THE TURKS' OBJECTION

To the Red Cross Distributing Aid to Armenian Sufferers.

A QUESTION OF NATIONAL PRIDE.

The Turkish Minister at Washington Discusses His Country's Attitude—But Relief is Already Being Distributed Through European Consuls to the Victims.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 15.—In an interview yesterday the Turkish minister said: "You ask me what I have to say about the following statement: 'The Red Cross society has decided not to pay any attention to the communication until it is officially transmitted to it by the Turkish government or the Turkish minister.' My answer is very simple, and it is the following:—"

"The Red Cross has never communicated with this legation. It has only communicated, to my knowledge, with the press and the public, its president, Miss Clara Barton, assisting, without protest, at public meetings where the most gross and unjust abuse was made of the Turkish government, religion and race. As the Red Cross, not any of its representatives, never visited this legation, it is clear and logical that this legation has nothing to communicate to said society. This legation sent its communication to the press because it is the public that the Red Cross took in its confidence. But, naturally, I always will be ready and pleased to give to the Red Cross society any explanation it may think it proper to ask for."

"This whole question," added the minister, "is a question of right. Suppose for one moment that your own Indians were to revolt against your legitimate authority. Suppose that you put down their revolt, and suppose that in some foreign country some foreigners were to calumniate publicly your civilization, your race and your religion. Not satisfied with that, suppose that those foreigners, on the strength of such false accusations, were to raise money and bring it for distribution, through their own channels, however respectable the latter may be, to the same people that revolted against your government. Would that money, raised on hatred and denunciation, would even a moral aid from foreigners, be welcome to this country of yours, however welcome it might be, for obvious reasons, to your Indians?"

"Even today, notwithstanding the contrary assurances of interested parties, the Turkish government has no animosity whatever against the Armenians, and only wishes to see them prosper under its legitimate and rightful authority."

CONTRIBUTIONS GOING FORWARD.

The Work of Supplying Relief to Armenians Already Progressing.

NEW YORK, Jan. 15.—The following official statement has been issued from the headquarters of the national Armenian relief committee: "The intention of the Turkish government to refuse the American Red Cross society permission to enter Turkey will not cause the national Armenian relief committee and its branches throughout the country to relax their efforts for an instant in raising funds to save the 350,000 Armenians who are perishing from starvation and exposure."

"The national committee is the authorized agency throughout the country for raising funds and supplies to be distributed by the Red Cross, provided it enters the field, but in case the Red Cross is excluded the national committee has authority to exercise existing agencies on the ground or organize new ones, so that all contributors may be assured that their gifts will be as speedily as possible reach the sufferers for whom they are intended."

"Many are not aware of the fact that relief work to the extent of not less than $100,000 has already been successfully carried out in Turkey during the past three months, under the direction of a strong and representative committee of foreign residents and diplomats in Constantinople, through European consuls and the American legation who are found to be in all the principal cities of the interior."

"A letter just received from Constantinople dated Dec. 27 states that sixty bales of clothing had been forwarded that week to Sessara, and that it is now possible to forward large amounts of money safely to those engaged in this work in the devastated regions. The Red Cross could greatly enlarge this work."

"It seems incredible that while the Turkish government is permitting such relief work it should exclude the Red Cross, which, as is well known, will not step over a suffering Turk or Kurd to help an Armenian."

Says Miss Barton Will Go to Turkey.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Mrs. C. E. Gross, a member of the Red Cross society, said when informed of the announcement by the Turkish legation that the imperial government would not permit any distribution among its subjects by any foreign society of money collected abroad: "The Turkish government has a treaty with the Red Cross society which will give Miss Barton free entrance to Armenia and protection while she is at work there. This was the reason the missionaries asked to have her sent there. They all know the government would not dare molest her, or interfere with the work of the Red Cross. Miss Barton will positively leave on the day which has been set and announced."

Captain Allen's Big Defeat.

BEVERLY, Mass., Jan. 15.—The defeat of Captain John Allen has created a perfect whirl of excitement in Manchester. The amount involved is said to be even greater than first thought, and as figured at present will probably foot up over $300,000. In addition to the $195,000 appropriated from the Roberts estate evidence is shown of the peculation from two other estates entrusted to him.

The Mayor of Louisville Dead.

LOUISVILLE, Jan. 15.—Henry S. Tyler, mayor of Louisville, died yesterday at his home, Fifth and Oak streets. He had been ill for about five weeks. The cause of death was congestion of the kidneys and uremic poisoning. Mayor Tyler was 44 years of age and a native of Louisville. A widow and several children survive him.

Murderously Assaulted by Italians. ALTOONA, Pa., Jan. 15.—Joseph Vergardo, an Italian, was murderously assaulted by three of his countrymen here last night with a coupling pin. The injured man is lying at the point of death in the Altoona hospital. The police succeeded in capturing two of the assailants after a long search in the Italian colony.

The Volksraad Meets, but Adjourns Until Next May.

