EVENING HERALD

TUESDAY, MARCH 17, 1896.

Murdered by Her Young Husband. GATESVILLE, Ga., March 17.—Henry Patterson, 25 years of age and a son of Homer Patterson, a well to do country citizen, recently married a young lady of high social position. Friday last Patterson reported that on the night before he had loaded his gun to shoot a chicken and that the cap failed. Going back to the house for another cap, the hammer slipped and the load went into the head of his wife who was asleep beside her baby. This was not a plausible story and the inquest developed the fact that the woman had been first killed with an ax and then shot. Patterson was arrested.

Vetoed by Governor Griggs. TRENTON, March 17.—Governor Griggs last night vetoed his approval of the bill changing the boundary line of Delaware and West Anselw townships in Hunterdon county; also the bill authorizing Cape May city to issue $50,000 worth of improved bonds. The proceedings in the house last night were rather tame. The expected fight over the Erie track elevation bill did not come off. The senate passed the resolution recognizing ex-Governor William A. Newell as the originator of the life saving service, while he was a member of congress in 1848.

Walcott Defeats "Bright Eyes." LONG ISLAND CITY, N. Y., March 17.—Despite the stormy weather, 2,000 enthusiasts witnessed the bouts at the Empire Athletic club house last night. The principal event was between Joe Walcott, the colored wonder, and Scott Collins, better known as "Bright Eyes," of Texas. This was a heavy slugger match throughout, and, although it was to have lasted ten rounds, Collins was compelled to throw up the sponge in the seventh, as another blow would have finished him.

To Contest a Mayor's Election. YORK, Pa., March 17.—It is announced that a number of prominent Republicans will contest the election of Charles W. Brant as mayor. He was the Democratic candidate, and received a majority of 28. The proceedings will be begun tomorrow by ex-Judge Lattimer and his law partners. Two wards which gave unusually large Democratic majorities, and the precinct of Mr. Lewis, the Republican candidate, are to be contested.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

"Kid" Madden, the once famous baseball pitcher, died at Portland, Me., yesterday, aged 28. A bill has passed the Canadian senate permitting the construction of a bridge between Windsor, Ont., and Detroit, Mich. Baltimore's municipal controversy has been taken to the courts for settlement. Meanwhile Democrats retain their offices. During a funeral at Ottumwa, Ia., Charles Morrison was killed, a child fatally hurt and others seriously injured by a runaway horse. At the North Pacific stone quarries, near Billings, Mont., two laborers were killed by a powder explosion, and three others were seriously wounded.

LOCAL INSTITUTE.

Report of the Committee in Charge of the Charity Fund. The regular session of the local Teachers' Institute was held in the High school building last evening, Superintendent M. P. Whitaker presiding. Miss Wasley conducted the singing. Miss Lafferty conducted a class in language, using arithmetic as a basis. The various kinds of sentences—declarative, interrogative and imperative—were simply illustrated, after which numbers were placed upon the blackboard and the pupils required to construct problems (interrogative sentences) and solutions (declarative sentences) using these numbers. The exercise is intended to develop imaginative and constructive ability.

Miss Ella Clouser opened the discussion. The keynote of this paper was that the teaching of language should have a place in every recitation. Misses Connelly, Fox, Lambert and Conry, followed with excellent papers on the subject of teaching language. The objects of language lessons are (1) to develop methods of expression; (2) to express correctly; (3) to reduce to writing our thoughts in clear, strong language. The discussion was very spirited and some excellent ideas concerning the teaching of language were brought to the attention of the teachers.

Miss Daniel read an article from the Pennsylvania School Journal entitled, "Sugar Plum Teaching." To make the school room entertaining it is not necessary to sugar coat every lesson, making it too easy. Miss Schoener read a very interesting article, after which the Institute listened to short addresses by School Director J. J. Price and ex-School Director R. A. Davenport.

Superintendent Whitaker closed the discussion with some excellent remarks relative to the subject. Miss Cavanaugh took the teachers through a course of physical exercise in line with the instruction given during the past month. The committee in charge of distribution of the charity fund raised by the King entertainment reported having expended $55.51 to date. This money has been expended as follows: 10 suits of clothes, 19 pairs of shoes, 44 pairs of stockings and 6 dresses.

Have You a Big Foot? If so, there is a snip at the Factory Shoe Store for you. We have about 600 pairs of men's working and dress shoes, all sty's, Nos. 9, 10 and 11, which we are selling for very low prices to make room for spring goods.

Sporting Events. Alfred W. Lawson, formerly of the Easton team, has been signed by the Pottsville club to manage that team at a salary of $100 per month. Of this amount $25 is withheld each month, and if the team finishes third or better he will receive the balance in lump at the end of the season. Philip J. Connel has been elected president of the club organization and Thomas P. Powers secretary and treasurer.

