

EVENING HERALD.

VOL. X.—NO 295.

SHENANDOAH, PA., SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 30, 1895.

ONE CENT.

THE "EVENING HERALD" IS READ FROM THE FIRST LINE TO THE LAST EVERY EVENING.

Wilcox & White Organs
$55.00 to $125.00
Several Make of Pianos,
$250 to $900.00.

J. P. Williams & Son, S. Main St.

LADIES'
BEAVER, BOUCLE and CHEVIOT COATS,
LADIES' FUR CAPES,
LADIES' CLOTH CAPES,
LADIES' PLUSH CAPES,
MISSSES' BOUCLE, CHEVIOT and BEAVER
COATS,
CHILDREN'S LONG and SHORT COATS.

We have them all, every garment the latest, best fitting and best made in the market. No where else will you get equal qualities at prices as low as ours. A look through our Coat Room will convince you of this fact. We are daily receiving new invoices of these goods and shall continue until the close of the season to keep the stock up to the high standard it has maintained since the opening.

We handle Butterick's paper patterns. Monthly style sheet given away free.

P. J. GAUGHAN No. 27 N. Main St.

HAVE YOU SEEN
"CHEVY CHASE?"
The very latest in the popular home games. It beats Parchesi and all other games. Call and see it. Our stock of games of every description cannot be beat in the town.

MORGAN'S BAZAR
HERE IS SOMETHING FOR THE BOY OR MAN
Of a mechanical turn of mind. It is the latest and best thing out. Called the "IRON CONSTRUCTOR."
It is made of brass, and with it you can build bridges of any description.

MORGAN'S BAZAR
THE TIME TO SELECT THE HOLIDAY PRESENTS
Has arrived, and no where can you be better suited than at our store—pre-eminently the store of the town. Call and see our stock.

MORGAN'S BAZAR
JAPANESE GOLD EMBROIDERED SILK TROWS AND SCARFS.
The latest in the fancy ornamental line for beautifying a home. The prices are away down for this class of goods.

The OLD RELIABLE Dry Goods and Carpet Store,
113 North Main Street.

Latest Styles and Materials in Ladies', Misses' and Children's

COATS and CAPES

All New Novelties in Dress Goods.
Elegant line of Blankets and Comforts, at prices unheard of before.

J. J. PRICE'S
COFFEE AND TEA

Man, supplied with reasoning and discerning powers, may improve his condition by the exercise of these faculties. This can be applied with very good effect in the purchase of Coffees and Teas. A good cup of Coffee depends not only on the making—but the brand of Coffee, the grade, the roasting and preparation are very important factors. We feel confident that we can meet all those requirements. A delicious cup of Coffee is a certainty if you use

Our Fancy Java, or our Fancy Blended Coffee.

In regard to Tea, we occupy a front rank, all our Teas being very carefully selected by competent judges, and a trial order will convince you that we can please the most fastidious customers. We offer nothing but good grades that are noted for quality, flavor, and they are sold at popular prices

At KEITER'S.

THE COMMITTEE CHARMEN

Guesses Regarding Speaker Reed's Chief Lieutenants.

CANDIDATES FOR HOUSE OFFICES

Alexander McDowell, of Pennsylvania, Will Probably be Chosen Clerk, and Benjamin F. Russell, of Missouri, Sergeant-at-Arms.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30.—The president came into town yesterday, and the cabinet gathered for the last time before the assembling of congress. Naturally the annual message of the president was the leading topic of discussion, the reports of the cabinet having all been prepared with the exception of those of the secretary of the treasury and the attorney general. The message itself is nearing completion rapidly, and at the printing office all preparations have been made for its handling. It is understood that the document will be of about the same length of last year's communication, making perhaps 15,000 words, although in the event that it is deemed necessary to reserve for treatment in a special and later message the discussion of Cuban and Venezuelan affairs the principal message may be shortened correspondingly.

