"Chiropodist Cox" Caught. The Shamokin newspapers are devoting considerable space to the arrest of "Dr. Cox, the chiropodist," at that town by Detective Amour, of this town, "Dr. Cox" Amour, of this town. Dr. Cox is no other than Albert Hupkins, son of F. H. Hopkins, Sr., formerly a resident of this place, and now located at Mahanoy City, "Dr. Cox" has been wayward. His relatives are very respectable people and have fre-quently tried to persuade the erring man to reform, but to no avail. During the last several weeks he has figured as a chiropodist and gathered in shekels as only quacks can. Amour arrested him on a charge of leaving an unpaid board bill in the hands of Landlord Keim, of the American House, Girardville. Hopkins accompanied Amour to Mt.
