DISTINGUISHED MEN DEAD.

Massachusetts' Chief Magistrate Sleeps His Final Sleep.

THE STATE WITHOUT A GOVERNOR.

The Venerable Archbishop Kenrick, of St. Louis, Found Dead in His Bed by His Valet—His Death Prevents the Proposed Satoll Celebration.

LOWELL, Mass., March 5.—Governor Greenhalge died at 12:30 o'clock this morning. The governor had been critically ill for nearly a week, and his death was not a surprise to the residents of this city. Yesterday forenoon he sank into unconsciousness, from which he never rallied. Governor Greenhalge was of English birth, but came with his parents to this country in his childhood. He was graduated from Harvard university in 1863. Two years later he was admitted to the bar, at which he practiced law as a counsellor and advocate. He was elected to congress from the Eighth District in 1888, having previously to that time occupied the office of city solicitor of Lowell, mayor of the city and member of the legislature. He was elected governor three successive times.

For the first time in over twenty years the gubernatorial chair is vacant. During the illness of Governor Greenhalge, according to the constitution, Lieutenant Governor Roger Wolcott was officially known as "acting governor."

The constitution does not transmit the title of governor to the second officer of the state in the event of the death of the first officer. Lieutenant Governor Wolcott today sent a message to the legislature officially notifying it of the governor's death, and issued a public proclamation announcing to the people of the Commonwealth that there is a vacancy in the office of governor. The lieutenant governor ceases to be "acting governor," but becomes "lieutenant governor and commander-in-chief."

ARCHBISHOP KENRICK DEAD.

The Venerable Catholic Prelate Who Was Succeeded by Archbishop Kain.

ST. LOUIS, March 5.—Peter Richard Kenrick, who for fifty-five years prior to three years ago was the Roman Catholic Archbishop of this diocese, died yesterday afternoon in the 90th year of his age. His death was peaceful and painless. There was no struggle as far as could be seen on his placid features, for he was dead when his valet found him.

For several years the aged prelate had been in very feeble health, and about three years ago Bishop John J. Kain, of Wheeling, was elevated to an archbishopric and sent here to relieve him. The present winter has been very severe on him, and one or two incipient attacks of pneumonia nearly carried him off. It was lung trouble, helped by senile debility, that caused his death.

Archbishop Kenrick's death will disarrange the elaborate preparations that had been made for the reception and entertainment of Cardinal Satoll, who was expected to arrive here next Monday morning. The cardinal's presence in the city will now be in connection with the impressive burial services that will be given the dead prince of the church.

INSULTING OUR FLAG.

Spain's Sassy Students Still Leading Hostile Demonstrations.

MADRID, March 5.—There were renewed disturbances here yesterday and demonstrations of popular anger against the United States government. The students of the university seem to have been the offenders, or the leaders in the demonstration. In spite of the special prohibition directed against them by the government the students and other inhabitants indulged in renewed manifestations of their unfriendly sentiments against the United States.

They assembled before the Madrid university and there publicly burned an American flag. The police dispersed the meeting after making several arrests. As a result of the disorders the cabinet council last night decided to temporarily close the universities. It was also decided to create a special budget for naval armaments.

An official dispatch from Havana says that the Spanish have obtained several victories over the insurgents. General Bernal's brigade at Manati routed 3,000 rebels, killing thirty and wounding fifty and capturing 400 horses, a quantity of arms and ammunition and explosives. The Spanish loss was four killed and eight wounded.

The feeling both political and financial in Cleveland is disposed to offer friendly mediation before he officially recognizes the belligerence of the Cubans. The principal newspapers now denounce the anti-American demonstrations, and advocate prudence. Martinez Campos persuaded the Duke of Tetuan to rejoin the cabinet, and has offered to assist the government in any way in his power.

To Test a State Liquor Law.

YORK, Pa., March 5.—The waiting of a hearing at Hanover yesterday will throw into the York court a case that promises to assume important proportions, and will test provisions of the state liquor license law. Frederick N. Gottlieb, manager, and William Lehr, traveling salesman for the Globe Brewing company, Baltimore, were arrested for taking orders in this state and delivering liquor contrary to the law of 1875, which some lawyers hold was repealed by the enactment of the Brooks law. If the case is declared against the brewing people they say they will appeal it to the supreme court. The liquor men here and elsewhere are very much interested in the outcome.