Ex-Speaker and Speaker-to-be Reed is guarding the makeup of the house committee with the greatest care. As his selections as speaker was a foregone conclusion, he has had ample opportunity during the recess to block out the committees and decide upon the various chairmanships. The members themselves generally wrote him their views and aspirations. It is believed that before he arrived here almost all the important places had been decided upon. It is understood, though, that a few of the important assignments are yet in controversy. It is probable that Mr. Reed will consult ex-Speaker Crisp and other Democrat leaders as to the minority representation on the committees.

From the best information obtainable it seems likely Seno E. Payne (N. Y.) will lead the ways and means committee; Mr. Hill (Ill.) foreign affairs; Henderson (Ia.) appropriations; Grosvenor (O.) rivers and harbors; Walker (Mass.) banking and currency; Hepburn (Ia.) interstate commerce; Mr. Dingley, of Maine, who was talked of in connection with the chairmanship of ways and means, in order not to embarrass Mr. Reed, consented to have the chairmanship go to Mr. Payne. He will, however, be a member of the ways and means committee, and will be given second place on banking and currency. Mr. Dalzell, of Pennsylvania, another aspirant for the chairmanship of the ways and means committee, will remain on that committee, and will also be given a place on foreign affairs.

Ohio and Indiana having declared for McDowell and Glenn for clerk and doorkeeper, respectively, of the house, there is now practically no doubt of the election of ex-Representative McDowell as clerk, although General Henderson, of Illinois, says he is still in the race. Mr. McDowell's friends are claiming today that he has 180 votes, and while General Henderson's supporters do not concede so many, the majority of them admit the strong probability of the election of the Pennsylvania man by a considerable majority.

The present slate for the elective offices of the house reads: Clerk, Alexander McDowell of Pennsylvania; sergeant-at-arms, Benjamin F. Russell of Missouri; doorkeeper, W. J. Glenn of New York; postmaster, J. C. McElroy of Ohio; chaplain, Rev. Mr. Fisher of Kansas. The Republican house caucus will be held to-night.

Ex-Speaker Crisp arrived here yesterday, and after consultation with some of the Democratic leaders it was decided to hold the house Democratic caucus this afternoon at 3 o'clock. The caucus probably will be very brief, as no attempt will be made to outline a policy for the coming session. The line of tactics to be pursued by the Democrats will depend upon the development of the majority. The caucus will select minority candidates for the house offices, undoubtedly renominating the officers of the Fifty-third house of representatives, a caucus chairman and an officer to represent the minority as a "whip" on the floor will be chosen. Judge Holman, of Indiana, who has been chairman of the Democratic caucus for several congresses, is not in the present house, and it is generally believed that the caucus will select Amos J. Cummings, of New York, for this honor.

There is a growing probability that the senate Republicans, at their caucus on Monday next, will decide to attempt to reorganize the senate on Republican lines, and that a candidate for president pro temp. will then be decided upon. There is a difference of opinion as to the wisdom of attempting more than the election of a presiding officer in the beginning, but the preponderance of opinion is that action at that time will be confined to this office. If the Republican candidate succeeds in this contest the Republicans then will place candidates in the field for the other elective offices.

So far Senator Frye's name is the only one heard in connection with the office of president pro tempore, but there are several aspirants for the other offices. Among those who are spoken of for secretary of the senate are Hon. George C. Gorham, who formerly held this office; Mr. Durfee, who was for many years clerk of the senate committee on finance; and George Baber of Kentucky. For sergeant-at-arms E. K. Valontine of Nebraska, ex-sergeant-at-arms; Captain G. A. Currier of New Hampshire; Major Grant of North Carolina and Mr. Shaw of the state of Washington are already in the field.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.
This evening we will serve an elegant free lunch of chicken soup. Plenty for all with ladies dining apartment attached.

For an appropriate Christmas present see our fine pastel or water color crayons, cheap, Billinger Bros., 19 West Lloyd street.

OBITUARY.

