THE DEATH OF THURMAN

The Direct Result of a Recent Fall at His Home.

THE END CAME PEACEFULLY.

His Son Allen and His Grandchildren Were at the Bedside—Governor McKinley's Tribute—The Funeral to be Conducted by a Veteran of Eighty-nine Years.

COLUMBUS, O., Dec. 13.—The long and useful career of Judge Allen G. Thurman came to a close yesterday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at his residence, corner of Rich street and Washington avenue. The end was peaceful in the extreme, and the soul of the great man left the earthly habitation without a sign of physical distress. At the instant of dissolution, and for some hours before, Judge Thurman had been lying in an unconscious condition. He passed merely from sleep temporal to sleep eternal, and the change was hardly noticeable even to the loved ones who surrounded his bedside.

In the midst of the volumes of knowledge he prized so dearly, and amid the scenes where he has spent so many pleasant hours of his happy old age, the vital spark took wings from the image of clay. Judge Thurman died in his library. Shortly after his fall several weeks ago Judge Thurman's bed was moved from the adjoining bedroom to his library, and he remained there. Judge Thurman has lived with his son, Allen W. Thurman, since the death of his wife, and being unable to leave the house he occupied apartments in the second story of the residence, where he spent the last days of his life in a remarkably pleasant and agreeable manner.

The beginning of Judge Thurman's fatal illness dates from Nov. 1 last, when he fell heavily while walking across the library floor. A few days after the fall Judge Thurman's life was despaired of, but he rallied and at times apparently seemed to have regained his old time vigor. On Nov. 13 Judge Thurman was 82 years old, and on that date several of his old friends called on him and had a pleasant chat. On the occasion he seemed unusually cheerful and bright.

Since the accident he had his good days and his bad ones. He had been confined to his bed nearly all the time, and his physician, Dr. W. H. Whitaker, called on him daily. That he was steadily growing weaker was apparent to all, and it had been known for some time that his lease on life could not be protracted much longer. On account of his confinement to bed Judge Thurman began to be afflicted with bed sores, and in order to relieve this unpleasantness he at times sat up and stood up, but he had not attempted to walk since his fall.

Last Tuesday when Dr. Whitaker called he found his patient sitting up in a chair smoking a cigar, and apparently enjoying it. He shook hands with the doctor and said: "My dear doctor, sit down and talk to me." He seemed very buoyant and cracked a joke, and, as was his habit, talked to the doctor in French. It should be remarked that recently it seemed to be one of Judge Thurman's delights to talk French, showing the remarkable vigor of his mental powers. Last Tuesday Dr. Whitaker noticed that he did not continue his French conversation as long as usual, and soon tired of his cigar, and when he got back into bed his pulse was rather feeble.

When Dr. Whitaker saw Judge Thurman at 4 o'clock on Wednesday he seemed listless and rather heavy about his eyes and in his mental operations. However, he recognized the physicians and members of the family. The change for the worse became quite marked shortly after midnight Wednesday, and at 2 a. m. the family became alarmed and sent for Dr. Whitaker.

At that time the physician found his venerable patient almost unconscious. Mucus had filled the bronchial tubes and his breathing was labored. Dr. Whitaker aroused him sufficiently to ask him if he was thirsty, and Judge Thurman nodded his head in assent. He seemed to be partially conscious of what he was doing. He then sank into a heavy stupor from which he was never aroused. It was known at 2 a. m. that the beginning of the end had set in and the family were so notified. At 10 o'clock Dr. Whitaker found the patient gradually sinking. Judge Thurman was perfectly unconscious, and remained so until he passed away at 1:15 p. m.

At the final scene all of the immediate family were at his bedside. He seemed to be free from all distress. Those present at the death scene were Mr. and Mrs. Allen W. Thurman and the following grandchildren: Lee, Miss Katharine, Allen G., Jr., Daniel C. and Sterling Thurman, all children of Mr. Allen W. Thurman.

Governor McKinley last night issued the following:

"Ohio has lost one of its noblest citizens. Allen G. Thurman died at 1 o'clock today at his home in the city of Columbus at the ripe age of 82. He was a statesman whose sturdy integrity and exalted abilities were recognized not only in his own state, but in every part of the United States. As a judge of the supreme court of the state he was a learned and incorruptible interpreter of the law. As United States senator he faithfully and with exceptional honor represented this state in the United States senate. He was a distinguished party leader, and stood in the front rank with the great men who were his contemporaries. After being the recipient of many honors at the hands of his party and his countrymen he retired to private life with the universal respect and esteem of the citizens of the republic and the love of all who had the honor of knowing him. His illustrious career is a conspicuous example of the possibilities of American citizenship, and is worthy the study of the youth of our state. The people of Ohio, regardless of party, will be mourners at his bier. Out of respect to his memory it is hereby ordered that the flag be displayed at half mast over the state capitol till after the funeral."

It has been decided to have the funeral at the residence at 10 a. m. tomorrow. While efforts will be made to have the services as privately as possible, in deference to public sentiment all who desire will be given an opportunity to view the remains at the residence. Rev. J. L. Grover, who yesterday celebrated his 89th birthday, will preach the sermon. It was Judge Thurman's request that if Rev. Mr. Grover was living and in good health the latter should preach the sermon at his funeral. Mr. Grover is at present city librarian, a position he has held for twenty-two years, and is still a very active man.

