A PECULIAR POSTMISTRESS. Letters Posted Twenty Years Ago Found in Her Office.

CINCINNATI, Jan. '30,-United States Postoffice Inspector W. T. Fletcher has just completed a singular inspection of the postoffice at Georgetown, Ind., and put it in new hands. This is a village of 600 in-habitants. The postofilee for more than a quarter of a century has been administered by the Motweiler family, father and daughter. The father died fifteen years ago, and the daughter. Miss Louise Motweiler, now 60 years old, has been in charge over since. Inspector Fietcher found the floor of the office covered five feet deep with mail, and the old perturbatives had lanes through this mass of matter. Forty carloads of nows-papers, some dating back to 1556, were dumped out where the villagers could pick out their own mail. Over 500 undeliv-ered letters with unbroken scale, some of them postmucked twenty years ago, were delivered. Miss Motweller fixed in the same house of two rooms, and had for her

But Fowle Was Systematically Robbing His Employers.

STOLE FIFTY THOUSAND DOLLARS.

The Embezzier Kept a Careful Monthly Statement of the Amount of His Stealings, Which Was Found on His Person When Arrested-Confesses His Guilt,

BOSTON, Jan. 30 .- Harry M. Fowle, hitherto a valued and trosted elerk for the Shepard & Morse Lumber company, was arrested yesterday, and it is expected th charges of forgery and embezzlement proforred against him will aggregate $50,000. Powle is prenounced by the expert officers at police headquarters as one of the most elever manipulators of figures brought to their attention for a long time. For years he has lived in luxury, but it appears that his first downward steps were taken in October, 1893. On Fowle's person was found $50 in cash, a loaded revolver and two envelopes on one of which he had written: "Private memoranihim, Harry M. Fowle. To be burned unepened in case of death." This lad Chief Watts to believe that Fowle would have shot himself when arrested had he had the opportunity or inclination In the envelopes were found a detailed list of checks and cash which he had taken from his unsuspicious employers. total mnounit was $47.613.

all over the country, and there are so many of them that no one will sustain a heavy loss. As ledger clerk for the firm he handled checks in large numbers, and in the ab-sence of the cashior the cash receipts, which as a rule were paid in checks on banks. He was shrewd enough to credit customers on the ledger, although checks did not appear on the cash books. Fowle is also charged with stamping checks with the company's stamp and forging H. B. Shepard's signature.

Fowle opened an account at the Old Colony Trust company, depositing his checks there, some checks meeting inforse-ments being cashed through other banks. An indorsed check presented at a bank where the firm had no account led to in-quiries. He had no bad habits, but lived better than his $1,000 salary would allow Fowle was very cool at first, but finally confessed.