Death of a Former Resident of Town at Latrobe.
William Shaw, a former resident of this town, and at one time inside foreman at the Turkey Run colliery, died at Latrobe, Pa., last evening. He was the father of Mrs. S. L. Brown and Mrs. E. A. Doherty, of town. Mrs. Anna Davis, wife of Wm. Davis, the dyer, died at her home on East Centre street last evening. Mrs. Davis was 64 years of age, her death being due to heart trouble. Her funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Services will be held in the All Saints' Episcopal church, with interment in Odd Fellows' cemetery.

Removing an Eye Sore.
Employees of the P. & R. C. & I. Company have commenced the removal of the scraper line from Chestnut street and a part of Juneberry alley. The step is hailed with joy by the residents along the line, as they claim the trestle has been a source of damage and annoyance to them since its erection. That part of the trestle extending on Juneberry alley west of the property of Mrs. Grant will remain in position. The structure was built several years ago to convey coal to the borehole that was made to fill worked out portions of the Kolbanoor colliery and keep the surface intact. The work of filling the cavities was completed some time ago.

At Breen's Cafe.
Sour kraut and fresh pork for free lunch to-night. Call for it between the acts.

An Attractive Display.
The approach of the Christmas holidays is announced by a magnificent display in the show windows of Hook & Brown's stationery and book store, North Main street. It is a sight worth seeing. Dolls, games, books, celluloid novelties, dressing cases, china and bisque ornaments, toys of every description, booklets and Christmas tree ornaments are in profusion and so arranged as to display the most beautiful and attractive to the best advantage. The shelves in the store glow under the weight of beautiful articles. A visit will be especially gratifying to the ladies.

Fire at Gilberton.
Two houses owned by the P. & R. C. & I. Co., at Gilberton, and occupied by the families of Benjamin Townsend and John Garvey were destroyed by fire shortly after 10 o'clock this afternoon with almost all the household goods of the families. Scarcely anything was saved. The flames spread rapidly and there was no supply of water in the mains. With water secured from a well at the rear of the house house, about two squares distant from the scene of the fire, neighboring properties were saved. The fire was caused by a defective flue in the Garvey house. The buildings destroyed were opposite the new shaft, and east of the road north of the main street.

Columbia Beer.
The best of brews. Delicious for dessert, lunch or parties, and delivered anywhere promptly on receipt of request. Try it once and you will want it again.

Charged With Slander.
In the slander case of John Weils, of town, against Anthony Spez, of Fowler's, which took place at M. M. Burke's office last evening, in which plaintiff accused Weils of poisoning his child, the arbitration showed no cause of action and the defendant was acquitted.

War on Turkey.
Has been waged hard all day Thursday, and the turkeys were completely routed; so that the remainder of the tribe held a caucus on Broad mountain and gave thanks that their lives may be spared for another year. Big profits and high prices have also been routed and those who take advantage of them can have turkey dinners often with the money they can save by trading at the

FACTORY SHOE STORE.
After the Peddlers.
Detective Amgar, of town, this morning arrested two Arabians at Girardville for peddling. The captives could not speak or understand a word of English and the detective was obliged to put them in the Girardville lockup while he came to town for an interpreter, Mike Saba filled the office.

Crushed in the Scrapers.
Wasil Mongo, a Hungarian resident of the First ward, was caught in the scrapers at St. Nicholas colliery yesterday afternoon and his left arm was so badly crushed that the member was amputated close to the shoulder, at the Miners' hospital, last night.

Result of a Chicken Chase.
A chicken escaped from a coop at Councilman Magricle's store, on East Centre street, this morning and upon being chased flew against and shattered one of the large panes in Anstock's show window.

Polish Editor Missing.
Edward Kalakoski, editor of the Polish paper at Shamokin, has disappeared with considerable cash. He was to be tried in two suits for libel, and jumped his bail in $1000.

Saw Under His Charge.
Elijah Gregory, superintendent of the Girardville district of the P. & R., took charge of the Draper and Gilberton collieries, thus relieving Mr. Tusker, who has charge of all the collieries in the St. Nicholas district.

Polish Celebration.
Yesterday was the day set apart by the Polish people to celebrate the memory of their patriots, who died in the struggle of liberty for their native land. The observance here was of a quiet order.