Reading would not release Mox Hill to Pottsville. Little Toman wants to play with Pottsville. A cocking main will take place at Frackville on Saturday night, between Shenandoah and Girardville birds. "Dick" Williams, of Honey Brook, wants to drive three nine-foot hoes, single hammer, in the hardest kind of rock, with any 145-pound man for a purse of $50 to $100.

Surprising Prices For Spring Capes.

A manufacturer sent us a large shipment of capes which we will close at the following prices: All wool cloth capes in black, tan, navy or brown for size two: $1.39, $1.48, $1.58. These are full length and width and splendidly made. Cloth capes richly embroidered, $3.38, worth $5.00. Velvet capes, lined with rich brocades embroidered in dozens of new styles, only $4.39, worth $7.50 each. Separate skirts, to wear with shirt waists, made of elegant black brocade, lined with rustle lining, velvet binding, only $1.98—less than cost of material; these goods and prices are the choicest offering of our great clearance sale; our early removal compels us to make quick selling prices.

The Boy Got Away. A reckless boy hit Constable Tallies Phillips on the head with a snow ball yesterday afternoon and it started a long boy hunt, but the mischievous urchin escaped the clutches of the irate officer. Phillips kept up the chase down White street across the Lehigh Valley railroad, up Market street and in and about the several entrances of Ferguson's theatre, and then lost the trail. The boy subsequently said he would not snail ball another officer, as his act had cost him one of the hardest runs of his life. Phillips is kept busy explaining the chase to clear people's minds of the impression that some desperate criminal escaped his clutches and is at large in the town.

Your Choice. Property No. 5 and 7 North Main street, either with private residence or hotel alone, Scheffly House. This proposition open for two weeks.

Want More Wages. The carpenters and others employed by H. K. Christ on the Park No. 2 breaker struck on Saturday for more wages. The carpenters expected $2.00 a day, but on Saturday were paid off for two weeks work at $1.80, and the laborers, who had expected nine dollars a week, were paid eight dollars. There were about thirty men employed. The differences have not yet been settled.

At James Goodman and Co's. Berks county potatoes, 5 bushel for $1.25. Fresh eggs 15 cents per dozen. Best pound-print creamery butter 27 cents. Country dairy round prints 20 cents. Good tub butter, 10 lb tubs, 18 cents.

Orme-Williams. Wash. Orme, hospital keeper at the almshouse and Mrs. Sarah E. Williams, were married at the parsonage of Trinity Lutheran church Pottsville, on Saturday by Rev. J. H. Umbenhen. Mr. Orme was a widower and is a brother to Hon. Seth Orme, of St. Clair, and Levi Orme, of town. The bride is a sister to Mrs. J. S. Williams, of town.

ANTHRACITE STATISTICS.

Comparison of Production and Accidents With 1894 Returns. A copy of the Colliery Engineer, Scranton, just received contains the complete anthracite statistics for 1895 and a comparison with 1894. The credit for the compilations are due Mr. Reid Halberstadt, mining engineer of Pottsville, Pa., who is the special representative of the publication for the anthracite regions.

The tables show the total production for 1895 in the eight anthracite districts of Pennsylvania to be 51,297,000 tons; shipments, 46,537,443 tons; as compared with a total production of 45,596,179 tons, and a total shipment of 42,225,454 tons in 1894. The increased production in 1895 was 5,700,821 tons. The average tonnage per life lost in 1895 was 121,544 tons, compared with 102,261 tons in 1894. The number of fatal accidents was 422, non-fatal, 1,120 in 1895, as compared with 445 fatal, and 925 non-fatal accidents in 1894. In 1895 there were 31 fatal and 104 non-fatal accidents from explosions of gas. Last year there were 143,019 persons employed in and about the mines.

The statistics furnished for the sixth district are as follows: Total production, 7,194,895; total shipments, 6,630,169; increase over 1894, 24,261; persons employed, 19,814; fatal accidents, 59; non-fatal accidents, 85; kilograms of powder used, 137,461; pounds of dynamite, 335,895; number of horses and mules, 1,299; number of steam boilers, 1,168; tonnage per life lost, 124,825; tonnage per non-fatal injury, 47,758. Accidents by explosions of gas, 25; fatal, 10. Falls of roof and coal, 50; fatal, 24. Falling down slopes, shafts, etc., 1 (fatal). Explosions of powder, blasts, etc., 19; fatal, 8. Crushed by mine wagons, machinery, etc., 29; fatal, 4. Miscellaneous, underground and on surface, 20; fatal, 9. Total fatal accidents, 59; non-fatal, 85.

Mask and Wig Club's Night. The Mask and Wig Club enjoyed its first annual banquet and sleigh ride last night. Two large sleighs conveyed the members to the Mansion House, Ringtown, and a few hours were spent in social recreation, after which a sumptuous repast, consisting of chicken and waffles, was served. As a post-prandial treat, recitations and vocal selections were rendered by members of the club. The Mask and Wig Club is one of our town's social organizations having for its objects the social and intellectual advancement of its members. Among those who attended were: Misses Mabel Straub, Maude Keiper, Ella Clouser, M. Edie Heaton, Hattie Jones, Lottie Burkhardt, Jennie Beddall, Jean Glover, Mary Pomeroy, Maude Klein, Laura Acker, J. Lewis, E. W. Shoemaker, R. L. Ogden, Dr. Clifton Robbins, David Owens, Harry M. Wasley, James Hough, Raymond Ebbhart, Herbert C. Hooks and Guy Keiper.

