REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly vention Thursday, April 25, 1896, at 10 o'clock s. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for two caudidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates at large to the Republican National convention, and for the ransaction of such other business as may be SHAMORIN newspapers are agitating the question of city charter for that town.

Bisnor Joyce, of the M. E. church, held services in the church at Bridgeton, N. J., on Sunday morning last, and preached to an immense audience. It was an old-fashioned Methodist meeting, the Histor's sermon moving the audience to smiles and tears alternately, and one young woman got so excited she felt like hugging the good old Witter Senator Flinn, of Pittsburg, is just spoiling to go on the stand to testify as to the excellence of the Pittaburg city government, it leaks out that he has been suing for peace with Senator Quay. The latter gentleman's terms are practically an unconditional surrender. In the meantime, the Allegheny statesmen are shouting for McKinley with might and main and making propositions for peace with Quay. It appears the Pittsburgers are trying to catch an old bird with chaff.

DESPITE the prohibition of the Turk, which was handed her when she left this country not so long ago, Clara Barton has gone shead and has accomplished her purpose of conveying much needed assistance to the suffering Armenians. Many a woman, and man, too, would have given up when the prohibition was launched, but this heroic woman is made of sterner stuff, and her perseverance carried the day. The Turk backed down and the Red Cross carries its mission of charity to the suffering in Asia with the protection of the Turks themselves. All honor to Clara Barton and, her, brave as-

SPECULATION as to the successor of Leo XIII has received fresh impetus lately by an article on this subject in the Paris Revue Hustre, signed "Damasius," The identity of the writer has not been ascertained, but the familiarity be displays with Papal affairs indicates that he is a personage high in the conneils and secrets of the Vatican- "Damasius" declares that the majority of the Sacred College has practically decided already in favor of Cardinal Parocchi, present administrator of the Diocese of Rome. Thu latter is described as the greatest preacher in Italy, a consummate diplomatist and a scholar whose "learning is marvelous."

WAITING was still the rule last week among business men, according to R. G. Dun & Co.'s report. Large hope but little actual business explains the strength of some markets and the weakness of others. Thus far there is a decided increase in the demand for boots and shoes secured by considerable sions in prices, but in other branches of business, concussions are made in vain or are not made. Meanwhile it is encouraging to know that one of the most important busi med interests has realized definite improvement. The insurance companies show a larger business and larger income than ever before and also a most remarkable soundness of mortgage loans and other investments. Failures for the week have been 300 in the United States against 266 last year, and 60 in Canada aminet 57 last year.

THE report of the State Board of Health has just been issued, filling a volume of 600 pages, with maps, plans, statistics and tables, that make very clear the value of the work done by the State Board of Health. The inspections made by the officers covered avery part of the state where there were outbreaks of disease or where there were preventable epidemics. The value and importance of stendy, watchful cure ought to be fully recognized by generous support from the authorities of the state, and of every county, city or district. The local Board of Health ought to be made the object of earnest support by all those who are interested in public health and welfare. The work of such a body is not so easily measured by money, for it touches life and health and all that secures both. To wage successfully its war against disease, against the preventable causes, and against that earclessness and ignorance responsible for so much sickness and death, the Board should be encouraged in its labors.

TERRIFIC EXPLOSION

It Destroys a British Steamer and Kills Forty People.

London, March 17.—The British steamer Matadi, which sailed from Siorra Leone on Feb. 5, has been totally destroyed at Bonna by an explosion of gunpowder. Bonna (or Bonnna) is on the Congo river, about forty inites from its month.

Twenty-two of the Matadi's crew, two passengers and sixteen native laborers were killed. Sixteen of the crew escaped without serious injuries. The Matadi had on board ten tons of gunpowder, a quantity which sufficiently accounts for the disastrous effects of the explosion. The mails and the specie which were on board were saved. The victims of the accident were asleep at the stime of the disaster, The officers of the steamer escaped.

For Three New Government Docks.

Washington, March 17.—Three new dry docks, to be built at Alglers, La., Marc Island, Cal., and Pertsmouth, N. H., will be provided for in the naval appropriation bill, in accordance with a vote taken by the house naval committee yesterday. The cost of the Algiers dock is limited to $800. expenditure in the fiscal year for which the bill provides is to be $100,000 on each dock. Today the committee is dealing with the question of the increase of the navy. It is predicted that the rigid economists who desire the battleships to be limited to two in number and the advocates of such ships will compromise on CENSURE GOV OR BRADLEY. Kentucky Senators Take Radical Action, Military to Remain on Buty.

