

EVENING HERALD

FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 28, 1896.

PERSONAL.

Mrs. W. H. Kerslake is visiting relatives at Pottsville.

Edward Williams spent yesterday in Schuylkill Haven.

Mrs. Zulick, of Schuylkill Haven, is a guest of friends in town.

W. M. Brewer and B. J. Yost enjoyed a drive to Lakeside this afternoon.

Supt. Brughall transacted business at the county seat yesterday.

Hon. D. D. Phillips, of Gordon, was a visitor to town yesterday afternoon.

Dr. D. S. Marshall, of Ashland, whose illness has been reported, is steadily improving.

Hon. John T. Slocum, of Orwigsburg, discussed politics with acquaintances in town yesterday.

Dr. Hochlerner returned from New York last evening, where he attended the funeral of his brother.

L. J. Wilkinson, the South Main street dry goods merchant, spent yesterday in Philadelphia.

Mr. and Mrs. David Frost and John L. Hasler are attending the United Evangelical conference at Shamokin.

Mr. and Mrs. Mahlon Yeager and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Yeager, are visiting among friends in Hamburg to-day.

George Holvey returned to Reading this morning, after a visit to his brother, who is confined to his bed by illness.

Edward Kester, of the Grand Union Tea Company, went to Reading this morning to transfer a pair of horses to the Williamsport branch.

Mrs. H. Weiss, of Philadelphia's "400," and a well-known lady in high society in the Quaker City, passed through town en route for Florida.

Earn Hosenick, of the Shenandoah Hat and Cap Factory, returned last evening from a commercial trip through the western part of the state.

Miss Agnes Luckie returned to town last evening from a four weeks' sojourn among friends at Allentown. Miss Luckie, whose parents recently removed to Pottsville, is the guest of Miss Lottie Burkhardt, of North Main street.

A real broom is made during the rendition of James A. Reilly's broom song to-night.

Do You Wear Shoes?

If so, you can save money by buying them at the Factory Shoe Store. We are offering big bargains in shoes. For example, we are selling a boy's calf congress for $1.25 that can't be bought anywhere for less than $2.00. In fact, all our prices are about 20 per cent. less than at other places, because they are factory prices.

J. A. MOYER, Mgr.

Repairs to Township Roads.

Judge Bechtel yesterday granted the petition of P. R. C. & I. Co., to make and repair the roads in the townships of Cass, Foster, Butler, Mahanoy and Tremont. The contracts, &c., were filed in the clerk of court's office.

Scheffly House.

Oysters on toast in addition with several other Lenten lunches, free, to everybody to-night.

Oysters.

All the delicacies of the season.

Not a Candidate.

Joseph Dnato announces that he is not a candidate to succeed Charles Hooks as a member of the School Board, although many of his friends have been urging him to become one. R. A. Davenport and S. L. Brown make the same announcement.

Just Think of It.

The Factory Shoe Store is leading them all. Why? Because their prices are your prices, and their goods are right up to date.

J. A. MOYER, Mgr.

To My Friends.

If in need of a fine suit, ready-made or made-to-order, call and see me at J. H. Williams, cor. Market and Centre streets, Pottsville.

A. T. JONES.

THE LENTEN SPELL.

Even Local Political Affairs are in a Gloom.

Lent has put a quietus upon almost everything, including politics, and, although the date upon which the Borough Council is to be organized and the appointments of officials for the fiscal year of 1896-7 are to be made in less than seventy-two hours distant, the interest in it appears to be no greater than the concern that is given generally at present for the observance of next Christmas. Nobody appears to know anything, hear anything, or to be able to guess anything. All are saying nothing and saying wood. The Councilmen and Councilmen-elect in both the Republican and Democratic parties are holding their own counsel and evidently don't propose to betray their intentions until they think the time arrives. This is perplexing action for a period immediately preceding a re-organization of Council, but not without a precedent, and in keeping with the policies of both parties prior to the late election.

