STRENGTH FROM FOOD

But the Food Must be Digested

There is no way to get strong without food. There is no way to get strong without food.

Food is the strength maker.

Just enough food, properly digested, makes the strong and healthy man or woman. Too much, too little, or even the right quantity, not digested, will make any hody weak.

The beginning of all sickness is weakness. The beginning of all sickness is weakness. The beginning of all weakness is indigestion. So to keep strong look after your diaustion. That is the most important point of all.

Wilson's Many Crimes.

HOLLIDAYSHURG, Pa., Jan. 24. — The trial of Frank Wilson, for the murder of Henry Bonnecka, an aged German miser, abounds in startling disclosures. R. C. Simpson, Daniel Sheridan and Theodore Jones, detectives employed by the state secret service bureau in Wilkesbarre, testified that Wilson was one of the leaders of a gang of crooks who have terrorized central Pennsylvania for years. Wilson is implicated in three attempted murders and burglaries. At Canton, O., he samulanged an old man named. Foby Jackson and secured $2.700. Bonnecka's skull was exhibited in evidence yesterday. The judge ruled that the wax works representation of the murder scene in the Eden Musee, New York, which terrified Wilson into confessing his guilt, must be brought Republican Silver Senators' Platform. Washington, Jan. 24.—The Republican silver senators yesterday signed a declaration which is intended to be used in the coming campaign as the demand which the silver men will make for a plank in the national convention. In the preamble it is recited that the present financial sys-tem endangers the industrial prosperity of the United States which is threatened by China and Japan as a result of the decrease in the value of silver and the difference of exchange between silver and gold using countries. It is therefore resolved that the signers favor the free and unlimited coin-age of silver at a ratio of 16 to 1 for the purpose of obliterating this difference of exchange, which is declared to operate as a bounty on the export of products from silver using countries to gold using countries.