MESSAGE FROM PRESIDENT KRUGER

He is Firmly Resolved to Maintain the Rights of the Republic and Establish It on a Firmer Foundation—The Transfer of Jameson and His Invaders.

PRETORIA, Transvaal, Jan. 15.—The Volksraad met yesterday and authorized the government to increase the state artillery force by 400 men. They also adopted a government resolution thanking the Orange Free State for its sisterly assistance and also Sir Hercules Robinson, governor of Cape Colony, and Sir Jacobus De Wet, British agent at Pretoria, for the powerful support they had given to the Transvaal government and for their efforts to prevent bloodshed.

A message was read to the Volksraad from President Kruger to the effect that he intends to discuss with the Volksraad in later and calmer moments the causes which led to the disastrous plot against the state and government. He was firmly resolved, the message said, to maintain the sacred rights and interests of the republic, and to establish the same on a firmer and surer foundation.

The brief sitting of the Volksraad then adjourned till May. Owing to the excited feeling among the burghers, calm and dispassionate legislation in connection with recent events was considered impossible.

Jameson and the officers of his raiding expedition and political prisoners, numbering sixty, are still in the jail here, and are well cared for pending the final decision between Sir Hercules Robinson and the Transvaal government as to their fate.

At Johannesburg yesterday a thousand armed and mounted burghers traversed the streets of the city, carrying great banners, and 1,300 others are outside the city and will ride through town today in order to exhibit their fighting strength to the miners and to gratify the mob.

Germany Must be Watched.

BRUSSELS, Jan. 15.—The smoke of the first encounter has been dissipated, but Great Britain cannot afford to close its eyes to any symptoms of fresh German movements. The watch on Delagoa bay must stand as fast as the German watch on the Rhine. The attempts of The North German Gazette and other papers to veer to the Venezuela side may gain for Germany Venezuela's alliance in African questions. It will secure her nothing further.

Belgium Asks British Protection.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—The Belgian government, in addition to the United States government, has asked Great Britain to watch the interests of its subjects in the Transvaal. In consequence of these representations Secretary Chamberlain has telegraphed to the governor of Cape Colony, Sir Hercules Robinson, expressing apprehension that the numerous arrests made will disorganize the Rand industries.

To Transfer the Transvaal Prisoners.

LONDON, Jan. 15.—Governor Sir Hercules Robinson has telegraphed to the colonial office that he has completed arrangements for the transfer of the prisoners now held by the Transvaal government at the Natal border.

Death of a Maryland Judge.

ANNAPOLIS, Jan. 15.—Judge Robinson, of the Maryland court of appeals, died yesterday afternoon of heart disease while at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Fulmer, of this city. Judge Robinson had been ill but three days, and his ailment was not thought to be serious. His successor will be appointed by Governor Lowndes, who will also designate the chief judge, who in this case will doubtless be the same person appointed as judge, the other members of the court being Democrats. Judge Robinson was born in Caroline county, Md., Dec. 8, 1837, and graduated from Dickinson college, Pa., in 1867. Two years later he was admitted to the bar. He has held the office of state's attorney for Queen Anne's county and judge of the Third judicial district, and was elected a justice of the court of appeals in 1897 and re-elected in 1902.

Lawyers Fight in Court.

BALTIMORE, Jan. 15.—Ex-Congressman Henry Stockbridge and Thomas Mackall, both prominent members of the bar, became involved in an altercation in Judge Phelps' court yesterday, during which the lie was passed. The men clinched and some of the bystanders say blows were struck before they were separated. Judge Phelps ordered them out of the court room, and will probably punish them for contempt. In the same court three jurors in a civil case came in late, and developed that they had been out to luncheon with one of the parties to the suit. They were dismissed from the jury box and fined $5 each.

Schooner Sunk and Nine Drowned.

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—The fishing schooner Fortuna, Captain Greenlaw, from Boston for George's Banks, was in collision Monday night with the British steamer Barnstable of Highland Light. The schooner was out almost in two and sank within three minutes. Fourteen of her crew were saved by the steamer. Those drowned belonged to Gloucester, where they leave families. The drowned are: William Ackman, Robert Childs, Harry McKee, Thomas Stewart, Alfred Noonan, Harry Emmons, Simon Andrews, John Clark and William Goodwin.

Trumbull Not a Presidential Candidate.

CHICAGO, Jan. 15.—Ex-Judge Lyman Trumbull says that he has no idea of being the Populist candidate for president, although recent dispatches have indicated that his name was being used in that connection. "I am entirely out of politics," he said to a reporter, "and I will not accept any nomination."

A Triple Murderer Meets His Match.

PARIS, Tex., Jan. 15.—At Detroit, sixteen miles east of here, in Red River county, Worth Duncan, a prominent merchant, shot and instantly killed Dr. J. S. Leuzor, who was the aggressor, had killed three men in his career.

Matrieide and Suicide.

WATERTOWN, N. Y., Jan. 15.—William Oswald, of Ogdensburg, N. Y., shot and killed his mother and then ended his own life in that city yesterday. He has been out of work for some time past, and it is supposed to have prompted him to commit the double crime.
