COFFEE AND TEA

Man, supplied with reasoning and discerning powers, may improve his condition by the exercise of these faculties. This can be applied with very good effect in the purchase of Coffees and Teas. A good cup of Coffee depends not only on the making—but the brand of Coffee, the grade, the roasting and preparation are very important factors. We feel confident that we can meet all those requirements. A delicious cup of Coffee is a certainty if you use

Our Fancy Java, or our Fancy Blended Coffee.

In regard to Tea, we occupy a front rank, all our Teas being very carefully selected by competent judges, and a trial order will convince you that we can please the most fastidious customers. We offer nothing but good grades that are noted for quality, color and flavor, and they are sold at popular prices

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS!

Spirited Discussion on Our Foreign Relations Anticipated.

THE NEW SILVER SUBSTITUTE!

For the Bond Bill and the Monroe Doctrine Declaration Will Continue to be the Chief Subjects for Consideration in the Senate.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The week in the house from a spirited discussion of our foreign relations. It opened today with the presentation of the resolutions of the foreign affairs committee on Armenia, and will be continued in connection with the consideration of the diplomatic and consular appropriation bill, which will be taken up immediately afterward. This bill will open the gates to a general debate on foreign affairs and complications in all parts of the world.

The China-Japanese war, American missions in China, the Venezuelan dispute, the Corinto incident, the outrages in Armenia, with all their attendant European complications, the invasion of the Transvaal and the arrest of Americans at Johannesburg by the Boer government, the Alaskan boundary dispute, the award of the Behring sea commission, the Cuban war for independence, the Waller incident and the Bayard speeches may become fruitful topics of debate during the consideration of this bill. The general impression is that the whole week will be consumed in disposing of it, but if any time remains it will probably be devoted to the District of Columbia appropriation bill, which the appropriations committee expects to have ready on Wednesday or Thursday.

The silver substitute for the bond bill and Monroe doctrine declaration will continue to be the chief subjects for consideration in the senate. Senator Jones, of Arkansas, in charge of the silver bill, has given notice that he will attempt to secure a vote on the bill on Thursday and that he will ask the senate to remain in session Thursday night until this is accomplished. It is considered probable by the friends of the bill that he may not succeed at that time in getting a vote, and that this may not come until Friday or Saturday. There are a number of senators who desire to speak on the bill who have not had an opportunity, and they will be afforded that privilege before the vote is decided upon. These include Senators Hill, Cockrell, Bacon, Nelson, Hansbrough, Mitchell, of Oregon, and others.

The silver bill is expected to pass, but even its friends do not place the majority at exceeding five votes, while others insist that with affirmative votes from both the Utah senators the majority will not exceed three. The bill is so radical that the more conservative silver men probably will cast their votes against it. Mr. Thurston is the only senator who has given notice of a speech on the Davis-Monroe doctrine resolution, but there are other senators prepared to speak on this when opportunity shall offer. Senator Davis, the author of the resolution, will be absent from the city during the week, and consequently the resolution will not be pressed to a vote.

The friends of the revenue tariff bill will make an effort to get that measure into the senate in some shape during the week. A meeting of the finance committee will be held tomorrow. If Senator Jones, of Nevada, is present at that meeting his vote will decide whether the bill shall be reported favorably or adversely. If he is not present it is probable that the committee will inform the senate of its failure to reach an agreement and make a report without recommendation.

The first business of the session today is the induction of the Utah senators, Messrs. Cannon and Brown, into office. They will be conducted to the vice president by sitting members, and after taking the oath of office will draw lots for the classes to which they shall be assigned. The senate is divided into three classes fixed by the time of the expiration of their terms of office. One of the '97 class and the other to the '99 class. The one who draws into the first class will serve until the 4th of March, 1897, and the one who secures admission to the other class will serve until the same date in 1899. This proceeding will be conducted upon the basis of resolutions which will be offered by Senator Mitchell, of Oregon, to whom the duty falls as chairman of the committee on privileges and elections.

If Mr. DuPont, of Delaware, is awarded the seat from that state there will be ninety members of the senate, and all three classes will contain the same number of senators—thirty each.

CORBETT KNOCKED DOWN.

A Philadelphia Fireman Gives the Actor-Pugilist a Pretty Lively Tussle.

PHILADELPHIA, Jan. 27.—Champion James J. Corbett, while playing at the National theater Saturday night, became involved in a fight with a member of the Philadelphia Fire department named William H. Murphy, during which blows were struck on both sides and the actor-pugilist was unceremoniously tumbled down a flight of stairs.

