REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in state convention Thursday, April 23, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representative at-large in Congress and thirty-two candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

By order of the State Committee.

M. S. QUAY, Chairman.

W. R. ANDREWS, Secretaries.

EVEN the murderous and deceitful Turks are more to be trusted than some Schuylkill county politicians.

THE latest innovation in this region is the placing of a telephone in the mines, whereby entombed miners may communicate with their rescuers.

THE war of words between the respective editors of the Journal and Chronicle has come to extremes. The "devils" in the two offices yesterday indulged in a fisty encounter. The Law and Order Society should be appealed to.

ALL the bosses of Tammany Hall are arranging to give Boss Croker the boss dinner of the season to signalize his retirement from the bossship and introduce the new boss, John F. Sheehan. All the big braves of Tammany will be there to the number of 100.

THE local Democratic braves assemble tonight in the respective wards for the purpose of selecting candidates for borough offices. It is well that they should go through the formality, to keep their hands in, otherwise the people would not know there was such a party.

THE decision of the court in the cases of application for licenses in West Mahanoy township, holding leases from the Girard Estate, is awaited with much interest in this locality. Many people contend, and not without reason, that a refusal to grant them will open the way to the establishment of a number of speakeasies in that township.

MR. MURAT HALATEAD will have an article in McClure's Magazine for February, giving the secret history of the nomination and administration of President Garfield and embodying important conversations with Garfield never before published, one of them held only a few hours before his assassination. A series of portraits of Garfield will accompany the article.

IF the Cuban insurgents would only stand up and fight a pitched battle against the modern rifles and cannon of the Spanish, troops they would confer a great favor on the Madrid authorities. But they prefer to dash on weak points, capture isolated posts, destroy the sources of taxation, cut lines of communication and gradually force the Spaniards back upon their stronghold. Against this plan of operations the grand strategy of Campos thus far has proved a complete failure.

THE CHANGE IN CUBA.

The recall of Campos indicates the weakness of the Spanish position in Cuba, and is good cause for the jubilant feeling of the Cuban patriots and their American adherents. Campos is the best general in Spain to-day, and has saved the throne on two occasions. He was too humane a man for the extremists who desire every Cuban who falls into their hands executed summarily, and the prospects are that such a commander will be his successor, and that a reign of terror will be inaugurated.

This, however, is something the United States government should not tolerate, and the present state of feeling is such that the commencement of this policy will result in the prompt recognition of the insurgents as belligerents, which would be quickly followed by an increase in their forces and fighting equipment.

The sentiment of leading Cubans is for annexation to the United States, and while the policy of this country has not tended to territorial aggrandizement, it now has strong inducements to enter upon such a policy in self defense, as England has surrounded us with fortifications which can be built with but the one intention of being in position to strike us in case of war, and the Venezuelan question has shown how easily war can be precipitated. It is to be hoped that the change in Spanish commandants will result in prompt recognition of the Cubans, and thus illustrate still further than the Monroe doctrine does that European powers are not wanted on this side of the ocean, and that Uncle Sam is ready to lend a helping hand to all American states who desire to rid themselves of a foreign yoke.

For a pain in the chest a piece of flannel dampened with Chamberlain's Pain Balm and bound on over the seat of the pain, and another on the back between the shoulders, will afford prompt relief. This is especially valuable in cases where the pain is caused by a cold and there is a tendency toward pneumonia. For sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

CUPID'S BATTLE.

Lanigan's Fair Maidens Fight Over a Young Man.
There is a young man at Lanigan's, says the Mahanoy City Record, that is fortunate in having the admiration of more than one lady. He was won over by one, however, but another, not to be outdone, secured his escort for two evenings in succession and triumphantly paraded him before the town and her rival's home.

This was cutting, to be sure, and both won friends on their side. Tongues had been wagging ever since anger grew in intensity and an outbreak was frequently looked for. It didn't come until yesterday morning, when three of each faction returning from church by Columbia park fell in together, among them two school marms.

A silence was preserved for a time and then old occurrences were cast up until sharp words were said and several grew red in the face. "You're a husky," said a voice in the crowd and immediately a hand was smacked with a parsonal. The parsonal was broken, but there were others and all were soon full of business, whacking, poking, parrying and when a rib was touched some one said, "Oh, dear," and with clinched teeth endeavored to reach the other's hair. Mouths were slapped and real hard, spectacles were knocked off and their owners knocked down. A forehead was cut and there were unlimited scratches. Then a truce followed and with hair at sharp angles, faces in colors, they retreated sassing such other as far as their voices could be heard.

POLITICAL POINTS.

