REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania; The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention Thursday, April 23, 1908, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representative at-large in Congress and thirty-two candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates at-large to the Republican National convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

By order of the State Committee.
M. S. QUAY, Chairman.
Attest—JERE B. REE, Secretary.
W. E. ANDREWS, Secretaries.

The indications are that the North pole has got away from Nansen, and is now on the outskirts of Shenandoah.

JAMES MANSELL, the Prohibition candidate was elected mayor of Williamsport on Tuesday, and now the political war lines of the Republican and Democratic parties in that city are wondering "where they are at."

The 33rd anniversary of the death of Martin Luther was observed by the Lutherans of Philadelphia by a monster meeting at the Academy of Music, on Wednesday evening, at which addresses were made by leading divines.

The death of John Graf removes from our midst one of Shenandoah's most progressive business men, and much sorrow is manifested to all circles on account of his sudden demise. He was a man of exemplary habits, and had many good traits of character.

AMELIA RIVES CHANLER, authoress of that lurid book, "The Quick or the Dead," was married again on Tuesday to a Russian Prince Troubetski. Amelia is rushing things, as it was only in October she was divorced from her first husband, Mr. Jack Chanler, of New York. But she is a princess now, even if it is only a Russian one, where princesses are thicker than Colons in Kentucky.

There is a wide difference between truthfulness and veracity. Veracity implies a correspondence between words and thoughts; truthfulness, a correspondence between thoughts and realities. To be veracious it is only necessary that a man give utterance to his convictions; to be true, it is needed that his convictions have affinity with fact. Several local politicians would do well to bear this fact in mind.

ENGLAND, it appears, is now willing to accept arbitration, or rather the appointment of a commission similar to that appointed by President Cleveland, to inquire into the facts of the Venezuelan dispute. This fact strengthens the opinion heretofore held that England was playing a game of hold and having aroused American public feeling almost to the fighting point, is willing to back down, provided it can be done gracefully. As long as she displays that disposition the prospect of war is very remote.

COMPLAINTS continue to reach this office from a number of our subscribers in reference to neighbors borrowing their favorite afternoon paper. At times the paper is taken before they have had an opportunity of reading it themselves. While it is gratifying to us to know that the HERALD is so eagerly sought after, it is not right to borrow your neighbor's paper. Depending upon the latter's generosity is little less than downright robbery. If you want to be independent and secure the news, subscribe for the HERALD—and pay for it.

But John O. Ulrich—brave and nervous—has been frustrated once again in his efforts to persuade two members of the crippled county court to either resign or secure the consent of Governor Hastings to remove them. Some time ago the County Solicitor wrote to the Governor asking him, under certain provisions in Article 5 of the Constitution, to remove the two Judges who had been incapacitated from work for a long term of time, the one for three years, the other for over one year. Attorney-General McCormick advises the Governor that he has no power under the law to take the initiative in such a matter. A Judge can be removed from office only by process of impeachment or by an address to the Governor, signed by two-thirds of the members of each house of the General Assembly. Under the circumstances the Attorney-General said that no action could be taken. The public will await the next step on the part of Mr. Ulrich with much expectancy.

More Room in Shenandoah.
From Mahanoy City Record.
Mahanoy City will never want for theatrical entertainment if the number of proposed show houses will induce it. Besides the Hersker building, for which preparations are now being made, C. D. Kaler will remodel his place and the Columbia Brewing Company, it is reported, will construct another. The proposed site of the Columbia theatre is on Smith and Campion's stable ground, recently sold to M. O'Hara, a Shenandoah liverman. There is doubt, however, that the Columbia Brewing Company will invest in a theatre in Mahanoy City. There is more room in Shenandoah.

Electric Bitters.
Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid extended feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison, Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness, yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at A. Wasley's drug store.

Putting in a New Front.
Workmen are now engaged in making extensive improvements at Refowich's clothing store. The entire front will be torn out and one of the largest and handiest glass fronts in the county will take its place. The interior will also undergo a change, new and handsome fixtures will be put in, and when the improvements are all completed Mr. Refowich will have one of the finest store rooms in the county. He will make a specialty of children's suits and novelties. In quality, variety and price he acknowledges no competitor, and the people of Shenandoah will be enabled to make as good a selection as in any of the large cities. The Refowich building, when all the improvements are completed, will be an ornament to the town.

