Ministers Should Use EVA BOOTH SUCCEEDED.

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

THERE IS NO PROFESSION, whose labors so severely tax the nervous sys-tem, as that of the ministry. The derangement of the nerve centers of the brain by ever work, frequently brings on attacks of heart trouble, and nervous prostrution. Rev. J. P. Kester, M. D., Pastor U. B. Schurch, London Mills, Ills., himself a physi-han, writes Feb. 26, 1805: "Heart affection nd nervous prostration had become so erious last fall that a little over work in the pulpit would so completely prostrate me Dr. Miles' that it seemed certain I must relinquish the work

Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nervine and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of

MISS BOOTH FORMALLY NOTIFIED.

The Reason for Ballington Booth's Seconsion Made Public-The Old General Wanted All the Profits of The War Cry, and Ballington Objected.

NEW YORE, March 18 -- Commissioner Eva C. Booth, who had temporarily sup-plauted her deposed brother, Ballington Booth, in the command of the Salvation Booth, in the command of the Salvation Army in America, has in turngbeen super-coded through the appointment of Mr. and Mrs. Booth-Tucker to the command of the army in America. At the close of a largely attended masting of the auxiliaries in the large neurorial half inst night Com-missioner Eva Booth, who had just fin-ished speaking, was handed the following nablegram from London, signed by Bran-well Baath acculation for with the are well Booth, acquainting her with the ap-pointment of Mr. and Mrs. Tucker:

"The general has appointed Commis-oner and Mrs. Booth-Tucker to the United States. He is praising God con-tinually for the fidelity of the American COMMANDER AND MRS. BOOTH-TUCKER.

Commissioner Eva Booth appeared to be much affected on receipt of the cablegram acquainting her of the appointment made by her father which will shortly relieve her of her command in America, where she had already become endeared to the officers and soldiers who have not second from the ranks to join Ballington Booth's now movement. Commissioner Carleton, the latest envoy to this country from in-ternational headquarters in this country, presided over the meeting, and in doing so indulged in a lengthy statement in ref-Amorica.

There was considerable singing, after There was considerable singing, after which Commissioner Eva said: "It causes me pain to have to refer to the circum-stances which brought me here. I am your commander and he (Ballington Booth) is my own dear brother, and I de-sire to say that the last sad stop which he has seen fit to take has not in the least has seen fit to take has not in the least shaken a sister's love. We were cradled in the same cot, and we offered our first prayer at the knee of the same fond but departed mother, who looks down with moistened eyes of pity on her son tonight. We both spoke the vows of faith and Toyalty to God and submission to our father, the great leader in this mighty movement whose flag waves from pole to pole. "It is an exceedingly painful thing for me to have to refer to these unpleasant circumstances, but the order which my brother disobeyed was issued at the same time to twenty-three territorial leaders, among them five members of my own family. Sister Lucy, who is ordered here, has trodden the heathen sands of India in fulfillment of her duty as commander, re-ceived her farewell orders at the same time, and immediately issued her manifesto through the columns of her War

Cry. "I sobbed and cried all night the night I received my orders to say farewell to the London province, where I labored as com-mander for four years. I came here to ask him (Ballington) to recall the letter he had written and to ask him to meet his father, but without having the desired effect.

"Could the general violate the principles of this movement and undo the labors of his lifetime? No. I say there was nothing alse for us to do but take the position which we have assumed in this sad and trying matter and maintain the principles which are dearer to us than our own flesh and blood. Change of office prevents stagnation. There is strength in unity, and weakness, failure and Ignominy in the result of division.

CAUSE OF THE SECESSION.

The General Wanted All the Profits from War Cry Sales. NEW YORK, March 18.—Relative to the causes of Ballington Booth's retirement from the command of the Salvation Army in the United States, the following is published here: Some time ago Ballington Booth submitted to his father twenty-two grievances and asked for remody and relief from The War Cry superannuation fund. The sale of The War Cry in this country was sanctioned by General Booth, who agreed to 10 per cent. of the sales being set apart for a fund for disabled and superannuated soldiors. It was with this agreement and understanding that the paper was sold in this country. This fund now amounts to probably $8,000 or $10,000.

Some time ago, it is claimed, General Booth sent for this money, which he in-tended using for army purposes elsewhere, thus diverting it from its original purposes. Ballington Booth declined to code to this demand, and said the f was for the American superannuated sol-diers, and not for the extension of the tarnay.

Immediately on top of this Ballington Booth's removal was ordered, which led to his resignation. Ballington Booth, it is added, has refrained from stating his true position out of consideration for his