The Democrats make their nominations tonight. Ex-Councilman Daniel Conkley is a candidate for Council in the First ward, subject to Democratic rules, and the knowing ones say he will win with little trouble. He has been confined to the house by illness, but his friends are taking care of his canvass. He is opposed by Michael Byrne.

In only two wards will there be a contest in the Citizens ranks—the Second and Third wards.

Our Democratic friends are working up one or two schemes to entrap the Citizens voters, but they are likely to fail. Forewarned is forearmed.

Councilman Thomas J. James says he is in the fight for re-election to win, and his friends are rallying to his support.

Thomas Ryan will likely receive the Democratic nomination for Council in the Fifth ward, although he is strongly opposed by Murphy.

The Citizens primaries, under the Crawford county system, will be held in the respective wards on Friday evening, between the hours of 6:00 and 8:00 o'clock.

Michael Sullivan and Tim O'Brien have no opposition for the School Directorship in the First ward.

James Morgan is making a thorough canvass of the ward for Council.

James Matthews, a staunch Democrat, has made an effective canvass for the High Constableness nomination, and from present indications he will secure a majority of the wards, thus securing his nomination. This is the first time he has asked his party for an office, and he is worthy of the recognition.

The primaries of both parties are not creating as much enthusiasm as in the past, but the indications point very strongly to a lively fight at the election.

The Republican primaries in Ashland and Mahanoy City were held under the Crawford county system, and proved very satisfactory.

To Prohibit Bucket Shops.
RICHMOND, Va., Jan. 21.—In the senate Mr. Marshall, of Alexandria, introduced a bill to prohibit bucket shops and speculations in margins. The provisions of the bill are sweeping, and if enacted would make it impossible to conduct a bucket shop or deal in margins in this state. This bill is introduced as an offset to the efforts to suppress pool selling on race tracks.

Parker, of Massachusetts, a week ago, and remanded both the woman and her husband, who is held as an accessory, to jail without bail. The judge said the case looked to him like premeditated murder. Mrs. Angelier's plea is that she killed Parker in defense of her honor.

AN ARGUMENT.

THEY ALL CAME TO BLOW—THE TROUBLE SOON DISCOVERED AND EVERYTHING NOW ALL RIGHT.

It was a quarrel amongst the organs of a man's body. The Liver and the Lungs, the Stomach and the heart all "pitched into" the Kidneys. "It's our fault," said the Liver. "You have certain work to do and you don't do it. It is your place to filter all the poisons and impurities out of the body, and you are not doing it." "As a consequence," said the Stomach, "we are all being clogged, poisoned and irritated. I am irritable and only half digest the food they are forcing into me. Here's the Liver all clogged and torpid. The Lungs are all choked up, we don't get half enough oxygen, the head is aching, the Nerves tingling, the Back is aching, and the poor Heart is laboring like a sled-dog-hammer. "Even the Joints and Muscles cry out with Rheumatic pains." "But we can't help it," said the Kidneys. "We can't do impossibilities. We are sick and weak ourselves and cannot do our work. Frigate and disease you! The moment we stop work you feel it. Your health always did and always will depend on our activity." And just then an ordinary, every-day common sense doctor who knew his business was called in and proscribed Dr. Hobbs' Sarsaparilla Kidney Pills. The Kidneys promptly responded and set cheerfully to work with renewed strength and vigor: the Uric Acid, the waste products of decay and of fever, the ashes of digestion and all the poisons and impurities in the blood were cast out. "Well, that's something like it," said the Lungs. "I'll pitch in and do my work now." "What a relief," said the Liver and the Heart, and the Joints and Muscles joined the chorus.

The quarrel was over. It was a happy family, working harmoniously once more. This sounds like a fairy story, but it isn't. It's old, hard, solid facts and common sense at any time for 50 cents. Fifty cents per box, from all druggists, or enclose 50 cts. in stamp or silver direct to the MEDICINE CO., Chicago, San Francisco. The Conquered Assassinate.
LONDON, Jan. 21.—The Post has a dispatch from Comassie which says that King Premph and all his relatives have been arrested pending the payment of an indemnity. It has developed that King Premph was stupefied with drugged food during the palaver. Evidently he is only a puppet in the hands of his advisers. The troops have destroyed the sacrificial grove, which was found to be full of bones and skulls of human beings.

Assaulted by Strikers.
EASTON, Pa., Jan. 21.—There was a break in the maulers' strike at the Ingersoll-Sergeant Drill works yesterday, when four more of the strikers returned to work. As the men entered the plant they were assaulted by a mob of strikers, and a small sized riot ensued, during which some of the retreating strikers were roughly handled, superintendant Elder called upon the sheriff, who swore in several deputies to protect the men. Seven of the rioters have been arrested.

