A Slight Collision. An engine on the P. & R. railroad, bound for Shenandoah this morning with a train of empty coal cars, broke down at Lost Creek. A second engine drawing a similar train in the same direction undertook to move both trains. While the coupling was being made a passenger train rounded a sharp curve at the rear and ran into the hind end of the engine, but as it was not running fast the damage was slight.

A Clearing in the Cloak Room. Not many days left before Christmas comes. Now is the time to buy that new Cloak or Wrap. Our line is still complete, but the prices have been pruned down without regard to cost.