Meeting of True Americans. At the meeting of the National Executive Committee of the Patriotic Order of True Americans, an auxiliary to the P. O. S. of A., held at the Merchants' Hotel, Pottsville, on Saturday afternoon last, the following were present: National President, Miss Laura E. Stauffer, of Hazleton; National Assistant Vice President, B. E. Emmert, Ephrata; National Conductor, Mrs. Randolph Jones, Scranton; National Treasurer, Mrs. Lizzie E. Hess, Berwick; and National Secretary, D. E. Pennepecker, Philadelphia. Plans were considered for the extension of the organization. The new ritual will be issued at once and premiums will be offered for organization work outside of the state.

FIFTY POINTS.

Happenings Throughout the Region Chronicled for Hasty Perusal. The Delano shops are idle to-day. The Republican Club of Ashland will hold a ball on April 10th. Rev. W. W. Hartman preached his farewell sermon at Delano on Sunday.

A fire at Natalie destroyed Livingstone Yeager's home. Loss about $1,800. John Williams, Jr., wants the license of James J. Quirk, of Mahanoy City. Williams was bartender for the latter.

John Munley, of Gilberton, has accepted a position as telegraph operator on the Catawissa branch of the P. & E. R. road. Michael Bowes, assistant clerk at the Mansion House, Mahanoy City, has been sick at his home in St. Clair for several days.

The Hook and Ladder Company, of Mahanoy City, realized about $800 from their fair, $400 less than the amount required to purchase a new truck.

John J. Murphy, the well known newspaper reporter and Deputy U. S. Revenue Collector, is lying at the point of death, with pneumonia, at his home in Pottsville.

Information has been received from one of the P. & E. R. officials, that the Reading Coal & Iron Company collieries will average nine months work this year.—Ashland Local.

The commissions of Capt. Conroy and First Lieutenant Brit, of Company E, of Mahanoy City, expire on April 5. They will probably be re-elected without opposition.

John Gickings, the Lehigh Valley conductor who was injured sometime ago at Hazleton while attempting to board a train, returned from the hospital to his home in Delano.

George Perry, of Delano, laid his guitar on a seat in the Valley station Saturday evening, and an intoxicated foreigner sat upon it, mashing it to splinters. The instrument was valued at $25 and cannot be repaired.—Mahanoy City Record.

Dennis McBrearty, of Quakake, a brakeman on the Lehigh Valley railroad, died on Sunday from consumption, brought about by a case of typhoid pneumonia of one year's duration. Interment will be made at Audenried to-morrow.

William DePue and William Wiegand, employed as machinists in the P. & E. shops at Tamaqua, have both tendered their resignations. The former will hereafter be employed at Delano, and the latter at the Vulcan Iron Works of Tamaqua.

The trolley cars between Pottsville and Minersville now carry the mails between those two points. Senator Quay has presented eight acres of land to the National Masonic University, which will be built at Beaver.

Buy Keystone flour. Be sure that the name LESSIG & BAER, Ashland, Pa., is printed on every sack.

ST. PATRICK. Oh, St. Patrick was a gentleman Who came of decent people; He built a church in Dublin town, And on it put a steeple.

So success attend St. Patrick's fest, For he's a saint so clever; Oh, he gave the snakes and toads a twist And bothered them forever.

The Wicklow hills are very high, And so's the hill of Howth, sir; But there's a hill much bigger still, Much higher than them both, sir, 'Twas on the top of this high hill St. Patrick preached his sermon That drove the frogs into the boggs And banished all the varmint.

Great Cures Effected by Paine's Celery Compound.

What Scientific Research Has Accomplished.

Proved by Success Where All Else Has Failed.

There is one true specific for diseases arising from a debilitated nervous system, and that is the Paine's celery compound so generally prescribed by physicians. It is the most remarkable remedy that the scientific research of this country has produced.

succeeded again and again where everything else has failed. Sufferers from neuralgia, neuralgic headaches and rheumatism should stop their morphine, quinine and such pain-killing drugs. No cure can be hoped for from these temporizers. There is one way of getting rid forever of the causes of all this suffering; that is by taking Paine's celery compound.

In this great modern remedy the real means to health is attended to; sleep is made sound and refreshing, the appetite improves and the nerves stop complaining, because they get the nutriment that nature requires. This is the fundamental, rational way that Paine's celery compound takes to be able to cope successfully with diseases of the liver, kidney and stomach, and to guarantee a complete return of sound sleep, good digestion and a quiet, well regulated nervous system.
