Necessity of Speedy Action by the Relief Committees.

THE SULTAN LAUGHS AT THREATS.

A Constantinople Correspondent Who Believes That War Is Imminent, with Russia, France and Germany Arrayed Against England, Italy and Austria.

BOSTON, Dr. 10 .- A correspondent in Constantinople, in a letter just received here, describes the condition under which, in his opinion, relief for the oppressed Armenians must be distributed, advising either an independent American commission for the work, or one acting in conjunction with an English organization of a similar character.
"To insure effectual work," the writer

"it will be essential for the United States government to take under official protection the men who distribute. Otherwise it will not be permitted by Turkey. A relief commission should be organized in America on an independent basis to have at least four superintendents of distribution—one at Alexandretts to go to Aintab, Marash and Oorfa, reaching the cases also of the needy in the Taurus mountains anothers. The birth of the cases also of the needy in the Taurus mountains anothers. tains, another at Trebizond and Erzeroum, with a view to reaching the regions of Bitlis and Van, and a third at Samsoon, for the regions from Marsowan to Harpoot

The fourth should go to Diabkir.

There will undoubtedly be a large amount of aid sent from England. Probably it will be well for the American commission to make some alliance with those in England in order to cover the ground without lapping.
"There is need of the greatest haste in getting some effective relief into the field. The people will be dying of exposure and starvation very soon. Moreover, the Turks are trying by every means in their power to force the survivors to become Mohammedans. They are offering aid on these conditions in some places, and in others are picking up the desolate widows and orphans and simply taking possession of them in order to make them Mohammedans without any will of the captives.

The correspondent, in referring to the general situation, says:
"The concord between the powers has limitations as to its extent of action. The inertness of Russia is due to England, and not to her own willingness to act. This state of affairs gives no cheering prospect for immediate and lasting improvement in Turkey, and it seems now as if a European war over the dismemberment of the empire were imminent. If there is such a war it will very probably be be-tween Russia, France and Germany on the one side, and England, Italy and Austria on the other side. But it is thought, however, that Russia may make an alliance with Turkey on the basis of a sort of vassalship of the new sultan (whoever it

"Meanwhile, so long as the powers merely threaten the sultan with fleets, unaccompanied with means for elimbing mountains, he simply chuekles mountains, he simply chuckles and pro-ceeds with his cruelties and outrages, while suavely declaring all the time that neither cruelty nor outrage exists save in the imagination of the English Liberals and of the American missionaries.

"Word has been received here from Bardezag, western Turkey, to the effect that more than 30,000 people have been butchered in Turkey, in spite of the asser-tions of the sultan and his advisers that there have been only slight disturbances These facts come from a reliable corre spondent, who adds:

"These people have been flendishly butchered under the very noses of the representatives of the so called great powers; their goods have been carried off, in many cases their houses and even whole viliages have been burned, while the great 'blood letter, at Constantinople, grius and snaps his fingers in the face of Europe. Even America has been sitting at ease while the people she has been instrumental in arousing to thoughts of higher things have been driven as sheep to the slaughter. More than 200,000 widowed women, dishonored brides, fatherless children, infirm and feeble resople, skilled artisans without tools, farmers without fields to till and merchants without goods to all and merchants without goods to sell are now crying to Heaven for pity.
"The other day the town was moved to

The other day the town was moved to its center by the services connected with the burial of a portion of a man's head.

The man, a muleteer of this town, going to a neighboring village, was foully murdered by Turks. Some young man dered by Turks. Some young man and the streets, Shens dered by Turks. Some young men, taking their lives in their hands, went in search of the body. They found that the head had been severed from the trunk. The trunk was so torn by beasts and in such a putrid state that they could recover noth-ing of it for burial. They secured the head. from which the lower jaw and the eyes were missing, and brought it home. As the funeral cortege passed through the streets soldiers in the coffee houses sat drinking and speering."

Speeches at the American Federation of Labor Meeting.

MONSIGNOR DUCEY'S PLAIN TALK

There Are Many Who Live in Luxury and Pile Up Fortunes with the Blood Money of the Poor"-The Duty of Min isters of the Gospel.

NEW YORK, Dec. 10.—The fifteenth an nual convention of the American Federa tion of Labor began in Madison Square Garden yesterday. Delegates were present from all over the United States, Canada and Great Britain. President McBride presided, and introduced J. W. Sullivan of Typographical Union, No. 6, who delivered the address of welcome. The reports of the president, secretary and treasures were read and referred to the proper com-

The chairman then introduced John winton, who spoke in part as follows:

"The Federation of Labor is a power in the United States. It is made up of men who make all things and are the natura owners thereof. I take much pleasure in eeing the English representatives here. hope that this association will send delegates to all parts of the earth, as well as have foreign delegates present at your conventions. There is much to learn from the English trade associations. The union has done great things there, having advanced the price of labor and secured the recognition of parliament.

"The largest thing in organized labor is the act and fact of organization. It has grown from nothing, being in its early days kicked and sneered at. By hard work it has won the right of existence and you must maintain it under penalty of death. Fifty years ago there was little need of organization, for there was work for all. Times, however, have changed Another thing is the right to strike against wrong. It used to be more lawful to strike

"I am here because the pope wants me to be, it some of you do not. In 1891 ar encyclical was issued by the pope in regare to labor, and it is my duty as a minister to be present where such matters arise. What Mr. Swinton has said is perfectly

Father Ducey quoted a great deal of scripture, and said that no murderer shall enter the kingdom of Heaven, and drew as enter the kingdom of Heaven, and drew as a comparison the oppression of the labore who is often killed by want, not being able to secure employment.

"There are many," said he, continuing "that live in luxury and pile up fortune; with the blood money of the poor. There is enough here for all, and it should be sc far allowed that no man need appeal for alms. God intended that the workingmen should have proper food. A mass meeting was held at Cooper Union last night under the auspices of the Federation of Labor. Samuel Gompers acted as chairman of the meeting. Mr Gompers made a brief address, in which he said that the objects of the convention o: the American Federation of Labor were to bring about unity of action between the trades unions of the country, and to de-cide what might be best to advance the in-terests of the toilers of the country. The most lasting progress made is that estab-lished by the trades unions of the world.

The chairman then introduced John McBride, president of the American Fed eration of Labor, who talked about libertles of the people and compared the cause of the Cubans now to that of the Americans at the time of the revolution people. It is the moving spirit of the or ganization of labor now in convention in this city-the furthering of the brother hood of man, regardless of color, creed or nat sality. The work of the unions has It takes but little room. been a wonderful and successful one, and today receives more recognition from the pulpit and press than ever before.

While we may disagree as to methods we all agree to the ends and objects of the union. We all agree that there are too many palaces, and if not too many palaces, at least too many hovels; if not too much wealth, too much poverty; if not too many schools, too much illiteracy; if not too many luxurious homes, at least too many tenements. The system that the few ar enriched at the expense of the many obtains in this country, and the wrong is in creasing. In proper comprrison with the wealth of the country American labor is more poorly paid than that of any other country, and in no country is capital more highly rewarded.

Speeches were also made by Senator Howard, the Fall River spinner; Treas-urer John B. Lennon, Messrs: Mawdsley and Cowie, of England, Mrs. Eva Me Donald Valish and others. The latter, who is a member of the typographical union, predicted that "the unions will teach the new woman until such time as there will be no longer a necessity for her
