Surprise to a Pastor.

Rev. D. I. Evans yesterday finished his fifth year as pastor of the Weish Baptist hurch, on West Oak street, and last evening the congregation surprised the paster by presenting him with a purse of greenbacks. It need scarcely be said that such tangible gifts are always acceptable to a pastor. The spirit that prompts such gifts is a great en-couragement to the pastor in his work, and particularly so in this case, where the church has sustained severe losses numerically, so many of its older members having been summoned by death during the last four or five years, and many more having removed to other cities. The presentation was made at the close of a very effective and full meeting by Mr. J. P. Williams, the senior deacon of the church, whose chief pleasure seems at all times to be to add to the pleasure of others. In the course of a warm and appropriate address Mr. Williams spoke of the unity of purpose and general good will of the whole to kindness shown him on previous occasions still fresh in his memory, and closing by asking all to join in prayer to God that He would lead many of the young people to vacant places of those departed to His honor. Mrs. Evans was the recipient of a handsome toilet set from the members of her Sunday chool class. The pastor and his wife tender their sincerest thanks to the congregation nd others who contributed to the gifts.

The Charity Entertalnment.

Prof. Byron W. King delighted a select dience with an exhibition of his wonderful locutionary powers at the opera house last night. He brought out more of the beauty of akespeare in two selections from Julius Cresar than is often done by the rendition of whole play. His humorous selections and exhibition of ventriloquy were especially Prof. King will appear at Ferguson's theatre No doubt the Academy will be crowded every No doubt the Academy will be crowded every

The Ideals' Opening.

Last night was the opening engagement of "The Ideals," under the management of John A. Himmelein, and the house was packed. This is a cheap attraction as far as admission is concerned, but judging from the manner in which they produced "The Golden Giant Mine" last night it does not apply any further. The company is very evenly balanced and the performance does credit to a high-priced company. There are a number of excellent specialties introduced, foremost being the singing and dancing of Baby Johnson, the little wonder. She became at once a favorite, as did also Beatrice Earle, the win some comedienne. The music of Prof. Ned. J. Howson's 20th century concert band and erformance, as the