Murphy was detailed at the National and while passing Corbett's room smelled cigarette smoke. He rapped at the door and as Corbett opened it Murphy observed him put the cigarette behind him. Murphy told him it was against the rules to smoke, and Corbett denied that he was. Murphy insisted he was.

Corbett then forced him from the room and locked the door. Murphy rapped for admittance. The door was opened suddenly and he received a stunning blow in the face which knocked him down on his feet. He arose quickly, however, and landed one on Corbett's mouth, drawing blood. The men then grappled, and reaching a doorway Murphy caught Corbett and sent him sliding to the lower floor. Here they again grappled, when some of the stage hands and the company separated them. The fireman is about 25 years of age and is of medium build.

Early yesterday morning the saloon of George Kalitky, on South Main street, was entered by unknown parties and robbed of a quantity of cigars and liquors. Entrance to the place was gained by forcing open the front door.

POLICEMAN LEE'S SCUFFLE

An Exciting Saturday Night Scene on Main Street.

ROUGHS FIGHT FOR A RESCUE!

The Officer Fought Four Men Successfully Single-Handed Without Resorting to Weapons and After Being Struck Arresed the Ringleader.

Policeman Thomas Lee had a hard struggle with a gang of roughs at the corner of Main and Oak streets, between eleven and twelve o'clock, Saturday night and but for the brave and determined stand he made might have suffered seriously. He fought against great odds and several citizens who witnessed the affair have commended him highly upon his conduct. Although obliged to fight four men at one time in order to hold on to his prisoner and threats of all kinds were made against him, and in spite of the fact that he was struck repeatedly, Lee refrained from the use of his revolver, or other weapons and was victorious in the fight. He landed two in the lockup with subsequent assistance and others will be arrested.

Lee was standing at the corner of Main and Oak streets talking with a friend when his attention was attracted by a fight on an opposite corner. Lee hurried to the scene and grabbed a young man named Toomey, who was the nearest to the policeman's side. The officer was at once surrounded by a crowd and several young men who were more or less intoxicated demanded that the prisoner be released. Lee ordered the fellows off and tightened his grip upon the prisoner. "Show the English—what we think of him," one of the crowd shouted and Lee and his prisoner were hemmed in. Toomey appealed to the crowd to keep away. He said he was willing to accompany the officer and did not wish to be handled roughly. One of the crowd, a young fellow named Dennis Grummel, sprang at Lee and struck him. The latter's helmet fell into the gutter. Lee released Toomey and grabbed Grummel and another desperate struggle ensued. Several citizens were attracted to the scene, but none of them seemed to have sufficient courage to jump into the crowd and help the officer. One of the late arrivals finally did so, however, and Grummel was eventually taken to the lockup and placed in a cell. Yesterday Andrew Connelly was arrested on a warrant sworn out by Lee. Both are under bail to appear before Justice Williams for a hearing to-night, by which time it is expected others will be arrested.

Yesterday Peter Connelly, a brother of one of the prisoners, called at the lockup and behaved in such a disorderly manner that Policeman Hand shoved him into a cell. Late last night Policemen Toah and Lee were in the lockup distributing food to some of the prisoners and Peter Connelly was allowed to step from his cell. He wished to make an explanation, but when he got out he declared he would die before the police could get him into the cell again. There was another scuffle and Connelly was again forced into the cell again. This morning he paid his fine and costs and was discharged, but will be arrested again unless he makes good the damage he did to his cell during the night. He wrecked the trap bars, pipes, the benches and everything else he could turn or twist and will have a nice bill to pay for repairs.

Fight on a Car.

Theodore Carl, of town, and a man named Ryan, of Bowman's, quarreled on the front platform of a Lakeside Railway car last evening and so interfered with Motorman Walters that he was obliged to remonstrate. Finally Walters stopped the car and put Ryan off and the latter then attempted to strike Walters with the motor lever, but was prevented from doing so by Conductor James, who received a cut on the hand. A warrant has been issued for Ryan.

Narrow Escape.

John Hazledine and wife, residents of the Catawissa Valley, narrowly escaped death on the P. & R. railroad near the white church in the valley, Saturday evening. A west bound freight train struck the gig in which the couple were riding and demolished it. Mr. and Mrs. Hazledine were thrown violently to the ground, but escaped serious injury and were not touched by the train. The horse also escaped.