THE BRITISH FLYING SQUADRON

A Sensational Statement Regarding the Fleet Proves Sensless.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The statement emitted from London by the United Press that the British flying squadron is supplied with charts of North American waters, the West Indies and the Mediterranean is ridiculed by naval authorities here so far as it is attempted to attach any particular significance to the fact. Most, if not all, naval vessels intended for at large, for it never can be foreseen when they leave their home port for a foreign station when it may be necessary to send them at notice so short as to preclude the mailing of charts to them.

In this fashion one of the British fleet sent to our great rendezvous about two years ago was suddenly dispatched from Hampton Roads straightaway to South America to meet an emergency, a course that could not have been pursued unless the ship had been supplied in advance with a full set of charts. Moreover, such a complete set is absolutely necessary in the case of a flying squadron sailing under secret orders, for otherwise the secrecy desired could not be maintained if a certain line of charts were selected.

Flying Squadron Review Postponed.
LONDON, Jan. 21.—The review of the flying squadron by the queen, it is announced, has been postponed until tomorrow. Nothing definite as to the time of starting or the destination of the squadron is known yet. The morning papers state that Admiral Drake takes maps of each Atlantic station, but that this is always done when the fleet starts on any cruise, and implies nothing unusual.

Killed by a Falling Tree.
GREENSBURG, Pa., Jan. 21.—Daniel Sheets, a prominent farmer living near Jones' Mills, was instantly killed, his two little children, aged 5 and 7 years, and Harry Baker, a neighbor, were fatally hurt; John Rhodes seriously injured and Mrs. Sheets badly bruised in an accident on Chestnut Ridge. The party were returning home from church in a sled, and while ascending Laurel Hill a large tree fell across the sled in which they were sitting. A limb of the tree passed entirely through Mr. Sheets. The children were crushed in a terrible manner, and Baker had his back broken.

The Alabama Contest.
MONTGOMERY, Jan. 21.—The Democratic state executive committee meets here this afternoon. It is the first opening gun of the campaign for governor in which Captain Johnson, free silverite, and Congressman Clarke, gold monometalist, will contest. Johnson's men are claiming a victory by having secured, they allege, pledges for a majority of members to vote for John B. Knox, of Calhoun, a Johnson man, for chairman to succeed H. C. Tompkins, who resigns to become a candidate to succeed United States Senator Pugh.

Charged with Infanticide.
ST. LOUIS, Jan. 21.—Peter Simon and Kate Sprink were arrested here yesterday on information from the chief of police of Newark, N. J., who states that there is a charge of assault to kill his wife against Simon. Simon's mother-in-law also charges him with poisoning his children, Katie and Freddie, for the insurance on their lives. They died about a month ago, and soon after Simon came here with Miss Sprink, with whom he was living when arrested. The prisoner denies that he killed his children.

Contradicted by the Sublime Porte.
WASHINGTON, Jan. 21.—The Turkish legation has received from the sublime porte the following telegram: "Please contradict most emphatically the absurd assertions concerning a supposed destruction of 500 Christian villages and towns out of 550, in the province of San, and a forced conversion to Islamism of Armenians, as alleged in a letter written by the American missionary, Miss Grace Kimball, of San, to the president of a relief committee of New York."

Alleged Filibuster on Trial.
CHARLESTON, S. C., Jan. 21.—In the United States district court yesterday, before Judge Brewley, Captain Laurence Hughes of the steamship Laurada, was on trial for alleged violation of the neutrality laws. Seaman Axel Hedland, the first of at least a dozen government witnesses, was on the stand for two hours. He testified to the taking aboard of men, arms and ammunition about three and a half miles off New York, of their drilling on shipboard during the trip, and finally of their landing on the coast of Cuba. Hedland was followed by other witnesses who testified to the same effect.

The Deep Waterways Commission.
DETROIT, Jan. 21.—The deep waterways joint commission completed its work, as far as can be done at the present preliminary session, yesterday. A large amount of data will have to be prepared in Canada under the United States and exchanged and compared before any intelligent report can be made. An arrangement has been made for the interchange of this information. As soon as it has been exchanged and compiled another meeting of the commission will be held.

Brazil is Also After England.
LA PREUSSA from Rio Janeiro says that Senhor Carvelho, minister of foreign affairs, is preparing a note demanding the immediate restitution of the Isle of Trinidad, which has been occupied by Great Britain. It is stated that a refusal on the part of Great Britain to restore Trinidad to Brazil will lead to a rupture of diplomatic relations between Great Britain and Brazil.
