Personally-Conducted Tours via Pennsylvanta Raitrond.

There is no doubt but that every one has had at some time a desire to visit Florida the "Land of Flowers," and that many have been deterred from so doing by the thought of a long and tiresome railroad journey, great expense, and a thousand and one other objections. These have been evercome by the inauguration of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's personally-conducted tours to Jacksonville. A special train of unexcolled equipment makes the run from New. York to Jacksonville in thirty hours; a tourist agent and chaperon accompany each tour to look after the comfort of passengers while en route; and the low rates offered bring the tours within the means of almost

THE MYSTERY OF A MINE.

C. L. Fay, Sr., spent Saturday afternoon in Skeletons of Four Men Who Disappeared Many Years Ago Discovered.

COLLIERS, W. Va., Feb. 24.—People are much excited in this vicinity over a recent find. David Snyder has explored an old coal mine a mile east of here, which has not been worked since the '60's, and dissovered human bones. One of the skele tons was sitting apright against a ledge. Beside this skeleton was found a flask containing notes that explained the mysterious disappearance of John Ewing, Ben Ayers, Tom Ackelson and Joe Obney thirty-two years ago. The notes were written in pencil, but well preserved. They read as follows: Nov. 2, 1863—Should this ever reach the outside world let it be known that we (giving names) are prisoners here, owing to the caving in of the mine. We are deserters, and were in hiding here when the mine caved in. This is about the eighth day of imprisonment.

Nov. 4—John Ewing and Tom Ackelson have just killed Ben Ayres and are eating him. I have already eaten my boot leg. I only know the day of the month by my watch.

Nov. 6—Ewing has just killed Ackelson.

Cut off one of his feet and is eating it and dancing around flourishing his dirk knife like a maniac. Nov. 7.-I am now alone with the dead. I had to kill Ewing in self defense. I have just eaten my other boot leg. Am sleepy, Goodbye. I enclose this note in this finsk

DETROIT, Feb. 24.—Referring to Bob Fitzsimmons' published statement that he would have nothing to do with James J. Corbett until the latter had defeated Maher or Choynski Corbett said last night: "I expected nothing further from Fitzsimmons. He has again shown that he does not want to fight me, never did, and never will if he can help it." Corbett re-iterated his statements made in Chicago, to the effect that he was determined to get a match with Fitzsimmons, and pledged his word of honor that he would follow him to England if necessary in order to fight him.

SERVICES AT THE CHURCHES.

Sermon Preached to the P. O. S. of A. by Rev. Meredith Last Evening.

day Rev. J. F. Meredith preached a sermon to members of the P. O. S. of A. in the Methodist Episcopal church last evening. Large delegations from the three samps of town were in attendance. The patriotic spirit of the occasion was enhanced by the national colors and standing on the pulpit platform. The discourse was in keeping with the general spirit. Rev. Meredith pointed out and dwelt at some length upon the prominent epochs in the lives of the two great Americans and other notable characters in the history of the country and took special pains in drawing out characteristics indicative of a christian life. The sermon was very highly appreciated.

A special patriotic and home missionary program was rendered at the Presbyterian church had evening. Rev. R. M. Lichtenwalner preached his farewell sermon to the United Evangelical congregation last evening and a special col-lection was taken up for his benefit. Rev. Lichtenwalner has been the pastor of the ongregation for the past four years and has ulfilled his mission so satisfactorily to all oncerned that were it possible an effort ould be made to have him returned. This, however, cannot be done under the rules of he church. Rev. Lichtenwalner goes to the United Evangelical conference, to be held at Shamokin, to-morrow.

The first Sunday in Lent was observed in the Trinity Reformed church last evening by holding special service for the sick. The Christian Endeavor held a consecration meeting just before the regular service.