All were badly frozen.

A Fifteen-Year-Old Murderer.
BALTIMORE, Feb. 21.—Howard Jackson, aged 15, was arrested yesterday for the murder of Herbert Jenkins, 16 years old. The boys several days ago became involved in a quarrel, during which Jackson plunged a long, sharp edged knife into Jenkins' left breast, over the heart, inflicting a fatal wound.

Contesting Illinois Delegations.
CHICAGO, Feb. 21.—There is reason to believe that there will be contesting delegations from Illinois to the Democratic national convention in July. The silver men in control of the state organization will probably succeed in electing a full delegation of silver enthusiasts. Opponents consisting of Democrats who demand a "sound money" plank in the platform are determined to make a fight, and have already laid plans to drag the contest into the convention.

Speculated with Bank Funds.
SCRANTON, Pa., Feb. 21.—President Porter, of the Traders' National bank, of this city, yesterday swore out a warrant for the arrest of A. B. Williams, the late cashier, charging him with the embezzlement of $85,000 of the bank's funds. Williams was taken into custody and afterwards released on $15,000 bail. Williams used the funds of the bank in coal land and colliery speculation.

Bradley and Hunter at Odds.
FRANKFORT, Ky., Feb. 21.—The strained relations between Governor Bradley and Congressman Hunter, the Republican nominee for senator against Blackburn, have reached a crisis since the publication in Louisville of an article charging Governor Bradley with the responsibility of Hunter not being elected. Governor Bradley yesterday demanded that Dr. Hunter make a denial of the charges. Hunter declined to do so, and added that the gravity of the situation might have been prevented by the governor. More serious trouble is expected between Bradley and Hunter.

Railroads Blocked by Snow.
ROCHESTER, N. Y., Feb. 21.—The storm which began Wednesday afternoon has been the worst the railroads have experienced this season. Very little snow fell, but that little, combined with the snow drifted by the driving wind, was sufficient to blockade most of the roads. The wind fills up the cuts nearly as fast as the plows can clear them. Engineers and trainmen state that the wind has made it well nigh impossible to keep up steam for traction and heating purposes.

Licious practices are indulged in, through ignorance of the inevitable injury to constitution and health which surely follows. To assist such in acquiring a knowledge of themselves and of how to preserve health and to shun those pernicious and most destructive practices, to which so many fall victims, as well as to reclaim and point out the means of relief and cure to any who may unwittingly have violated Nature's laws, and are already suffering the dire consequences, an association of medical gentlemen have carefully prepared a little book, which a replete with useful information for every young man. It will be sent to any address, securely sealed from observation in a plain envelope, by the World's Dispensary Medical Association, of 693 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y., on receipt of ten cents in stamps (for postage), if enclosed with this notice.

Fishermen Reported Lost.
BUFFALO, N. Y., Feb. 21.—A rumor was current in this city yesterday that thirteen fishermen had lost their lives while out on the lake during Wednesday's storm, and though the report cannot be substantiated, it is believed that a number have perished. Between 300 and 350 men are known to have been on the ice fishing when the storm sprang up about 10:30 a. m., and it is thought that some failed to make the land. As a large number of those fishermen are Poles, their absence would not be likely to be reported for some days in any event. Several of the returned fishermen report terrible experiences during the blinding snow storm. Some narrow escapes occurred.

French Deputies Stick to Bourgeois.

The Moderates moved, in addition, that the chamber regretted the interference with M. Ricard, the minister of justice, and the legal proceedings confided to the magistrate charged with investigating the Southern railway scandals. This motion was defeated by a vote of 279 to 234.

"Happy Little Home" Actors Unhappy.
MILWAUKEE, Feb. 21.—The members of "A Happy Little Home" company, now filling an engagement at the Bijou theatre, are far from being in a happy frame of mind. Since Monday J. S. ### THE TRIAL OF BROCKWAY.

Secretary of the Treasury Carlisle on the Witness Stand.
TRENTON, Feb. 21.—The prosecution in the trial of the Brockway counterfeiting gang closed its case yesterday, the most important witness produced being John G. Carlisle, secretary of the treasury. Mr. Carlisle testified that he had authorized no one to have or use the distinctive government paper at the house in Hoboken in which the counterfeiting is alleged to have been done.

