I am about to make a bona fide reduction in my stock in order to make room for another remodelling of my store and will sell at greatly reduced prices what is left of my excellent assortment of overcoats and heavy suits for men, boys and children. This is The house passed the tracent deficiency bill. The bill carries $4,415,922, $3,242,542 of which was for the expense of United stock, but just what I have been the expenses of federal courts came in for xelling for at least double the money. To make room for necessary alterations in my store I must sacrifice the goods. Call and inspect them.

The best sotertainment the people of Maryville have ever had the pleasure of attending was the realings given by Prof. Bycon King, the noted elecutionist, last Wednesday evening. We have heard a number of electrionists, but none were better than Professor King. The selection in which he portmyed the death scene between the dying Westerner, "Rough" and his "Pard," was the most pathetic of his pieces, and not a sound beside the speaker's voice was heard, and scarrely a hand was moved so intense was the feeling. the Upper Body.

Washington, Jan. 22.—The senate put aside finance and foreign affairs yesterday and gave the day to work on comparatively minor bills on the calendar. About seventy bills were passed, clearing the cal-endar of much accumulation and leaving only the important measures pending. Hee Among the pension bills passed were those this for the sister of President Grant, Helen sen Dent, the widow of Colonel Dout, and for the widows of Rear Admiral English, Major General Carroll, Lieutenant Schwat-ka, the arctic explorer, and Brevet Brigadier General Doubleday. The bridge leg-islation included bills for bridges over the Mississippi at St. Louis, over the Missouri in South Dakota, and over the Columbia river in Oregon. Among other bills passed were measures for an equestrian statue to General John Starke, at Manchester, N. H.; reconvening the inter national marine conference of 1889, and protecting seamen's wages from levies. ste. The Cuban question received brist and inconclusive attention.
