The ceremony consisted of con-ferring the berretta, which is the cap worn by priceles on ordinary occasions, and di-fering only in the case of cardinais in that it is red. The proceding steps have been the conferring of the nucleatro, or red skull cap, and the abrituinistering of the oath. The remaining step is the conferring of the red hat, which must be done in Rome by the pope himself, within six months from Nov. 30, the day upon which Satolli's appointment was made. saying in pars : "Mass surfment sir, I hog you to neces my congratulations upon this special bonor which, today, 1) conferred upon your entropy, and upon this multifesta-tion of particular affection as shown by his holinoss toward this most noble. American nation and its flourishing church. In fact from the time when Leo XIII most happily ascended the throne of Peter he Impuly assisted the throne of Peter he has in many ways expressed his affection toward this country. He sent his repre-sentative to be present at the inaugura-tion of the great universal exposition, to which be contributed most precious doen-ments. He has culturated with paternal adhitude this soluty rates of the Lorde solicitude this select part of the Lord's vineyard and has bestowed upon it many favors.

When Mar. Sbarretil had finished speak-ing Cardinal Gibicons responded briefly in latin, and then turning toward the throne secupied by Satolli, spoke in English as follows: follows:

"Your eminence, I regard it as a great honor and privilege to be chosen by the holy father to act as his delegate and representative in conferring upon you the berretta, as the symbol of the excited dig-nity to which you have been raised. "But the distinction conferred on your eminence is not only a proof of the sovereign pontiff's prediction; it is also an evi-dence of your personal merit. When you came to the United States three years ago you were a comparative stranger to our country; a stranger to our clergy and peo-ple; a stranger to our civil and political institutions, and even a stranger to our noble language. "The knowledge which your eminence has already acquired of our system of gov-erament, both by travel and observation, and the warm and judicious tributes of praise our political system has received at your hands, are well attested by the admirable lectures and discourses which you have delivered from time to time in different parts of the country. "It must be a source of special gratification to your eminence to contemplate around you on this auspicious occasion so large a number of the leading prelates and clergy of the country to testify by their presence, their joy and satisfaction at the eminent dignity to which you have been raised by our holy father. Loo XIII." The vast audience became all attention as it neared the most interesting point in the palace the procession was forming in all the ceremony, that of netually confer-ring the berretta. Cardinal Gibbons deseended from his throne and advanced to the front of the altar. Behind him came his attendants, Father Magnion Laring the berretta. As Cardinal Gibbons reached the altar, and turned to face the audience. Satolli rose, and exported by Marquis Sac-ripanti and Chamberlains Kelly and Bristead, walked toward Cardinal Gibbons. Upon reaching this illustrious prelate Mgr. Satolli kneit and bowed his head. Cardinal Gibbous took the herretta from Undertaking! the silver salver on which it reset and slowly unfolding it, held it high up so that the audience could see it. Then he placed it upon the head of the new cardi-nal. Cardinal Satelli rose, and for the first time in its history there were two cardinals upon America's soil. Advancing to the front of the altar Car-dinal Satolli dollvered a brief address, in the course of which he said: "It is certainly a source of great and sincere satisfaction to me that this function should be held here in America, where 1 have received so many attestations of good have received so many attestations of good will and affection, in the mid-t of this great and glocious mation, where truth and liberty are joined with that spirit of christian love which is their most potent anfeguard and the pledge of perpetual peace and tranquility. I hope and pray that this will mark the beginning of an era still more brilliant and still more prosperous for the church and for the country." Upon finishing his address the newly made cardinal, who up to this time had worn the robes of an archbishop, retired to the inner sanctuary, and in a few minutes returned clad in the gorgeous apparel of a cardinal. He was seen in these but a few moments, however, as he was almost im-mediately robed in the white and gold vestments of the mass, which he was to cele-brate. Assisted by his priests and deacons he proceeded with this amid the breathless attention of the vast audience. When the gospel was reached a movable pulpit was pushed to the center of the auditorium, and Archbishop Kain, of St. Louis, deliv-ered the sermon. At the close of the mass Cardinal Gibbons announced that the holy father had cabled his congratulations, and that he had authorized the speaker to pronounce the apostolic benediction upon all those present. At his request Dr. Rooker read the cablegram. The cardinal pronounced the benediction and the ceremony was ended.

These creden-tials deputized Cardinal Gibbons to conferthe berretta, and were accompanied by the berretta, which from that moment were in the custody of Cardinal Gibbons. In pre-senting the documents and the berretta, Mgr. Sbarretti alluded briefly to Mgr. Sa toll's work for the church.

Cardinal Gibbons, in receiving the docu-ments and the berretta responded briefly, expressing his high appreciation of the honor conferred upon him, and congratu-lating Mgr. Sbarretti upon the manner in which he had performed his duties in this country.

front of Calvert hall, a block away. At 10 o'clock it was ready to start, and whon formed the participants were arranged as follows:

First came the processional cross heaver, with the crucifix raised high in the air, and flanked on either side by a boy in cas-sock and surplice. Following him were a long line of students from, the various Catholic colleges, after which came semi-narians from St. Mary's, then priosts, then franciscan monks, in their garb of brown. Following these came the members of the faculty of the Catholic university in Washington, in long roles of black, lined with many colored silks, their heads adorned with the shovel board hat of the scholar. After these came half a hundred bishops and a score or more of archbishops, the immense trains of their rich vestments held up by little boys in heilliant vestmonts, too

In this formation they marched through the cathedral to Charles street and passed the palace of the cardinal, where they were joined by his eminence, who took his place last in the line. Upon his head he were the red berretta, an exact du-plicate of the one which he was soon to plicate of the one which he was soon to confer upon the man who will for some time, at least, share his honors in this country. Upon his shoulders hung the beautiful cloak of cardinal silk and er-mine, with half a dozen train bearers, clad in cardinal velvet and gilt braid, following in his wake.