A careful canvass shows that nothing authoritatively can be gleaned for publication concerning the re-organization, (notwithstanding an announcement made to-day by a Pottsville paper) except that it will take place next Monday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, and that the Councilmen don't propose to run the gauntlet as they did last year, i. e. the police force will be on duty to keep the passage way open from the street to the Council Chamber and curious people will be obliged to stand aside until the Councilmen can reach their stations. This rule has been made necessary by the increased interest manifested each succeeding year in this important proceeding of Council. It is a strong counter-attraction to the best show that the theatrical managers can procure and but three avenues for coping with the situation: (1) Make a private entrance to the Council Chamber; (2) charge a price for admission; (3) keep the crowd at a distance, and the latter has been selected as the most economical and effective.

The retiring Councilmen are James Kane, Timothy O'Brien, Patrick Gaffigan and Michael Dougherty. Those who are to take part in the re-organization are William McGuire, Martin Lally, Daniel Coakley, James McElhenny, John P. Boehm, T. J. James, F. E. Magargle, D. R. James, C. T. Straughn, A. D. Gable, Patrick Kerns, Conrad Engert, Patrick Hand, Richard D. Reese and Edward Murphy.

Wedding at Wm. Penn.

Miss Annie Jones, daughter of Philip H. Jones, fire boss at the Wm. Penn colliery, and Hopkin Richards were married last evening at the residence of the bride's parents, in Wm. Penn, by Rev. E. Potts, pastor of the Wm. Penn Methodist Episcopal church. Misses Polly Jones and Annie Richards were the bridesmaids and George Reese and Thomas Richards the groomsmen. There was a reception and elaborate supper after the ceremony and a large number of friends from neighboring and distant places were royally entertained. Mr. and Mrs. Richards were made the recipients of many beautiful, costly and useful presents. The Grand Band of Shenandoah was in attendance and rendered a number of selections. Prof. Evan Jones and brother also furnished music during the evening. Among the guests at the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. A. Jones, John Parry and lady, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pugh and Mr. and Mrs. Fred. Loma, of Wilkesbarre; Evan Jones, Treaskow; Mrs. Evan Jones, Centralia; Mr. and Mrs. John Sargent, Patrick Stack, Thomas Kinney and Joseph Keogh, Girardville; Elmer Opp, Michael Herman, Mrs. Heuck, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Bellis, Mr. and Mrs. J. Griffiths, Mr. and Mrs. John J. Price, Miss Amour and Miss Mimmie Davis, of Shenandoah; also J. C. Glover and daughter, Prof. John Knight and wife, Mr. and Mrs. David Mitchell, Mr. and Mrs. James Fox, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. William Taggart, William Richards and family, Tallies Jenkins, John Reese, Joseph Sargent, Joseph Beddall, Misses Lillie Beddall, Lottie Leggett, May Seltzer and Annie Kline, Mrs. Peter Grew, Superintendent William H. Lewis, Wilbur J. Lewis, Arthur Reese, Mr. and Mrs. D. M. Rick, all of Wm. Penn.

Attention, Jr. O. U. A. M.

All members of Major William H. Jennings Council, No. 367, Jr. O. U. A. M., are requested to attend a special meeting, to be held in Egan's hall, corner of Main and Centre streets, Sunday, March 31, at one o'clock p. m., sharp, to make arrangements to attend the funeral of our late brother, John H. Schwindt. All members of Council No. 530 are cordially invited to be present. By order of GEORGE W. DREW, Councilor.
Attest—WM. REEVES, Sec'y. 2f

Wood's College.

Five teachers have been selected for Shenandoah, the last one added was Prof. A. L. McCloskey, one of the most noted commercial teachers engaged in the profession.

The Prof. is a graduate of three of our leading educational institutions, and besides his experience in Business College work, has filled the position as Principal of the Department of Mathematics in the Lock Haven Normal School. With Prof. S. I. Wood at the head, and Prof. A. L. McCloskey and M. A. Price, as first assistants, the Shenandoah College will have a faculty second to none in the state.

Prof. Wood's success is largely due to the fact that he employs none but the best instructors.

See Prof. Martin, organizer, at the Ferguson House, any evening this week if you would not miss one of the charter memberships.

Quick Selling at Wilkinson's.

The time is getting short for clearing out our big stock of dry goods; soon the builders will commence to rebuild our big store—the largest in the county. We must be ready to start anew in this great business house with a brand new stock. You can help us by letting us sell you good honest dry goods at lower than our usual very low prices.

