MR. HARRISON'S SELECTION

The Ex-President Announces His Matrimonial Candidacy.

WILL BE MARRIED AFTER LENT.

Mrs. Dimmick, a Niece of the First Mrs. Harrison, and Who Often Assisted at White House Receptions, Will be Stepmother of Her Cousins.

NEW YORK, Jan. 18.—The fact that General Harrison had an important statement to make drew a large crowd of politicians and others to the corridors of the Fifth Avenue hotel last night. Many of the politicians expected that General Harrison would make a declaration as to his candidacy for president, and were disappointed when they heard that the general talked of matrimonial affairs instead of politics. At the appointed time Mr. Tibbits, the general's private secretary, made the following statement in his room, where he received the members of the press:

"General Harrison authorizes the announcement that he and Mrs. Dimmick are engaged to be married, and that their marriage will not take place until after Lent."

When the secretary finished reading the announcement he refused to say anything further, other than that ex-President Harrison would probably leave for Indianapolis, returning to Washington in time to argue the Stanford law suit.

Mrs. Dimmick, to whom the general is engaged, is better known in Indianapolis and Washington than in New York. During the life of Mrs. Harrison, who was her aunt, Mrs. Dimmick practically governed Mr. Harrison's household in Indianapolis, and directed the household in Washington during the period that Mrs. Harrison was ill and prior to her death. That Mrs. Dimmick was a favorite with the then president in Washington is without a doubt. At all state functions she received with Mrs. Harrison when alive, and acted in her place later when she was sick. It is understood that the step was not taken by General Harrison without consulting his children, of whom he is very fond.

Mrs. Dimmick is 40 years of age, tall, and a strikingly handsome brunette. A Dynamiter's Confession. HAZLETON, Pa., Jan. 18.—Mike Spiro, the alleged leader of the Mafia who was brought here from Chicago Thursday night, was given a hearing before Alderman Martin yesterday, charged with arson in blowing up with dynamite Matteo Gorod's house and factory at midnight of June 28 last. Spiro made a complete confession, declaring that he did not do the work, but hired Nicholas Politz and Mike Barone, two Italian school teachers. The bomb, he said, was made by Mike Romano, a coal digger. The three accused men were immediately taken into custody. Spiro, Politz and Barone were committed without bail and sent to jail with Romano, who could not furnish $5,000 bail. Romano confessed to making the bomb, but claimed that he did so under the threat of being killed. Gorod, who was a notary public, had arrested Spiro for selling wine without a license.

POLICE CORRUPTION.

Another Chapter Regarding the Philadelphia Police.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 18.—Yesterday's session of the senatorial investigating committee was replete with sensational testimony, and was confined to the abuses said to have crept into the police bureau. Evidence was submitted against Houder, Sergeant Scullington, of the Chestnut Hill subdivision and formerly of the Sixteenth police district, to the effect that he had feloniously assaulted a 7-year-old daughter of Robert J. Hoop, of Gormantown and now of Wilmington, Del. It was said that complaint was made at head quarters, but nothing being done, Scullington was arrested. This was about four years ago. The grand jury found a true bill against the accused, but the case has never yet been brought to trial. The witnesses were Mr. Hoop, the child and Dr. Weaver.

Julia Crow, who for twenty years kept one of the lowest and most notorious houses in the slum section of the Second district, next testified. Since August, through the Christian League, she has been living respectably in another part of the city under her proper name. She said policemen came to her house every night and got from $1 to $2 each time, and also consorted with the women. She said that men and boys voted from her house irrespective of how long they lived there.

There were thirty-one houses, she said, of a similar character around her, and when any of them got into trouble a Mr. Simpson, a South street jeweler, was sent for. William Harrington, an employee of the recorder of deeds office, acted for Simpson. The witness said when any of the houses were raided Simpson had to be paid, through Harrington, to go bail for the girls, after which but few cases went to trial. If bail was not forthcoming the girls were sent to the house of correction, and if a discharge was wanted $25 had to be paid Simpson. Witness said the hearings were before Magistrate Kane, now deceased, and that Lieutenant of Police Gillingham usually stood behind him. She never paid the latter any money, but heard of several occasions he had received some.

The witness also said that since she has been living respectably she was threatened by special officers Thomas and McWilliams, of the Seventeenth district, in which she is now living. They told her she would have to move, as Lieutenant Gillingham had complained of her. She went to the Christian League, and has not since been disturbed.

Testimony was given by ex-politician Lieutenant Tuttle's district, the Eleventh, to the effect that he had ordered Benjamin to go to "spunk camp," proprietors and demand their vote and influence at elections, on the grounds that the police had not disturbed them. Other evidence was given as to assessments of the police, and also their activity in the recent primary elections in the Eleventh ward.

