EVENING HERALD

WEDNESDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1905.

New York Fashion Letter.

The utility of the tailor made gown for every day wear has established it as a part of every well dressed woman's outfit. The full skirt is plain and the jacket is usually made with short ruffle back, and strapped seams. All varieties of fancy silk waists are again the rage, but the new velvet blouses are the most popular of all, and velvet for entire gown is much in vogue. It is not always silk velvet; but velveteen in stripes, plaids and figures are variously employed. The newest outside garments are very much trimmed, sometimes entirely with bridging ornamentation and often with fur, principally Sable and Persian for trimmings. The old fashion of using jet embroidery velvet is one of the most popular fancies of the winter. A trimming of velvet is a necessary part of every outdoor as well as in-door garment, and a vest of some bright colored velvet tends to lighten charmingly a dark color jacket. The lining for the coats and gowns is very gorgeous. Some of the newest styles have high inside collars faced with real antique lace. In the latest numbers of the fashion magazines published by A. McDowell & Co. are a large variety of these latest styles. These periodicals are always very attractive and are constantly increasing in popularity. "La Mode de Paris" and "Paris Journal of Fashion" cost $3.50 per year subscription, or 35 cents a copy. The "French Dressmaker" is $3.00 per annum or 30 cents a copy; and "La Mode" $1.00 a year or 15 cents a copy. If you are unable to procure either of these journals from your newsdealer do not take any substitute, but apply by mail to Messrs. A. McDowell & Co., 4 West 14th street, New York.

When most needed it is not unusual for your family physician to borrow from home. Such was the experience of Mr. J. V. Schenk, editor of the Coldo, Ind. Ter., banner, when his little girl, two years of age, was threatened with a severe attack of croup. He says: "My wife insisted that I go for the doctor, but as our family physician was out of town I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved her immediately. I will not be without it in the future." 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

I always recommend it, and have frequently administered it to my guests in the hotel, and every case it has proven itself worthy of a qualified endorsement. For sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

A MISSING CITY SOLICITOR.

Left a Letter Declaring That He Is Hopelessly Involved.

ALTOONA, Pa., Dec. 4.—W. A. Ambrose, city solicitor of Altoona and solicitor for the Pennsylvania State Building association and three local associations, left this city on Nov. 22. The same day he addressed a letter from Pittsburgh to Congressman Hicks at Washington, which was not received until Monday. Mr. Hicks was here yesterday and exhibited the letter. In it Ambrose declares that he is hopelessly involved in financial difficulties, and that his life for the past five years has been a hell on earth. He intimated that he would commit suicide. Inclosed was a confession of judgment to the local building associations for $12,000. It is thought this will cover all possible losses. His accounts with the city and the State Building association are straight. His friends believe his mind is unbalanced.

Frozen to Death in St. Louis.

ST. LOUIS, Dec. 4.—Two persons were frozen to death as a result of the unexpected cold wave that struck this city on Monday, and two others narrowly escaped a like fate. One of them, an unknown man, aged about 25 years, evidently a tramp, was found dead in a warehouse, where he had gone for shelter. Moses Baetz, aged 80, who occupied a shanty near the Washburn railroad tracks, was discovered yesterday in his miserable abode frozen stiff. Mrs. Kate Thompson and a 6-year-old girl were found nearly frozen to death in their home in East St. Louis. They were resuscitated.

Serious Charge Against Policemen.

SCRANTON, Pa., Dec. 4.—The entire force of this city, with the exception of two patrolmen who are on their vacation, were summoned before Mayor Conroy yesterday and formally notified that they were charged with a conspiracy to defraud Charles E. Dr. Robinson declares that the young men in question have consented to testify and name the guilty policeman, and Mayor Conroy will insist that an investigation be conducted in public.

Secretary Smith Denounces Free Colorage.

ATLANTA, Dec. 4.—Secretary of the Interior Smith addressed the general assembly last night on the financial situation. Scandalous rumors only were circulating in the hall of the house of representatives. The secretary had been invited to discuss "The Issue of the Day," but like Speaker Crisp, who spoke before the same body two weeks ago, he confined himself to the money question, talking strong ground against the free and unlimited coinage of silver and defending the course of the administration in financial matters.