Judge Hoffman, for the defense, called Colonel W. E. Spencer, alias Brockway, to the stand. Brockway explained that his right name was Spencer, he having been adopted by a family of that name when he was 10 months old. He admitted having visited the Hoboken house twice, but denied knowledge that any counterfeiting was going on there. Brockway admitted that an indictment was found against him in 1880 in the eastern district of New York for counterfeiting a $1,000 government bond. He pleaded guilty, but was never punished on account of giving up the counterfeit plates to the government, which otherwise could not have been secured.

A number of witnesses were then called in behalf of Mrs. Smith and Wagner, with a view to proving that they knew nothing about any counterfeiting being done in the house and to show that the rooms where the counterfeiting was supposed to have been done were occupied only by Dr. Bradford, the dentist, about whom they knew nothing wrong. Bradford, it will be remembered, was indicted with the other defendants, but was taken to Michigan to stand trial for counterfeiting done in that state many years ago.

HE WAS TWICE HANGED

Awful Scene at the Execution of James Fitzgerald.

THE ROPE BREAKS THE FIRST TIME
And the Unfortunate Wretch Was Kept Waiting for Nearly an Hour Until Another Rope Could be Secured—He Died Prototyping His Innocence.

ST. LOUIS, Feb. 21.—Mismanagement, incompetency and torture officiated at the hanging of James Fitzgerald in the Four Courts jailyard yesterday. Two ropewalkers had lengthened out the misery of the condemned.

Wednesday midnight a message had been received from Governor Stone ordering a postponement of the hanging until 10 o'clock. This gave every one but Fitzgerald hope of commutation, as the parents of the murdered girl had wired strong pleas to the governor for the commutation. Father McErlane labored sedulously to comfort his charge, but Fitzgerald was indifferent.

At 10 o'clock came a message from the governor declining to interfere. Then the procession to the gallows began. At exactly 10:17 o'clock the trap was sprung. Fitzgerald's body shot downward. Instead of stopping when the rope's end was reached, there was a sharp snap, a wall from the unfortunate wretch, and Fitzgerald's body lay writhing on the ground. The rope had broken.

Officers at once rushed to the spot and found Fitzgerald still alive and conscious. "My God! My throat! my throat!" he groaned. Before the horror-stricken watchers could reach him he arose, standing up with the black cap over his face and the broken instrument of death dangling from his neck he walked into the morgue, where he was given stimulants. He was more anxious than his executioners for death, and begged that the end come quickly.

When a second rope was called for none was to be had, and Fitzgerald lay motionless on a slab in the morgue while a messenger was sent a distance of nine squares for a new rope. Father McErlane bent over the body of Fitzgerald and recited prayers. Once Fitzgerald raised his hand and pulled the head of the priest to his face and whispered earnestly for a half minute. What the communication was will never be known, but the face of the priest then ashy pale, turned scarlet, and tears fell from his eyes.

At 10:45 the messenger arrived with a new rope, which was quickly adjusted, and Fitzgerald was carried to the scaffold. It was necessary for two deputy sheriffs to hold him up while the noose was placed. His only words were pleas for haste. At 11:02 the trap was again sprung, and at 11:15 the attending physician pronounced life extinct.

Fitzgerald, who had been convicted of the murder of Annie Nansens, his sweetheart, on Nov. 23, 1893, had from the first protested his innocence, and as he stood on the fatal trap for the first time yesterday he reiterated this statement. It is believed that this was the message he whispered to Father McErlane before the second hanging. Fitzgerald's father, mother and sister died of grief as the result of his conviction.

Ministers Should Use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

THIS IS NO PROFESSION, when I see so many of the nervous system, as that of the ministry. The doctor of the nerve centers of the brain, frequently brings on attacks of trouble, and nervous prostration.

P. Kester, M. D., Pastor U. B. church, London Mills, Ill., himself a physician, writes Feb. 20, 1895: "Heart affection and nervous prostration had become a serious last fall that a little over work of the pulpit would so completely prostrate me that it seemed certain."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure Restores Health. must relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. Heart palpitation became so bad that my auditors would ask me if I did not have heart disease. Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nerve and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of 10 weeks, preaching nearly every night and twice on the Sabbath. I can speak for hours without suffering as I formerly did. Hard working ministers should keep Dr. Miles' grand remedies on hand.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.
