughs and colds, 25c. At Grubler Bros., drug store.

THEY ARE THANKFUL.

Some Have Much, Others Have Little for Which to Give Thanks.

Grover Cleveland.—Because he will soon have a Republican Congress to throw the blame of his failures on.

Tom Reed.—Because his hiking exercises have put him in good shape for the Presidential race.

M. S. Quay.—That he can still run a campaign, resulting in the usual majorities, in spite of Sam Losh and Zerby.

John Sherman.—That he has had his little say about Republican vice-pulling, and still lives.

Secretary Olney.—That he has such a comfortable berth, even if poor Waller is dying in a French prison.

Hoke Smith.—That he has 13 months more before he has to go back to the land of croakers.

Don Cameron.—That he didn't have his fight for re-election to the Senate this year.

D. B. Hill.—That he is still in the Senate, although not quite so proud of being a Democrat.

A. P. Gorman.—Doesn't think he has anything this year.

Wm. McKinley.—That he is not responsible for the Wilson tariff bill.

P. M. Gen'l Wilson.—That Grover did not forget his services in the object lesson the country has been given.

Gen'l Miles.—That his time for fighting Indians is over.

Dr. Chauncey Depew.—That his digestion is still good enough for the winter's campaign.

Richard Croker.—That he got home in time to lead Tammany from the general wreck.

Gov. Hastings.—That he has no more fights like that of last summer on hand.

GOES TO JOHNNY REILLY IF—

This Is The Status of The Fight for Immigration Inspector.

Wherever John J. Reilly, the tailor and active young Democratic politician, made his appearance this morning he was warmly grasped by the hand and congratulations of unmistakable heartiness were whispered in his ear by his fellow Democrats, who had heard that the object of their greetings had been appointed to succeed the late J. J. Monaghan as Inspector of Immigration at Philadelphia.

But it was all a mistake, at least premature. Mr. Reilly is still plain "Johnny" and he has not yet authority to prefix "Inspector" to his name. The report of his appointment undoubtedly arose from a gathering of politicians at Pottsville last night, at which it seems to have become pretty well understood that ex-Congressman James B. Reilly will have more to say in regard to the appointment than anyone else in this county, and that if a Schuylkill county Democrat gets it John J. Reilly will be the man.

A number of the young Democratic leaders of the county were applicants for the position, but during the past few days it settled down to a battle between Johnny Reilly and ex-Clerk of the Courts John J. Toole, so far as the Schuylkill countians were concerned. The conference of last night, however, seems to have knocked out Toole's chances. It is intimated that Toole will be cared for in some other manner, probably getting the office of County Detective, which it is expected will be made active again. For several years the office has existed only on the statute books, but it is said the county authorities believe there is now sufficient necessity to put it in force again.
