The Democratic Presidential nomination is seeking the man, and the man is trying to escape.

ONE advantage of advertising is that it saves time. It is the quickest way to tell the public what you wish to have known.

This cold weather in the West must have driven the army of tramps to the East. Shenandoah has its share of both—the weather and the tramps.

The President asks for arbitration in the Venezuela dispute. If it is of the Schuykill county brand we would advise the government to go slow. England would surely win.

The President says the retirement of greenbacks will cure our financial ills. There are many people who believe all that is necessary in this respect is the retirement of the present administration.

The Andrews Investigating Committee will attend to Pittsburgh after Philadelphia. Judging from some recent disclosures pertaining to the City Attorney's office it needs a thorough overhauling.

A MARRIAGE has just taken place in Indianapolis, the proposal of which was made over a long-distance telephone. This sounds very pretty and romantic, but it must have been awfully trying on the poor girl at central.

SPEAKER REED says no one knows what he will do in reference to the committees to be named early next week. Nevertheless the Washington correspondents will continue to grind out "slated chairmen" in their usual style.

It appears the battle ship Texas is crippled again, this time her steering gear giving way. The Texas was built by the government from plans purchased in England. It begins to look as if the English did not sell Secretary Whitney their best plans.

THE Republican State Central Committee of Iowa has formally placed Senator William B. Allison, of that state, in the field for the Republican nomination for the Presidency. The Senator is a thorough American, broad-gauged and level-headed statesman, and as President would never give his countrymen occasion to apologize for him.

AN exchange says the papers of this county are booming Congressman Charles N. Brumm as the successor to United States Senator Cameron. We have failed to note the aforesaid boom, or even his name mentioned in this connection. However, we believe the present Congressman from this district could draw the salary as well as Senator Cameron.

POSTMASTER GENERAL WILSON, in his report, suggests an increase of postage on newspapers. If the increased rate will result in handing the papers with more care, the suggestion is a good one. Numerous complaints reach this office from subscribers who fail to receive their favorite paper, although the papers leave the local postoffice regularly.

ADVICES from England show that Lord Salisbury will not submit to arbitration in the Venezuela dispute, as suggested by President Cleveland. If this be true the Chief Executive has a chance to show himself to be an American, and he would have the people of this country solidly back of him. It is to be hoped he will prove equal to the emergency.

THE action of Constable Gillin, of the First ward, in refusing to allow "wheels of fortune" to be operated in that part of the town is a commendable one. It is setting a good example, and one which, if followed by the other constables, will be approved by the people. These places were quite numerous last year, and especially in the First and Third wards.

RECENT statistics go to show that the tenure of office in the railroad service is about as uncertain as it is in politics. During the last three months 1070 changes were made among the 7035 officials of that sort in the country, which indicates an average term of less than two years. Of course, a good many of these changes were promotions, but the fact remains that railway officials lose their places with remarkable frequency, and are never secure against sudden removal, no matter how well they perform their duties.

SOME inventive genius, who was, no doubt, left at home to mind the baby while the partner of his joys and sorrows attended a meeting of the sewing circle, and who doubtless wanted to enjoy a French novel in peace while in charge of the cherub, has invented a baby alarm which is quite an ingenious affair and is said to fill a long-felt want. By its aid the baby can be placed in its cradle in an adjoining room and a sensitive disk or microphone is placed near it, the latter being connected with an electric bell wherever desirable to place it. When the child cries the microphone sets up an undulatory current in the circuit causing the magnet to deflect a delicate steel balance and ring the bell, and there you are. The inventor will have the thanks of every man who has to act in the capacity of nurse.

Truckee's Proposed Ice Palace. TRUCKEE, Cal., Dec. 6.—Truckee is preparing to have an ice palace to illustrate the diversity of California climate. The business men of the town have formed themselves into a stock company, and are now erecting buildings which will form the basis of the palace. Streams of water sprayed on the buildings will coat them with ice. An enclosed ice skating rink 300 feet long, with a roof of solid ice, will be one of the features of the ice carnival.

He Met on Slow Horses. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Alexander Proctor, assistant secretary of the Potomac Insurance company, is accused of the defalcation of about $3,500. The money comprised partial payments on loans of the company and interest paid in from time to time. Proctor is about 37 years of age and stands well in the community. It is developed that he had a love for fast horses and the race track.

