The Prisoner Held in Default of $1,000 Bail to Await Trial for Perjury-She Clain a to Have Been Drugged Before Making Hec Confession.

NEW YORK, Dec. 14.-Barbara Aub, inalleted for perjury on her accusation of assault against Walter S. L. Langerman, was arraigned before Judge Cowing yesterday and pleaded not guilty.

Mr. House, counsel for Miss Aub, suggested that the court appoint a commis sion to inquire into the mental condition of the girl. He had, he said, arrived so far at no definite conclusion in the case. He had some private facts about the girl's case which he would submit to the court.

Miss Aub's counsel stated to the court that when he was first assigned to the case the woman seemed to feel that she had done her duty in confessing to per-jury. "When I saw her on Monday last," he went on, "in response to a message by telephone, she told me that she had no collection of making any confession, nor did she recollect going to the house of Re-corder Goff on the eve of Thanksgiving

She said that such a confession was impossible, as the story she told on the witness stand was true. I then asked her how she came to make this confession, and she replied that from the time of the trial until Wednesday afternoon she had been in a dream.

"She made one peculiar statement to me She asked me if I thought that Miss Kell-ard would be brought into the case. I told her I did not know. She then said: If you can give me any assurance that Miss Kellard will not be prosecuted I will tell the truth.' I told lier that I had no autherity to promise immunity to Miss Kell-ard, but that I did not think she was in any danger of prosecution."

Colonel Fellows said that he had in tended to move that the girl be discharged on her own recognizance had not the new phase caused by her recent recontation appeared. He asked that bail be fixed at $1,000. Barbara, he said, was the victim of fool friends. Judge Cowing paid no attention to the request for a commission in lunary. He fixed ball at $1,000, and the prisoner was taken back to jall in default.

At the jail Miss Aub said to a reporter:
"As true as there is a God in Heaven, I can positively say that the first statement I made about Langerman is true. Anything else I might have said is untrue."

Miss Smedley asked her if she was influenced in her confession by any one "rom the Door of Hope. Barbara hesitated a moment and then said, "yes."

Barbara was then asked: "What promise was made to you to confess? To you know what promise was made to Miss Kellard to obtain your confession?" Miss Kellard was promised anything, but she said to me that I would never want for anything in the world if I would stick to my confession. She also promised me a house on Madison avenue, near Thirty-Miss Aub then said that some one whom he believed was connected with the Door of Hope and given her a drug in a glass of milk. She said that after taking it she lost her senses, and was like one in a dream. She said she had no recollection of having made a confession, but believed that she must have made it, because it Miss Marie Leslie, who was 'n prisoner in the same room with Barbara, told a reporter that Miss Aub had told her that she had given a check for $5 to Miss Kellard to have cashed for her and that she had not seen Miss Kellard since.

After Barbara had refused to see Mrs. Whittemore on Thursday the latter sent her a letter in which she said she was sorry Barbara had not stuck to her and to God, for no one but God could help her.

After reading this letter Barbara said:
"The next time I get in trouble I will see a lawyer first and God next."
Barbara said that Miss Kellard and sent her a note during the afternoon, and asked that Barbara send her an answer to the

THE ARMENIAN HORRORS

SWORN STATEMENT OF A REFUGEE.

Many Armenian Prisoners Were Killed After Being Taken to Prison-The Red Cross Society Will Undertake the Work of Distributing Relief.

CONSTANTINOPLE, Dec. 14.-At the meeting of the ambassadors on Tuesday last the reports received from Armenia at the different embassies were compared and thoroughly discussed, with the view of enabling the different representatives to compile full reports on the subject for the use of their governments. It is believed that if the result of this conference is published it will show an unparalleled state of affairs. The misery and distress in Armenia is said to be more severe than the most vivid reports have made out, and the number of people massacred is said to be greater that anybody here really believed.

Letters received here from Aleppo say that there is serious fear there of a massa-cre of the Christians unless the powers in-surrounding the Armenians, cutting off their lines of communication and preventing them from obtaining reinforcements, provisions and the supplies of arms and ammunition, which are understood to have been forwarded to them from many parts of Asiatic Turkey. When the town of Zeitoun is completely surrounded it is be-lieved that the Armenians will quickly be starved into submission, although their friends say they have provisions enough stored in the town to last them until spring and that the Turks will have to oass the winter in the snow around Zel-pass the winter in the snow around Zeltoun.

A Turkish official who is familiar with the situation at Zeltoun said today that the fituation at Zeltoun said today that the Armenians there were inclined to surrender to the Turks, but they distrusted the promises of the latter that their lives would be spared if they laid down their arms.

Izzet Eey, the first chamberlain of the sultan and the great favorite, recently, of his majesty, has been replaced by Hadjiah Bey and Emitt Bey at the palace, but the last named has been arrested in consequence of the charges brought against him by Kutchuk Said Pasha, the ex-grand vizier.

Izzet has tendered his resignation four times since then, but each time the sultan refused to accept it. Izzet, however, persists in resigning.

The young Turks warmly blame Kutchuk Said Pasha for leaving the British embassy, and hope he will insist on his announced intention of going abroad. On the other hand, the old Turks blame him for taking refuge in the embassy. The result is that Said Pasha's prestige in the eyes of the Turks is considered to have been considerably shaken, and it is believed that his political career is terminated.