"DR. MILES,

Through His Nervine Is a Benefactor to Thousands."

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 6th, 1895, as follows:

"Five years ago I became so nervous that mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept a bottle in my house and use it whenever my nerves become unstrung, with always the same good results. My son also takes it for nervousness with like never failing success. I have recommended it to many and it cures them. All who suffer from nerve troubles should try it. It is free from narcotics, perfectly harmless, and yet soothes and strengthens. Dr. Miles, through his Nervine is a benefactor to thousands."

THE GERMAN SOCIALISTS.

Their Insults to the Sovereign Declared Dangerous and Penal.

BERLIN, Dec. 13.—In the reichstag Herr Hausmann, National Liberal, declared that the tone of the speech of the minister for war, General Bronsart von Schellendorf, on Wednesday, when he said that should the police fail and the army be required to deal with socialism, there would be no child's play, etc., lowered the standard of the good taste of the house. Herr Hausmann made other remarks on the subject, which resulted in his being called to order. Dr. Schoenstedt, the minister of justice, said there was no such thing in Germany as one sided justice. The authorities were far from wishing to prosecute on the charge of lese majeste uneducated people who were guilty of thoughtless remarks, but the public prosecutors were doing their duty in prosecuting those who were found guilty of the insults which appear in the socialistic press. This called forth a vehement interruption from Herr Liebknecht, the Socialist leader, which led to his being called to order.

Herr Bebel, who precipitated the uproar in the reichstag on Wednesday, declared that the public prosecutors have a double set of ears, and that Socialists are dragged to prison while a Hammerstein is allowed to escape. He had heard that there were letters from Conservative leaders containing outrageous lese majeste.

The speaker was interrupted here by loud Rightist shouts of "Produce them."

Dr. Schoenstedt, the Prussian minister of justice, replied that offense must be judged according to the tendencies of the authors. He was of the opinion that the tendency of the Socialists made their insults to the sovereign dangerous and penal.

Chancellor Von Hohenlohe said that the emperor's declarations against the socialists were entirely justified. "I shall take care," said the chancellor, "not to follow Herr Bebel's advice to restrain the emperor from strongly expressing his indignation in the future, as he has done in the past."

LIVERMORE VERSUS GOUGAR.

Noted Female Lecturers Will Air Their Grievances in Court.

BOSTON, Dec. 13.—The Standard publishes a brief history of a difficulty that exists between Mrs. Helen M. Gougar, the temperance advocate of Lafayette, Ind., and Mrs. Mary A. Livermore, the well known woman suffrage and temperance lecturer of this state. Mrs. Livermore has already secured the services of counsel, and says she "will certainly permit no statement reflecting on her character to pass unnoticed."

The difficulty began in the United States circuit court here when Mrs. Livermore was a witness in the suit brought against Congressman Elijah Morse by Mrs. Gougar. Mrs. Livermore testified that she knew Mrs. Gougar well and that she occasionally used "harsh and abusive language." Mrs. Livermore also said she had never been a member of the Prohibition party of this state.

A letter appeared in the last issue of the New York Voice, signed by Mrs. Gougar, in which she sharply took Mrs. Livermore to task and sought to show that she did not speak the truth at the trial. Mrs. Gougar alleges that Mrs. Livermore supported the Prohibition nominees, and quoted from Hon. J. P. St. John for the purpose of showing that she left the Republican party and joined the Prohibitionists. Mrs. Gougar also denied other statements which Mrs. Livermore made at the trial.

Mrs. Livermore is very indignant at the letter in The Voice, which she pronounces "a tissue of misrepresentations." Mrs. Livermore has handed the entire matter over to counsel.

Another Rockefeller Wedding.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Standing beneath a gorgeous floral canopy and environed by a scene of horticultural splendor, in the music room of her father's country palace, Rockwood Hall, Tarrytown-on-the-Hudson, Miss Emma Rockefeller, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rockefeller, was wedded yesterday to Dr. D. Hunter McAlpin, Jr., son of D. Hunter McAlpin, of New York city. It was the third nuptial celebration in the Rockefellar family within a month, and, in point of brilliancy, surpassed the two preceding events. The bride is the eldest daughter of William G. Rockefeller, the Standard Oil magnate. Mr. McAlpin's father is also immensely wealthy.

Cumberland Valley Baseball League.

CHAMBERSBURG, Pa., Dec. 13.—The Cumberland Valley Baseball league, which was so successful last season, re-organized here yesterday, with Chambersburg, Carlisle, Frederick, Hanover, Hagerstown, Martinsburg and York in the circuit. Harrisburg will probably be admitted later. C. Heninger, of Chambersburg, was made temporary president and T. E. McCardell, of Hagerstown, secretary. The season will be from June 10 to Sept. 10, and the salary limited to $750 a month for each club.

New York Policemen on Wheels.

NEW YORK, Dec. 13.—Last night the first squad of policemen mounted on bicycles in this city went on duty. Hereafter four mounted policemen will be constantly patrolling Eighth avenue and the Boulevard. The bicycle corps will do duty just the same as any other policemen, except that they will also regulate the traffic of vehicles and prevent fast or reckless driving. They will pay particular attention to "scorchers."

Ore Shipments by Lake.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 13.—Returns received from all the iron ore shipping ports on the great lakes show that 10,233,910 gross tons of ore were shipped by water from the mines. This breaks all previous records.