Not sold.
The report current that Samuel Roberts had purchased the property on West Cherry street owned by Charles E. Titman, is based upon unfounded rumor. It probably gained circulation from the fact that Mr. Roberts had inspected the property. He has taken no definite step towards a purchase.

BURGLAR SCARE RUN DOWN

Fourth Ward People Were Up in Arms Last Night.

RESULT OF A POLICE SCOUTING!

The Marauding Party Divided as the Investigation Progressed Until the Police Finally Brought to Light a Harmless and Unsuspecting Fugitive.

At about ten o'clock last night two boys, who evidently had finished a hard run and were puffing like porpoises, stopped Policemen Tosh and Lee on Main street and told them that tramps were trying to get into houses at the west end of Poplar street; that one of them was using a coal pick with which to pry open windows. The policemen and a reporter hurried out Jordan and Poplar streets and over the rocks to the extreme western end of the latter street.

Arriving at an open shed the police struck matches and entered, but found no one. As they turned a corner of the shanty they were suddenly confronted by two men roughly dressed and carrying a large piece of rock in each of their hands. The police were about to grab them when they explained that they were residents of houses the tramps attempted to enter.

The police then planned a reconnoitre, Lee traveling over the rocky and uneven grounds in the southwestern outskirts of the borough almost as far as Kolbanoor Junction and Tosh scrutinizing parts east and south, but no trace of the tramps could be found, although several residents of the vicinity aided in the search and the ground was gone over carefully.

When the police were about to withdraw a boy said tramps made a rendezvous of a small shanty at the extreme southern side of the West Shenandoah colliery rock bank. The police again separated and started for the place designated, Tosh coming up at the front and Lee at the rear of the shanty with a number of citizens struggling from all points of the compass. Tosh struck another match and espied the form of a man sitting beside a small fire built in the shanty. The form moved out of the shelter upon command of Tosh, dragging a coal pick after it. The form was that of Hughley Ridley, who is known to the police as a dissipated, but harmless character. A boy in the crowd identified him as the man who had disturbed the people. Ridley disclaimed having done anything other than applied at a house for a drink of water, which was furnished him by the boy. When the latter was asked by the Chief of Police, "What did he do when he was at the house?" the boy answered, "Nothing, only what he says." The people about then said the man had done nothing, but seeing a pick in his hand and considering the request for a drink of water at nine o'clock at night an excuse to see what would be a good place to rob, they concluded to send for the police. Ridley declared that such were not his intentions, and as he is only an enemy to himself, he was allowed, by general consent, to re-enter the shanty for a night's slumber and the police wended their way back to town. Thus ended the burglar scare in the Fourth ward last night.

SATURDAY, NOV. 30.
Is the day set for our two special styles of black Derbies at $1.25 and $1.50 respectively. At MAX LEVIT'S, 15 East Centre street.

Another Good Performance.
Another large audience greeted Miss Ethel Tucker at the theatre last evening. "Called Back" being presented. Enthusiastic audiences have greeted the company during the week, and that of last night was no exception. As "Pauline Marsh" Miss Tucker scored another success. Mr. Thadous may also displayed his ability during the play, and Mr. Meldon won much applause. At the matinee this afternoon the company was greeted with a good house. To-night they will present the famous English melodrama, "The Hoop of Gold." This will be Miss Tucker's last appearance, and we bespeak for her an enthusiastic farewell by Shenandoah theatre-goers.

Schooley House.
Oysters on toast to-night.
Finest lobsters in town.
Chicken soup. Little neck clams.
Rappahannock oysters.
Ham. Sardines. Swiss cheese.
Fish cakes. Oysters in every style.

The Masquerade Ball.
The masquerade ball under the auspices of the Grant band, on Monday evening, will be a great success. Heebner, the Pottsville costumer, will be at Robbins hall, Monday afternoon, and those wishing costumes should call upon him.

Watson House Free Lunch.
Sour kraut and pork to-night.

A Runaway.
A team of horses belonging to M. L. Shoemaker ran away on South Main street this morning, but did no damage. The horses ran about 200 yards when one of them fell in front of Coslett's store. The other horse dragged its mate and the wagon about 30 yards and stopped.

