The License Court.

The new applicants for liquor license in this town were disposed of by the court yesterday; that is, they were all heard, but none of them have yet been granted. When the last one had been heard yesterday The Ministerial Association of Shenandeah, re-While on the stand he stated that there were 1119 licensed places in Shenandcah, 78 of and clerks, which had Polish, Hungarian and Lithuanian The Fern and he objected to the granting of any more because he could not live in Shenandoah and see the town drowned in rum without making some effort to check it.

The granting of a Dicease to Daniel Neis-wenter, for an old stand in Old Union township, at the foot of the mountain on the read leading to Ringtown, was objected to by Mr. Houghawont. He claimed to represent a number of residents of Shenandonh, and was reinciant in giving the names. The court finally compelled bins to do so, and he said be represented William Miller and John Enterline, of town. Both the gentlemen to-day stated that such was not the case and timt