Mr. Satoll's Red Hat. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—The date of the elevation of Mr. Satoll to the cardinalate has been postponed from the 18th inst. to Jan. 5, 1896. This was made necessary as a result of a cable information from Rome that Marquis Sacripanti, bearing the beretta, sailed yesterday from Genoa on the steamship Fulda, which is not due until the 19th, and may be delayed beyond that date.

Rev. Frank Hyatt Smith Violently Insane. WASHINGTON, Dec. 6.—Rev. Frank Hyatt Smith, of the Cambridge, Mass., clergyman, who was tried for sending scurrilous postal cards through the mails to members of his congregation, and was adjudged insane, was confined in St. Elizabeth's asylum yesterday. It is said that he has become violent and needs constant watching.

Steamer Sunk in Mid-Ocean. LONDON, Dec. 6.—A telegram has been received from Captain Patterson, of the British iron steamer Madura, stating that the Madura foundered in mid-ocean on Nov. 28. One of the Madura's crew was lost. The captain and the remainder of the crew were rescued by the Spanish steamer Antonio Lopez.

"For three years I suffered from Salt Rheum. It covered my hands to such an extent that I could not wash them. Two bottles of Burdock Blood Bitters cured me." Libbie Young, Pope Mills, St. Lawrence County, N. Y.

To be Baron Havemeyer. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Theodore A. Havemeyer, the sugar king, is about to be created a baron. The imperial emissary from the court of Austria, hearing patents of nobility and insignia of the Order of Leopold, is expected to arrive in New York next week. He is Franz Ritter von Stockinger, and will succeed the sugar king in the office of consular general, which Mr. Havemeyer intends to vacate as soon as possible. In accepting an order of nobility Havemeyer will renounce all political ambition he may have so far as this country is concerned. The title is hereditary.

Striking Housemiths Determined. NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—The demand for a recognition of the union and a uniform scale of wages by the striking housemiths is being vigorously pushed, and the hostilities waged sixteen days ago against the Iron League in an endeavor to secure that result is renewed with new vigor on the part of the strike leaders. Grandon Hall, the headquarters of the strikers, was besieged last night with an army of over 600 of the striking housemiths who pledged themselves to President Lary to stand by him in the present fight.

Football Vigorously Denounced. GALESBURG, Ills., Dec. 6.—President Evans, of Heddling college, publishes an article denouncing football, and declaring that he has prohibited the game at Heddling. He terms the game a disgrace to college life and Christian civilization, and compares it to prize ring contests and bull fights. He claims that in this country and England during the last few years a hundred young men have been killed in football games, and he defines these killings as murders.

Pool Seller Sent to Prison. COVINGTON, Ky., Dec. 6.—Last month all the pool sellers here were indicted. This has been a frequent occurrence for years, but the indictments have heretofore been quashed. This time the men were forced to trial. The first case, that of Sol Sharp, resulted in the circuit court yesterday in conviction. Sharp was fined $500 and sentenced to thirty days in jail. The cases of John A. Payne, Mark Simonton, George C. Bennett, Charles Bollinger and John Tapp are yet to be heard.

FITZSIMMONS AND MAHER

They Will Fight for the Pugilistic Championship on Feb. 14.

NEW YORK, Dec. 6.—Arrangements have been perfected for a final fight between Bob Fitzsimmons and Peter Maher. The fight will take place on Feb. 14, 1896. The amount of the purse will probably be $10,000, but it is understood that Quinn, Maher's manager, wishes to have it $15,000. When the articles are signed the principals will put up $5,500 each as a guarantee of good faith. It is proposed to pull the fight off in Mexico, just across the Rio Grande from El Paso, Tex. It is planned to erect there a tent capable of affording seats for 8,000 people. Dan Stuart is empowered by Fitzsimmons with full authority to make the match with Maher, but Fitzsimmons had stipulated that he must first make a formal request for Corbett to meet the Australian in Mexico.

The meeting was addressed by a number of well known citizens, and resolutions were adopted calling on the railway company to return to the free transfer system in use before consolidation. At the meeting of councils yesterday an ordinance was introduced providing for the appointment of a committee of seven citizens to inquire into the methods by which franchisees have been granted by the city to railway companies and other corporations.

She is suffering from the effects of a blow on her head which was inflicted by a stone. The object of the assault was robbery, as the man attempted to snatch the young woman's pocketbook. The women of Amesbury are in a state of terror and refuse to venture out after dark alone, as it is the fourth case of the kind in a month.

The wife of Mr. D. Robinson, a prominent lumberman of Hartwick, N. Y., was sick with rheumatism for five months.
