 TUESDAY, JANUARY 7, 1896.
 A Jealous Husband's Double Crime.
 SCOTTSBURGH, Pa., Jan. 7.—There was a terrible tragedy yesterday at Little York, eight miles west of here. Walter Counts shot his wife through the bowels, she lying flat fifteen minutes. Counts then shot himself below the heart. He is still alive, and begs for some one to kill him. The two children of the couple are absent at school. Mrs. Counts was a highly respected woman and there was no cause save jealousy.

He had entertained a number of friends during the evening, and the flames were discovered about 2 o'clock yesterday morning, when he was found. Fisher was an elderly man, and is said to have kept considerable money in his house. The affair is not free from suspicion.

THE PHILADELPHIA PROBE.
A Witness Arrested for Perjury Will be Defended by Lawyer Pettit.
 PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 7.—The senatorial committee appointed to investigate municipal affairs in Philadelphia resumed business in room 65 of the city hall yesterday afternoon. One of the results of the investigation thus far was the arrest yesterday of John R. Moon, an ex-police man, on the charge of perjury. At a previous session Davis swore he obtained a place on the force without the necessity of passing a civil service examination. The warrant for his arrest was sworn out by Secretary Neill, of the civil service board. The committee's counsel, Silas W. Pettit, will defend Davis.
 John R. Moon was the first witness called. He testified that he was a regularly elected election officer at the primary election in the Fifteenth ward (Mayor Warwick's ward) in August last, but that he was prevented from officiating by four policemen—Buchanan, Rabston, Hamilton and Bechtel—who forcibly ejected him. He finally opened the door on the outside, elected his delegates, and they were afterwards admitted to the convention. Peter N. Brooks corroborated Moon's testimony, as did Frank Kersch and Henry Young. Kersch asked the policeman why they were in there, and they said they "had their orders."

Additional Appointments.
 The County Commissioners late yesterday afternoon appointed Dr. George Moore, of Hecksherville, as prison physician. He was named by Commissioner Martin, while Mr. Allen voted for the present incumbent, Dr. Cooper. Messrs. Rinta and Martin voted together. Dr. Moore is a Republican.
 District Attorney Bechtel has appointed Thomas O'Donnell, of St. Clair, to the position of clerk in his office, formerly held by Joseph Schmidt, of Riley township. The salary is $30 a month. It was understood a special interpreter was to be named to assist the new clerk, but the salary board, consisting of the Commissioners and Controller, would not allow it.
 The Directors of the Poor made a few changes in the list of appointments already published. Peter Washer and wife, of Wm. Penn, retain their old positions in the insane department and Gordon Reed, Director Dietrich's appointee, is removed. Isaac Hoy who was slated to succeed John White, as a fireman, was made night nurse and White remains in his old position. William Heffner, who was night nurse, was made teacher vice George Hoffman, who will be the butcher. Mary J. Evans was appointed cook; Kate Smith, of Washington, milkmaid, and Martha Middleton, assistant clerk. This position was held by Alice Day, a daughter of Director Day.

The New Directory.
 Work on the city directory for Shenandoah is progressing very nicely and it is evident from the systematic canvass that its publishers are making that our town is at last to have a complete and accurate reference work. No business man, no matter in what line he may be, can well afford to be without the work. By aiding its publishers in the matter of advertising, patronage, or subscription, they not only receive a valuable medium for publicity, but they aid at the same time a work that has long been a necessity to our town. We intend to aid the publishers in any manner that lays in our power and if our business people will look at the matter in the proper spirit of enterprise, Shenandoah will not be lacking for a directory that will prove a credit and benefit to it for some time to come.

Director Derr Honored.
 The employes of the almshouse yesterday presented our townsmen, William Derr, with a handsome gold watch. Mr. Derr yesterday retired from the board, having served his term of three years as a Poor Director, and the gift was presented as a token of the high esteem in which he is held. The presentation was made by ex-Steward Hartman, who among other things very truthfully said: "I know you will prize it highly, not for its intrinsic value, but for the spirit which prompted the donors. Take it, wear it, prize it and cherish it, for it proclaims to all mankind that thou hast been a good and faithful servant." Mr. Derr was deeply affected by the expression of these kind words, and John W. Reese accepted it on his behalf.

THE LICENSE COURT.
Hot Fights Over Remonstrances Proposed for the Next Term.
 The license court at Pottsville will convene in about two weeks and some lively contests are expected. Among the people against whose remonstrances have been filed are Joseph Kozlitz, Second ward of Shenandoah, charged with selling on Sunday, with the additional allegation that the stand is not necessary; James Quirk, Mahanoy City, for selling liquors to minors and allowing persons to play pool for drinks in his saloon; and Charles Burehill, Mahanoy City, for selling on Sunday and encouraging the playing of cards and other games for drinks in his saloon.
 A remonstrance has also been filed against an application for a license to brew and wholesale liquor by the Charles D. Kaiser Company (Limited). The cause given for the remonstrance is that the applicant is pecuniarily interested in other licensed houses in the county contrary to the Act of Assembly.

Boy Run Over.
 Roy, 12-year-old son of William E. Phillips, of East Line street, was run over by a team in charge of Roberts, the liveryman, yesterday and seriously, but not dangerously, injured. The accident occurred late yesterday afternoon in front of Wyatt's hotel, on North Main street. Children who left the High school building gathered about a farmer's team that was trying to pull a loaded wagon out of a rut, and young Phillips was one of them. When the team finally started up the boy stepped backwards and was knocked down by the team driven by Mr. Roberts, whose cries of warning were not heard. A knee of one of the horses knocked the boy down and the wheels of the carriage passed over his right thigh and his back, just above the hips. Dr. Hamilton attended him.
