David Bowman Dead.

David Bowman, one of the oldest and most respected residents of Mahaney City, died at his home yesterday, at the age of 87 years. He was engaged in some light work in the cellar of his residence when he was eized with a dissiness and compelled to go to his room. He passed away two hours later. The deceased is survived by a wife and seven children, among the latter being R goods are decidedly the very BEST sold in this city. The finest Schuyikill county, and for years operated the Spring Dale colliery now operated by Lentz. Lilly & Co. His last engagement in that line was when he opened the Bowman colliery, near New Castle, in 1884, on reliring from which he retired from business entirely and spent the remainder of his life in well-carned retirement, making his home with his sonin-law, Dr. P. Hermany, of Mahanoy City.

Their Committee Well Received by President Wilbur, Special to EVENTSO HERALD.

HAZLETON, Dec. 18,-There can be no doubt that the relations of the Lehigh Valley employes and the officials of that company were greatly strained, since the meeting of the Brotherhood here and previous to the interview with President Wilbur,

There has, however, been a radical change since the conference. The committee that was selected to wait on Mr. Wilbur were well received, in fact they were assured that the worthy men, and those against whom there were no charges, would be reinstated, and every effort made to live up to the agreement made two years ago. Mr. Wilbur informed them that orders had been issued to all the superintendents to reinstate old employes, but for some reason it had not been complied with on the Hazleton division, but he Of Christmas, is a store overflow promised to give the matter his attention.

In the future all applications for work on the part of old employes will be made direct to Bethlehem, instead of Delano, as has been in the past. There they will be duly considered and if the applicant is worthy his re-instatement will follow. The committee received better treatment at the hands of the Valley officials than they expected and all fears of another conflict between the company and its employes are allayed.

Colliery Fire.

Fire was discovered in an old unused traveling way at Tunnel Ridge colliery, near Mahanoy City, yesterday. It is not known how long the fire has been burning as the represents a firm of solicitors at Washington, traveling way has been closed at the opening D. C., and is here for the purpose of getting for a good while past and a battery had been the letter carriers of town to put in claims to creeted above the gangway when there was he government for any overtime they no further use for it. When discovered the worked on the force prior to the time that the system was revised. But three of the present carriers, Messrs, Bock, Holman and Bartsch, have claims of this character and of hose from the Mahanoy City fire departthey amount to quite a sum. It is under- ment in order to force water up the way, as stood that they have turned them over to the heat was too intense for men to get close Mr. Slater. Steps to collect the claims were enough to do effective work. The fire was still raging at the hour of going to press.