At the request of Lawyer Pettit the committee adjourned to meet at the call of the chair. It was subsequently stated that it would probably go to Pittsburg next week or the week after.

Got Furniture, But Not Wife. Last Tuesday, while Thomas L. Irvin was at work in the mines, his wife vacated the home, taking the furniture with her. Today Irvin procured a search warrant from Justice Lawlor and, with the assistance of Constable Phillips, found his wife and the furniture at the home of his mother-in-law, Mrs. Ernest Hood. He was allowed to take the furniture, but the wife would not return with it.

Editor Harris Dead. Robert Harris, editor and proprietor of the Tamaqua Courier, died at his home yesterday, aged 41 years. Brain fever and palsy was the cause of death, after an illness of one week. The deceased was well known throughout the county. He was a native of Devonshire, England, and with his father located at Mahanoy City in 1850. He has been connected with the Courier office since 1872. The deceased was married to Miss Sophia M. Myers, a native of Bavaria, Germany, May 1, 1874, who survives together with two daughters and two sons. Several years ago Mr. Harris went to England to settle an estate and it is said received quite a sum of money. The funeral will take place on Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

CITIZENS PARTY PRIMARIES

Final Arrangements Made by the Standing Committee.

CANDIDATES FOR NOMINATION!

There Will be no Contest in Either the First, Fourth or Fifth Wards, But Considerable Interest Will Centre on the Other Two.

Pursuant to its announcements, the Standing Committee of the Citizens party met last night and closed the entries of candidates for the primaries of the party to be held on the 24th inst. and made all necessary arrangements for holding the primaries.

Tickets will be put up in all the wards, but that of the First ward has not been completed. A special committee has been appointed to have a vacancy on the proposed ticket filed by Monday night. As the tickets stand they are as follows: First ward—Council, Edward Doherty; School Director, Charles E. Smith and Michael Graham; Judge of Election, Alexander Morris; Inspector, Frank C. Reese; Standing Committee, John Kanaga. Second ward—Council, John P. Boehm; School Director, Benjamin C. Church; Justice of the Peace, C. W. Dugler and Thomas Bellis; Constable, Tallesin Phillips; Judge of election, Warren J. Portz; Inspector, Jack Shano; Standing Committee, W. J. Watkins. Third ward—Council, T. J. James and James H. Morgan; School Director, William F. Trease; Justice of the Peace, P. W. Bernstein and William Kimmel; Constable, Thomas Tish and John W. Blaker; Judge of Election, George L. Hafner; Inspector, William Doherty; Standing Committee, Daniel Stoney. Fourth ward—Council, Daniel Bregel; School Director, Thomas J. Broughall; Constable, John Dangle; Judge of Election, George Locah; Inspector, George Hairs; Standing Committee, H. J. Yost. Fifth ward—Council, Christ. Polz; School Director, Charles L. Hoffmann; Constable, William Bender; Judge of Election, Jeffrey Williams; Inspector, Andrew Grimes; Standing Committee, John L. Hassler.

The candidates for nomination for borough officers are few this year. James Engraval, the present incumbent, and Edward Mason are the candidates for High Constable, and William Reeves for Borough Auditor. The committee decided that the primaries should be held from 8 to 8 p. m. on Friday, 24th inst., at the following respective places: First ward, Kendrick House; Second, Farmers' hotel; Third, Book, Richards house; Fourth, Peter Hiley's house; Fifth ward, Schmidt's hall.

All these arrangements are made under Crawford county system rules and will be the second enforcement of them. Last year the primaries were conducted very successfully and satisfactorily to all concerned under them, and the same result is expected this year. The Standing Committee will have tickets printed for all the candidates and will distribute them at the polling places. The primaries will be comparatively tame this year. There will be no contest for nominations in either the First, Fourth or Fifth wards. All the interest will centre in the Second and Third wards. In the former it will be a contest for supremacy between C. W. Dugler and Thomas Bellis for Justice of the Peace. There will be no other contest in this ward. The Third will be the main point of interest and will centre on Council, Justice of the Peace and Constable, James H. Morgan opposing T. J. James, the present incumbent, for the Councilman nomination; William Kimmel opposing P. W. Bernstein, the present Justice; and John W. Blaker opposing Thomas Tish, the present Constable.

The contests for nominations are far less in number than were anticipated and are accepted as a good omen by the Citizens party. It is believed that the contests on four out of a mature that will not endanger the welfare of the party's interests after the primaries and that whatever may be the result on the 24th inst., the Citizens voters will present a solid column at the polls on election day.