L. J. WILKINSON.

Notice.

Subscriptions for the 4 per cent. borough bonds, at par and accrued interest from January 1st., will be received by the undersigned, on and after February 17th, 1896.

FIFTY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Region Chronologically for Hasty Perusal.

"The Broom-Maker" the brightest comedy, to-night.

The Zuber shoe factory at Landingville was sold yesterday by Sheriff Scott.

Five sweaters with collars, in all colors, at $1.85. At MAX LEVIT'S.

The Union Coal Company's mines, at Shamokin, will work three-quarter time instead of half-time.

William Richards, an inmate of the almshouse, who formerly resided at Mahanoy City, has been removed to the Harrisburg asylum.

The P. O. S. of A., of Shamokin, paid $12,000 for a lot on which to erect a hall.

The Lehigh Valley shops at Hazleton have put on the four-days-a-week schedule.

Freehand has secured another industry, an overall factory.

Dr. Joseph F. Gallagher, of Freehand, who a year ago accepted a position at the Ashland hospital, has been forced to resign on account of failing health. He is now in North Carolina, where he expects the climate will restore him to good health.

Contractor Lewis Grant arrived in town last evening. Mr. Grant has been to the Bermuda Islands for several weeks and was greatly benefited by his trip.—Pottsville Exchange.

A large and admirably executed oil painting, representing the sinking of the Alabama, is one of the latest decorations at John Week's hostelry. Harry Ferbus worked on the painting five weeks.

The convention of District No. 1, United Mine Workers of America, which was to have been held at Pottsville to-day, has been postponed. Due notice when the convention will be called will be made.

In accordance with a request from Postmaster General Wilson the following post offices of this county have reported gold receipts for a month: Mahanoy City, $10; Shenandoah, $80; and Pottsville, $100.

Cure for Headache.

As a remedy for all forms of Headache Electric Bitters has proved to be the very best. It effects a permanent cure and the most dreaded habitual sick headaches yield to its influence. We urge all who are afflicted to procure a bottle, and give this remedy a fair trial. In case of habitual constipation Electric Bitters cures by giving the needed tone to the bowels, and few cases long resist the use of the medicine. Try it once. Large bottles only 50 cents at A. Wasley's Drug Store.

Sporting Events.

The fight between "Saddy Bill," of Hazleton, and James Mcadden, of Wilkesbarre, has been declared off.

Much interest is being taken in the coming fight between Griffin and Boner at Pottsville next Tuesday.

Negotiations are pending to bring Saddy Bill, of any place, and Dick O'Brien, of Louistown, Maine, together at the next entertainment of the National Club in Shenandoah. O'Brien is known from coast to coast and is a way up in the pictures. Every one hereabouts knows Saddy. Twenty rounds is the limit, and if the men can be prevailed upon to take the purse, which is a little less than they expected, the match is a go. The date will be between March 13 and 20. Messrs. P. J. Mulholland, J. J. Riley and James McBrearty, of the National Club, met Tim Hurst and W. W. Lewis at the Union House, Ashland, last evening, when the affair was discussed. Lewis is behind O'Brien.—Mahanoy City Record.

William Gibson has consented to meet Joe Laferri, of Girardville, the bout to take place on March 6th.

An effort is being made to arrange a shooting match between Fen Cooper and Harry Swartz, of Scranton.

A game of quoits will be played in Mahanoy City between Adam Weyler and John Edson on March 17, for a purse of $25 a side. A shooting match has been arranged between Thomas Burgett, of Minersville, and Pat Moran, of Lost Creek, to take place at Lost Creek on March 17, for $25 a side. Seven birds apiece will be shot at.

A number of prominent young men of Mahanoy City are organizing an athletic club.

Shamokin could not pay Setley the price he asked, and yesterday he attached his name to a contract with the Montgomery, Ga., club of the Southern League.

Wait For the Opening.

Carpenters have almost completed the new glass front in the Refowich building, and new and handsome fixtures will be placed in the store. When completed Mr. Refowich will have the finest and largest store-room in the county. A new and varied stock, including children's clothing and specialties, will be a big attraction. Wait for the opening. 2-26-1f

Death of Nicholas Miller.