Salvation Brigadiers Are Americans.

CINCINNATI, March 5.—Brigadier General Cozzens, of the Salvation Army, in this city, says: "The story that all the brigadiers except one in the Salvation Army in this country are English is not true. On the contrary, with the possible exception of Brigadier General Evans, of New York, all the brigadiers in the army in America are naturalized citizens of the United States. Only four are native English—Evans of New York, Evans of Philadelphia, French of St. Louis and Sully of Kansas City. Those of English proclivities are most favorable to Ballington Booth. Those of American tendencies propose to stand by the guns under the old general."

Disastrous Fire at Johnstown.

JOHNSTOWN, Pa., March 5.—At 9:30 last evening fire broke out in the basement of the Nathan Miller block, in the most central part of the town. At midnight the whole business portion of the town was threatened, with the fire still burning fiercely. The Hannan block, valued at $75,000, is now a total loss. The Democrat office was totally destroyed, together with all the fine new machinery and equipment of that firm. Their loss is placed at $30,000. Nothing was saved, even the employees, who were preparing the morning edition, fleeing for their lives. It was nearly 2 o'clock this morning before the fire was under control. The loss will reach $150,000.

SCHOOL BOARD MEETING!

Edwin R. Williams Elected a Director to Succeed Mr. Hooks.

THE EVENING SCHOOLS TO CLOSE

There Will Only be a Five Months Term This Year—Charge Against a School Teacher Dismissed Upon Apology Made to Parents.

Fourteen members attended a regular meeting of the School Board last night and spent almost three hours in listening to reports of committees, acting upon recommendations, etc. The members were Messrs. Ogden, Conry, Lee, Manley, Morgan, Devitt, Edwards, James, Hanna, Connors, Smith, Price, Trezise and Baugh.

Prof. J. W. Cooper, the principal of the High school, addressed the Board and stated that he would be a candidate for County Superintendent of schools and that he would thank the Board for any recommendation it might see fit to give him, assuring the members that he would come out of the fight without doing anything that might cause them, either as a body or individually, any regret.

The Board unanimously adopted resolutions endorsing Mr. Cooper as an exemplary citizen whose executive and intellectual ability and experience has made him a successful teacher, and strongly recommending him to the School Directors of the county.

Superintendent Whitaker made his monthly report and in addition to remarks of a general character concerning the schools presented the following statistics: Day schools—Term enrollment: Boys, 1485; girls, 1663; total, 3148. Monthly enrollment: Boys, 1236; girls, 1361; total, 2597. Average daily attendance: Boys, 1061; girls, 1111; total, 2172. Percentage of attendance: Boys, 90; girls, 87; total, 89. Present every session, 562. Visits by citizens, 219; by directors, 44. Evening Schools—Term enrollment: Boys, 595; girls, 84; total, 679. Monthly enrollment: Boys, 298; girls, 43; total 341. Average attendance: Boys 210; girls, 26; total, 236. Percentage of attendance: Boys, 70; girls, 71; total, 78. Present every session, 54. Visits by citizens, 15. Mr. Whitaker added that the attendance at both the day and evening schools during the past month was considerably in excess of the attendance during the same period last year.

The teachers and salaries committee reported that it had fully investigated the charge against one of the school teachers for beating a child and had concluded that, while the charge was true and admitted by the teacher, it was evident that there was no intention on her part to injure the child and that the apology the teacher made to the parents was ample. Upon these facts the committee recommended that the charge be dismissed. The Board adopted the recommendation.

All the school buildings have been connected with the public water works.

A recommendation of the evening school committee that the schools remain open for a term of five months and close on the 23rd inst. was adopted.

Bids for furnishing the proposed new White street school building and High school extension with a heating and ventilating system were opened and referred back to the building and repairs committee with instructions to confer with the architect.

The expenditures for the School district thus far this fiscal year, according to the report of Director T. R. Edwards, chairman of the finance committee, have been $4,116.13. An application of Lott F. Evans, of South Jardin street, for exoneration from taxes was granted.

The resignation of Charles Hooks was read and accepted and the Board proceeded to fill the vacancy. Director Price nominated Edwin R. Williams and Director Lee named A. S. Hagenbuch. Mr. Williams received all the votes except those of Messrs. Lee and Trezise and was declared elected. A request by Rev. Roth for permission to hold Sunday school and church services in the Turkey Run school building, next Sunday, was granted.
