REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention Thursday, April 23, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representative at-large in Congress and thirty-two candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates at large to the Republican National convention, and for the ratification of such other business as may be presented.
By order of the State Committee.

M. S. QUAY, Chairman.
J. R. ANDREWS, Secretary.

A croaker in Clapton, Ky., recently found a $70 diamond in a barrel of sugar. It is not to be expected, however, that diamonds will be used by the trade in general as a substitute for sand.

The "puns" are not wanted even in Mexico. As they appear to be spoiling for a fight, why not pack the whole gang off to Cuba where their fighting would be of some use to mankind.

The question of a better location for the Naval Academy is being discussed. Several officers who have served as superintendents of the Academy think it should be moved farther north, but the majority of naval officers disapprove on sentimental grounds and would dislike to see it go elsewhere. Congressman Barrett has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives providing for its removal to Newport, but its fate in the Naval Committee is doubtful.

That a fool and his money are soon parted has never been better illustrated than in the case of Edwin Fields, who died a pauper in Chicago, and whose body was turned over to a medical society for dissection. He was the owner of the Gilded Age in Tomlons, Arizona, and was worth millions at one time, but his head was not hard enough to stand property and his career of extravagance ended only with his wealth, and he was soon reduced to the most abject poverty and died in the poor house. Truly, gold was a curse to him.

The acting Governor-General of Cuba thinks the insurgents are not entitled to the rights of belligerents because they will not stand up for him to whip them, preferring to run away rather than risk a pitched battle. He evidently never heard of the old English adage, being a Spaniard, that "the who fights and runs away will live to fight another day," when he is in better trim for it, or his antagonist is not so well prepared. It is real mean of Gomez to lead General Marti on a wild-goose chase, and is very undignified warfare for a haughty Spanish Don to have to engage in.

MINISTER WILSON at Honolulu is making himself conspicuous again. This time he refused to join in the ceremonies arranged in celebration of the third anniversary of the establishment of the Provisional Government and refused a salute from the warship in the port of Honolulu in honor of the event. No doubt the facts in the case will be brought out in Congress, as it is quite probable a discourteous act of this kind will not be permitted to pass unnoticed. Cuba and Hawaii both are ready to fall into Uncle Sam's lap, but Grover is still shy—even rude—to both.

A New York paper tells the following: "A street boy in a down-town office has made $6,000 on an expenditure of two cents. The lad took advantage of the weakness in Secretary Carlisle's bond issue notice, and now he is wealthy according to the small boy's standard. When he read the bond notice he saw his opportunity, and put in a bid for $150,000 of the bonds at a price which assured an award to him. He sold his right to receive the bonds for $6,000. The only expense he incurred was two cents for a postage stamp to send his bid to Washington." That boy will be a millionaire before he dies.

The political string has been pulled again in Germany, and the organs are tuned up to a different song. They are not so bellicose toward England as they were, and the Cabinet officers have shown a decidedly conciliatory spirit in their utterances in the Reichstag on the naval bill. It is surmised that Kaiser Wilhelm's conferees in the Triple Alliance are responsible for the change in tactics, which is believed to be only superficial. However that may be, England's readiness for war has undoubtedly had great effect upon Germany, and while the Kaiser may dislike to back down the pressure brought by his more prudent allies will compel him to be more circumspect in his public utterances.

It May Do as Much For You.

Mr. Fred Miller, of Irving, Ill., writes that he had a severe kidney trouble for many years, with severe pains in his back and also that his bladder was affected. He tried many so-called kidney cures but without any good result. About a year ago he began use of Electric Bitters and found relief at once. Electric Bitters is especially adapted to cure all kidney and liver troubles and often gives almost instant relief. One trial will prove our statement. Price only 50c. per large bottle. At A. W. Waseley's drug store.

Closing Quotations of the New York and Philadelphia Exchanges.

NEW YORK, Feb. 10.—The speculation today was characterized by pronounced strength. The volume of business exceeded any total since the stormy days following the Venezuelan message. The dealings were very widely distributed and took in a number of usually neglected shares. Closing lists:
