REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State conventum Thursday, April 23, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opern house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representative at-large in Congress and thirtytwo candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates at large to the publican National convention, and for the ransaction of such other business as may be

By order of the State Committee M. S. QUAY. Attest: - JERRE B. REX.

W. R. ANDREWS, Secretaries,

JOHN P. BORRM Will succeed himself as Councilman from the Second ward. Stick a pin here.

Eves the Democratic candidates in the First ward are resorting to trading tactics. The Gibraliar of Democracy must be in a sad positicament.

This is a lad year for independent candidates in Shenandsala. The American voter is imbacd with the idea of submission to the will of the majority.

THE Citizens candidate for High Constable, Edward Mason, is deserving of the great pain. After using Chamberlain's Pain support of voters of every political comslexion. He is winning friends every day.

AND so Nansen has discovered the North Pole. The next question in order is, did he wiscover the traditional Irishman sitting at the base of the pole smoking his dudeen while enjoying his moon-day rest.

THOMAS BROUGHALL for School Director, and Daniel Riesel for Councilman make a strong feam in the Fourth ward. They are making a winning tight; are capable and inrelligent, and should be elected, and we believe they will be.

This opposition to the regular Democratic ticket in West Mahanoy township is assuming such shape that there is likelihood of the larter's defeatant the polls, at least a portion of it. The Citizens nominces are Affects your head, but it is not therefore petting up a strong fight.

or a Democratic friends in the Fifth ward apparently see the hand-writing on the wall. They are working in and out of season; and the Citizens must resort to the same factics to gain a victory. The nominces of the latter party can be elected, and are worthy the support of the texpayers of the ward.

THE PRESIDENTIAL RACE.

The Presidential mee, so far as the Repulslicans are concerned, is becoming more complicated as the date of the convention draws near. Four years ago the question was Harrison and anti-Harrison, and it was less difficult to predict the nomince. This year things are different. With so many states presenting the name of favorite sons, the relative strength of each being an unknown lactor, the political prophet is apt to go astray. he his prognostications. As a result there are few who will venture to name the man in the present badly tangled situation.

There is no dominating name in the Republican auto- onvention canvass. Candidates there are in plenty, and all men have their own views of the relative strength of these. but there is no positive leader, no man to whose name all the factions of the party can point with the belief that he will go into the convention with the greatest strength or possibly with a half certainty of being nomimated. So many sections of the country present so many names of such even strength. that no political prophet can do more than guess what the result will be.

The boom of Thomas B. Reed was formally launched by the Portland Lincoln Club on Wednesday, and the entire state of Maine was represented. There was much enthusiasm, showing conclusively that the mantle of the dead Maine statesman has surely fallen upon the shoulders of the intropid Speaker of the House of Representatives. tuitside of his position as Speaker Mr. Reed's strength lies in his reputation for intelligence and political signalty.

The state of Ohio presents the name of William McKinley, the champion to protection of American industries. Mr. McKinley, like Mr. Reed, occupies a positive, aggressive position, which may be said to be both a help and a hurt to him. Senator Allison, of Inwa, is a prominent candidate, while Governor Morton will undoubtedly receive the vote of New York, although his chances for the nomination are considered remote There are other names mentioned, among them that of Senator M. S. Quay, of this state, but it is not at all likely that he is making any great effort to secure the nomina-

Senator Quay has on one or two occusions recently expressed himself as not wanting the nomination-going so far as to say that if tendered him he would refuse it. His reasons were both logical and true. Neverallow his name to go before the convention as Pennsylvania's choice, Governor Hastings and other prominent Republicans in the Keystone state have youchsafed their support. and there is no question but he could command the entire vote of the state in the con-

Senator Quay is a shrewd political general, and in allowing his name to be used-if such is the case—he has check-mated his political enemies in Philadelphia and Pittsburg. It will answer the same purpose as the unit rule, so far as the delegation from this state

Onay Is an Eurnest Candidate.

PHILADELPHIA, Feb. 14.—Senator Quay is evidently in earnest in his candidacy for the presidential nomination. That has at last forced itself upon the minds of the local Republicans. State Senator An-drews, who returned to Philadelphia from Washington Wednesday night, stated that Colonel Quay was surely a candidate, and "I think," he added, "he is the strongest candidate in the country." It is said that Senator Quay and ex Senator Plats, of New York, are not only working in concert, but that down deep in his intentions

Chamberlain's Premature Action. Never-theless, a Washington dispatch says he will Great Britain in publishing the Chamberlain dispatch before its delivery here. contents meet with the approval of no party. The Uitlanders regard the suggested remedy as impracticable, unsuitable and tending to emphasize existing differences instead of healing them at Johannesburg.

There is the best authority for stating that President Kruger's reply to Mr. Chamberlain is intended for home con sumption, and does not imply a desire to rupture negotiations. President Kruger is still auxious to visit England. The Hollanders and Germans are doing their best to prevent him. But the government lieves that a permanent agreement is only possible by personal negotiations between President Kruger and Mr. Chamberlain.
