THE DEATH OF MACEO.

Spaniards Again Assert That the Report Is Correct.
ALLEGED EVIDENCE ADDUCED.

The Body of the Dashing Matlatto Leader, It Is Asserted, Was Mysteriously Spirited Away by His Followers—More Reports of Spanish Victories.

HAVANA, Feb. 22.—What is considered here as strong corroboration of the report of the death of Antonio Maceo has been received. It seems that the squadron of the Matlatto was making a charge upon a group of insurgents, when three of the women who are fighting in the insurgent ranks, and who have come to be designated as Amazons, made their appearance.

The Spanish troops had dismounted, and, under shelter of a fence, discharged their Mausers into the insurgent ranks. A large number of the latter were seen to fall at the moment of the volley, the women carrying away many of the wounded.

Nine of the wounded were thus conveyed to a neighboring house. One of these died, and the body was secretly and mysteriously spirited away by the insurgents and their friends. People living in the neighborhood affirm that the body thus secretly taken away was that of the dashing Matlatto insurgent general, Antonio Maceo.

The troops are also alleged to have captured a riderless saddle horse, the saddle all bloodstained and bearing the initials "A. M."

The insurgent leader Amieva on Thursday burned the station and warehouse at Ibarra. It is rumored that the insurgents have also burned the village of San Francisco Paula. At Acosta the insurgents made an assault upon a train, and captured the engineer and fireman. What occurred afterwards is not known. At Cardenas a corporal and two firemen deserted to the insurgents, taking with them five rifles and cartridges.

At Key Bejuno, Matanzas, Major Peris Soriano fought a band of insurgents and put them to flight. They left five killed. They were pursued, and at the plantation of San Luis they turned and attacked with their machetes. They were repulsed, however, suffering a loss of three killed and seven wounded, together with arms.

The insurgent leader Simon Guanajales is reported to have passed in the vicinity of Guamacaro near Cardenas, burning canefields.

The central plantations of El Senoao and El Lugareno, near Nuevitas, are reported to be grinding cane without interruption, and at Puerto Principe trains are arriving daily loaded with sugar and cattle for exportation.

Major Morro reports an engagement near Baracoa, in which the insurgents were driven off, carrying with them their leader, Salas, and about seventy privates, wounded. They left on the field Lieutenant Yanciano Lumberto, wounded, who was taken prisoner and subsequently died. Captain Trannullano Borjes, Sergeant Brocard and Gores and nine privates were killed, among them a nephew of the leader Riuo.

The Spanish cruiser Alfonso Doce left here yesterday under orders to bombard the insurgents at Cabanas, on the north coast.

The forces of Gomez and Maceo are now on the borders between the provinces of Matanzas and Havana, and are reported to have been divided.

Ex-Consul Waller Free at Last.
PARIS, Feb. 22.—John L. Waller, ex-United States consul to Madagascar, who was court-martialed and sentenced to twenty years' imprisonment under conviction of having illegally communicated with the Hovas, arrived in Paris yesterday, having been pardoned and released from Nimes prison on Thursday. He expresses the deepest gratitude to the president and state department at Washington, and to Ambassador Eustis. As Waller is entirely destitute of means, our ambassador, Mr. Eustis, has been authorized by Secretary Olney to provide him with transportation to the United States.

THE POET'S TRIBUTE.

New England's Favorite Poet Cured by Dr. Greene's Nervura.

Moses Gage Shirley Sings in Verse His Enthusiastic Praise of the Curative Powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura.

MOSES GAGE SHIRLEY.

When the master poet, James Whitcomb Riley, praised the works of Moses Gage Shirley, of Goffstown, N. H., he placed the stamp of genius upon the rising young New England poet. To-day all the world knows Mr. Shirley as the poet of the Homes through his Everyday Rhymes and other works. Mr. Shirley says:

"As a nerve strengthener and blood purifier it is unequalled and richly merits its great success as the grandest of medicines. I advise everybody ailing to use it, and I take every opportunity to recommend it. It will certainly cure. I have endeavored to tell the great curative powers of Dr. Greene's Nervura blood and nerve remedy in verse in the following: "Wreath of Praise."

What has triumphed o'er disease,
That has baffled time and skill?
Set the suffering captive free,
Banished every pain and ill?
What has brought the roses back
To the faded cheek so thin?
Caused the stars of hope to rise
In the drooping heart within?