FRANKFOOT Ky., March 17.—Yester-ay a sense of in the senatorial contest flashed in the pan. Bitter talk and a fruit-less ballo, tells the story, and those features have been present every day since the fight began. The scenes, however, had a different setting and to the dramatic persome were added about 400 bluecoats from Louisville, Lexington and Frankfort. The salutary effect of this military display es not appear on the surface, because the reason for its presence was apprehen-sion and not the existence of violence. The presence of this armed force was the subject of numerous resolutions and acrimonious debate in both houses before and after the joint session. The senate, by a strict party vote, adopted a resolution reciting the action of Governor Bradley in calling out the militia, which was declared to be "without warrant of law, necessity or justification," and appointing a com mittee headed by Senator Gosbel to "in llege," and to report to the senate for final action. This was adopted as a substitute for a resolution offered by Senator Bronston violently denouncing. Governor Bradley and declaring the purpose of the senate to suspend all legislation while the military guard remained in possession of the capitol. The house got into a tangle both sides, all of which were finally with-

BIG GIFT TO HOMESTEADERS.

Congress Relieves Them from the Payment of Fifteen Million Dollars.

WASHINGTON, March 17.—The senate had an hour of spirited Cuban debate late posterday, after the early part of the day had been given to set speeches by Mr. Lodge on immigration and Mr. Pugh on silver. The Cuban discussion was mainly important in bringing out the full reading of a statement of the Spanish side of the case as presented to Secretary Olney by Senor De Lome, the Spanish minister. It claimed to detail the insurgent methods guerilla warfare, the burning or canefields, and the disorganized character of the insurgent bands. Mr. Morgan com-mented severely on the minister's statements. The senator had several sharp controversies with Mr. Hale over various phases of the Caban question. During the day Mr. Elkins offered a resolution directing the committee on foreign affairs to report as to the status of the war in Cuba before a vote was taken in the senate.

It being suspension day in the house, geveral bills were passed. The most important was the Okiahoma homestead bill, which relieves homesteaders in Okiahoma of the payment of the purchase price of their homesteals. According to the re-port of Secretary Smith this bill will re-lieve the settlers of the payment of about $15,000,000. The concessions of these lands from the Indians cost the government $18,000,000. As the supreme court yester-day decided that the territory known as Greer county. Tex., was public domain, and therefore part of Oklahoma territory, an amendment was added to the bill suspending the public land laws over this territory pending legislative action. The house also decided to consider the resolutions censuring Ambassador Bayard to-

Asylum Attendants Not Yet Sentenced. WILMINGTON, Del., March 17.-Another delay in the sentencing of Keepers Brown and Swan, of the insane asylum at Farn-hurst, convicted of manslaughter, in causing the death of Leon Pisa, an inmate, by violence, occurred when their cases were brought up in over and terminer court yesterday. The court announced a denial of the motion for an arrest of judg ment, Chief Justice Lore and Judge Cul-len agreeing, while Judges Grubb and Marvel opposed. Andrew C. Gray, coun-sel for the prisoners, claimed that the state should first make a motion for judg ment on the verdict. On motion of Dep-

GENERAL BOOTH'S WELCOME.

London Salvationists Renew Their Allegiance to the International Leader, Loxpon, March 17.—The Salvation Army in London was in a state of considerable excitement yesterday, the occasion being a mass meeting at the Crystal Palace to a mass meeting at the Crystal Palace to formally welcome back to England upon his return from his journey around the world "Goneral" William Booth, the com-mander-in-chief of the army. The meet-ing prived to be enormous in numbers and fervent in spirit, there being fully 20,000 people present. General Booth, in his address to the meeting, referred immediately to the action of the Bailington Booths in America. saving that he had returned to meet one of the heaviest trials that he had ever been called upon to face. But even darkness had a silver lining. The American army, he asserted, stood, almost to a man, true to him, and assurances of unceasing de-votion had been pouring in from every quarter of the globe. The result of the trouble would be to strengthen the bond of union between the various sections.

The hall of the Crystal Palace, where the meeting was held, was decorated with mottees, reading "Welcome to Our Only General," "One Army, One General," etc. The meeting was marked by the greatest enthusiasm.

At the conclusion of General Booth's address the Booth-Tuckers were called to the front of the platform. Two stalwart officers of the army held over them the Stars and Stripes and the Salvation Army blood and fire ensign. The general took each of them by the hand and dedicated them to their new work in America in a few words which greatly stirred the immense audience, all of whom joined in an outburst of cheering for the American flag. The commissioners will sail for New York next Saturday.