Fair Exchange
is not robbery. We do not claim to give gold dollars with every purchase, but what we do claim to give you is full value at lowest possible cash prices in fine jewelry and silverware. Call and be convinced. At M. F. Maloy's, 16 North Main street.

FASHIONS.
Make your headquarters for fashionable hats at MAX LEVIT'S, 15 East Centre street.

For a good photograph go to Billinger Bros., West Lloyd street.

THE BUSY STORE

116 and 118 North Main Street.

Our "House Furnishing Department" has proved a great success. This is due to nothing else than remarkable break in all prices heretofore known.

CHINA and GLASSWARE, fine selections for Christmas trade.

SOME PRICES THIS WEEK!

ALL RED UNDERWEAR, worth $1.00, $1.25, $1.35, at our counter, now 60c
GINGHAM APRONS now 12c
CHILDREN'S COATS—If you come in time you may yet get some Augusta fur trimmed at An excellent line of all-wool Gents' Half Hose, well worth 21 cents, for 12½c
BUTTERMILK SOAP—4 Cents, We give you one box, 3 pieces, for 9c

CALICOES.
SIMPSON'S BLACK and GREY 5c
INDIGO BLUES 5c
BLUE GOLD, BLUE RED 5c
BEAVER FUR COAT TRIM 25c
MINGS, 4 inches wide, per yard

Heminway Silk for Christmas Art Work.

MAX SCHMIDT.

VERY LITTLE CONTAGION.

There Have Been Several Deaths But Not Many From Contagious Diseases.

The records of the Board of Health show that since the meeting of the Board on October 25th, last, 50 burial permits have been issued. The returns appear large, but 12 of them were cases outside the borough. There were 6 fatal cases of contagious diseases, but 5 of them also occurred outside of the borough, 4 being deaths from diphtheria at Wm. Penn and one from typhoid fever at Lost Creek. During a period of over one month there has been but one death from contagious disease in the borough.

Fine woolen underwear at moderate prices. At MAX LEVIT'S, 15 East Centre street.

Former Resident Dead.

Mrs. Polly Ulmer, wife of David Ulmer, died on Wednesday, November 27th, at 3 p. m., after a short illness. Mr. and Mrs. Ulmer were residents of this town, and members of the Evangelical church, for quite a number of years. But in September, 1883, they located in Wabash, Ind., residing there ever since, and for the past several years were getting along very nicely. The deceased is a sister to Mrs. A. L. Graf, of 325 West Lloyd street, and leaves a husband and eleven children.

The latest styles of gloves and neckwear. At MAX LEVIT'S, 15 East Centre street.

Fell on a Pavement.

E. D. Schooner is suffering from the dislocation of a bone in his right hand and contusions of the head, sustained by a fall on a pavement. As Mr. Schooner is over eighty years of age it was feared the injuries might result fatally, but he is recovering and it is expected he will soon be around as usual. He is attended by Dr. S. C. Spalding.

The Sole of Your Foot is a tender part of your anatomy, and you can't afford to make your life miserable by wearing ill-fitting, poorly constructed shoes. We are practical shoe people and know all about your sole, its wants and comforts. Our prices are the lowest in the county.

THE FACTORY SHOE STORE.

No Quorum.

The regular monthly meeting of the Board of Health, was not held last night on account of no quorum. Messrs. Morrison and Mr. Hale, Health Officer Conry and Secretary Curtin were in attendance.

On a New Footing.
We are now in the field with a complete line of New Fall Shoes. At Women's, the place to buy, to secure best shoe values. If Advertised Letters.

The following letters remain unclaimed for at the local postoffice: M. B. Skyles, C. Mullin, Mrs. Emma Naus.

There! This is Just the Thing.
Red Flag Oil—for sprains and bruises. At Grubler Bros., drug store.

You All Want . . . Fresh Eggs.

We sell no pickled or ice house eggs.

When we have them they are fresh.

We have some now.

Graf's,

122 North Jardin St., Shenandoah.