Nicholas Miller, after a week's illness, died at his home at Millersville, a small lamlet near Ashland, Wednesday evening. The cause of his death was blood poisoning, the primary cause of which was the cutting of a troublesome corn some months ago, and the setting in of gangrene afterward. About two weeks ago Drs. Biddle and Hoffman performed an operation that involved the amputation of part of the foot, and the little toe on the left foot, and it was thought that this would have a good effect in staying the progress of the disease.

Bucklen's Arnica Salve.

The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, tetter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. It is guaranteed to give perfect satisfaction or money refunded. Price 25 cents per box. For sale by A. Wasley.

Will Suspend Operations.

Orders have been issued to suspend operations at the Bear Run breaker, known as Wiggins, and it is likely not to resume again. The coal will be conveyed under ground to a counter shaft, into which it will be dumped and hauled to the St. Nicholas breaker. The order will go into effect on Monday at which time workmen will commence to raise the Bear Run breaker to the ground. This colliery has been in operation about 20 years, but of late the work of robbing the old workings did not furnish sufficient coal to keep the breaker running steadily.

Fine Fedora hats, attractive colors, at moderate prices. At MAX LEVIT'S.

Another Remodeling.

Louis Goldin, the proprietor of the Mammoth Clothing House, will shortly begin operations on the second remodeling of his store. To accommodate the steady increasing business, the store room will be made 125 feet in length and 30 feet in width, which will include a children's novelty department, the floor of which will be covered with Brussels carpets, and other ornaments similar to stores of this kind in the larger cities. Ample light will also be furnished by the erection of skylights.

HOOD'S PILLS cure Liver Ills, Biliousness, Indigestion, Headache. A pleasant laxative. All Druggists.

Baby in a Raisin Box.

With its little face all aglow with pleasure, a babe floated down the creek in a raisin box at Mt. Carmel yesterday, coming from no one knows where, and landed into the arms of a kind-hearted farmer who refused to give his name, but took the little one to his home which he said is near Elysburg. The babe is apparently eight weeks old and is perfectly healthy. Discarded by some unhappy mother who probably desired to rid herself of her offspring because its advent had been unwelcome, this little one had been placed in a box that had been carefully prepared for it, and put into the dirty waters of the creek to go where it might. But fate had been kind to the little outcast. The farmer noticed several boys watching the box as it floated down the creek, and wondering as to its contents, started an investigation, which resulted in his lifting the babe out of its nest, where it had lain comfortably taking its morning meal from a bottle. The farmer said he had but one child, a daughter 23 years old, and as the infant was a boy he would adopt it. He refused to give his name but with the child carefully wrapped in an old overcoat, which he had in his wagon, started for his home at Elysburg.

Smith's India Pale Ale, Yuengling's Stock Ale and Burton's Pale Ale constantly on hand at Bickert's cafe.

A Pronounced Success.

Such are the remarks passed by those who witnessed the performance of the "German Soldier" with the eminent German comedian, James A. Reilly, playing the leading role. He was greeted with a large audience who were so favorably impressed with the production, that the management of the company was induced to remain here to-night to produce Mr. Reilly's former success, "The Broom-Maker." The company is evenly balanced and the specialties introduced were bright and catchy. La Petit Irene, the child artist for dramatic ability, ease and grace of manner, has no equal. "The Broom-Maker" to-night is deserving of a packed house.

Fine liquors at Bickert's cafe. Gibson's, Boquet, Monogram, and Gallagher & Burton's Black Label whiskies constantly on hand.

Heavy merino undershirts or drawers at 25 cents. At MAX LEVIT'S.

Obituary.

Mrs. Esther Holderman died at her home in Mahanoy City yesterday afternoon from heart affection. She had been ill several months. Mrs. Holderman was 67 years old. She was born in West Penn and had resided in Mahanoy City for 32 years. The surviving members of the family are Daniel Holderman, the husband, and four children, Levi and Wallace Holderman, Miss Sallie Holderman, and Mrs. Alice Helms, of Altoona.
