Personal Colloquy. SENATOR CARTER'S ATTITUDE !

The Chairman of the Republican National Committee Denounces the Movement to Drive Him Out of the "Party"-Mr.

Allen's Cuban Resolution.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 27.-The tariff crisis in the senate brought another day of in tensely dramatic action, of impetuous de-bate and of stormy personal colloquy. The speech of Senator Carter, of Montana, one of the five Republican senators who voted against proceeding with the tariff bill, was the main formal event of the day. There was added interest in the speech owing to Mr. Carter's position as chairman of the Republican national committee The senator used very plain words in de-nouncing what he termed the movement to drive him and his silver associates out of the Republican party. This, however, was but the prelude to more stirring events. Mr. Hoar ques-tioned Mr. Carter as to whether he intended to defeat any protective tariff bill unless sonators surrendored their convictions to him, and whether his construc-tion of the Minneapolis platform agreed with the construction given to it by Pres-ident Harrison. Mr. Carter responded with great vigor that Mr. Harrison's course had not been all that was desired, but it was at least a beacon of hope for the future. But it was not the construc-tion applicable to the situation in the senate today. Mr. Gear, of Iowa, sharply questioned Mr. Carter upon the circumstances of framing the financial plank of the Minnenever dreamed that the English language would permit such misconstruction of its terms. Thereupon Mr. Gear, referring to Mr. Carter's conduct of the national campaign in 1892, asked if this plank was not the one by which he (Carter) and the senator from Colorado (Teller) sought to carry the state of Colorado for the Republican party. Mr. Carter replied that the plank was so accepted because the Repub-lican party had always kept its promises, and it was now incumbent on that party to again redeem its promises.

The references to Mr. Teller's part in into the flames. A colored man fought his framing the platform brought him to his way through the flee and brought out the feet with an explanation of what had been girl. intended, and a flery denunciation of the himetallism of Mr. Sherman. The latter in turn arraigned the dishonesty of the policy of free silver, which would pay the laboring man in a fifty cent dollar. Mr. Sherman prophesied that even Colorado would reject the free silver idea and accept true bimetallism.

To this Mr. Teller rejoined with intense feeling that Colorado would never follow the course suggested by the Ohio senator, and if she did he (Teller) would cease to represent that state. He predicted that free silver was not dead, as Mr. Sherman had asserted, but that it was a lively corpse which would rise in the senate to perplex Mr. Sherman. Mr. Teller closed Cash or on easy payments. Our prices are right. Only one price. You are earnestly invited to call at e that the ussioned utte
