NO KENTUCKY SENSATION!

The Legislature Fails to Select Blackburn's Successor.

GOVERNOR BRADLEY CENSURED!

The Senate Committee's Report Denouncing His Use of the Military as "Wholly Without Warrant of Law" Adopted by a Strict Party Vote.

FRANKFORT, Ky., March 13.—The legislature adjourned last night after a sixty days' session. The legislature failed to accomplish the two important acts it had before it—the election of a United States senator, and the enactment of legislation to save the state's financial reputation. Governor Bradley has refused to order a special session, and the state is in a bad way.

In the house a resolution was passed denouncing the lawlessness and indorsing Governor Bradley to the end.

Lieutenant Governor Worthington has issued a call for a special election April 11 to fill the vacancy in the senate caused by Senator Weissinger's death. Senators Walton and James have resigned, and the governor will order a special election, refusing to recognize their expulsion by the senate.

The senate committee appointed to "investigate" Governor Bradley and impeach him for usurpation of office and impose both fine and imprisonment reported to the senate last evening. The report finds that the militia was not placed under the control of any civil officer; members were prevented from entering the house; soldiers entered the senate chamber while in session; no application was made to the jailor or county judge for assistance; the governor made no inquiry of either house as to the situation; that the object in calling out the militia was to cast in the joint assembly two votes and elect a senator.

The committee in closing its report says: "Your committee therefore find and declare and recommend that by adoption of this report the senate of Kentucky declare that said use of military power of the commonwealth by the governor was unnecessary for the preservation of the peace or for any other lawful purpose; that said military force was not used by the governor for the purpose of preserving the peace, but was used solely for partisan political purposes; that said action of the governor was wholly without warrant of law, and was and is now a flagrant subversion of the civil authority by the military power of the commonwealth."

By a vote of 19 to 14 the report was adopted. Senator Jones denounced the statements in the report as absolutely false in point of fact, and indorsed the governor. Lieutenant Governor Worthington did likewise and denounced the report.

When the senate convened in the evening the Republicans, led by Deboe, made a fight to bring up the revenue bills for consideration and save the credit of the state, but the Democrats prevented legislation by filibustering. Senator Goebel leading the fight. An effort was made to unseat President Worthington and place Senator Goebel in the chair in order that he might prevent any consideration of the revenue bills, but it was only prevented by the Republicans agreeing to allow the senate to receive the report of the special committee, and then the Democrats were to assist the Republicans and take up the revenue bills.

After the report of the special committee was heard the Republicans again attempted to bring up the revenue bills, but were prevented by the Democratic majority, and the senate adjourned sine die, leaving the state bankrupt and absolutely without credit.

The house also adjourned sine die.

Failed for Half a Million.
PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—Execution was issued in common pleas yesterday against Robert Callaghan, owner and operator of the Angola Cotton and Woolen mills, Fifty-ninth street and Baltimore avenue, on two judgment notes for $251,856.05 and $7,833.61. The execution was issued in favor of his wife, Mrs. Elizabeth Callaghan. Mr. Callaghan's liabilities are estimated at $450,000, and his assets $550,000. The mills closed down last night, and over 400 operatives are thrown out of work as a consequence of the failure. The new tariff schedule is the cause assigned by Mr. Callaghan's counsel for the failure. He says that for some years back Callaghan has been borrowing money from his wife.

Maryland's Presidential Candidate.
ANNAPOLIS, Md., March 13.—The Maryland Prohibitionists announce that they will make an effort to have their national ticket headed by Joshua Levering, who is their candidate for governor during the recent state election. The state convention to elect delegates to the national convention at Pittsburg will be held in Baltimore April 23.

Wisconsin for McKinley.
MILWAUKEE, March 13.—The Republican state convention which met in this city at noon today will adopt a resolution indorsing McKinley for the Republican nomination for president, and declaring that he is the unanimous choice of the party in Wisconsin.

DR. BROWN CONVICTED.

Guilty of Conduct Unbecoming a Minister, but Not Adultery.

SAN FRANCISCO, March 13.—A verdict has been reached in the case of Rev. C. O. Brown, and the committee on findings has declared the minister guilty of conduct unbecoming a Christian minister. The report will not be made public until after it has been submitted to the Congregational church, which will be probably to-night. It is believed the report of the council will exonerate Brown on the charge of immorality, but will find him guilty of unministerial conduct. Upon the previous wording of the report under the ministerial conduct specification will depend Dr. Brown's future. The council may or may not fix the punishment, but even if no penalty is mentioned a severe condemnation by the council would result in Brown's loss of his church. Should this occur the pastor's friends declare they will form a new church for him in the city.

The Horse's Officers Sentenced.

PHILADELPHIA, March 13.—Judge Butler, in the United States district court, yesterday overruled the motion for a new trial in the case of the officers of the steamer Horsa, who were convicted of beginning a military expedition for the carrying of men and arms to Cuba, and passed sentence upon the prisoners. The captain, J. H. S. Wilborg, was sentenced to pay a fine of $300 and costs and to undergo an imprisonment of one year and four months in the Eastern penitentiary. The mates, Jens P. Petersen and Hans Johansen, were each sentenced to pay a fine of $100 and costs and to a year's imprisonment. The case will be taken to the supreme court.

Will Urge Lowndes for Vice President.

BALTIMORE, March 13.—The Republican state central committee will meet at the Carrollton hotel this afternoon for the purpose of fixing a date for the state convention to select presidential electors and the four delegates at large to the St. Louis convention. There is but little doubt that Senator-elect George L. Wellington will be one of these delegates, and that James A. Gary will be another. Mr. Gary has announced that he is for McKinley first, last and all the time. Mr. Wellington says the delegation will cast its vote on the first ballot for Governor Lowndes for the presidency. Then, it is understood, the delegation will split up, most of them going to the Ohio candidate. An earnest effort will be made to put Governor Lowndes on the ticket as the candidate for vice president.

Beaten and Mauled.

Jacob Erpella, a Poleander, was taken to the Pottsville jail on a capias by Constable Gillson this morning. One night several weeks ago Erpella was assaulted by three of his countrymen and beaten so bad that he carries three ugly scars on his scalp as mementoes of the affray. He prosecuted his assailants and convicted them, but was himself sentenced to pay one third of the costs, being unable to comply with the order he is obliged to serve time until the debt is liquidated. Erpella's wife and daughter escorted him to the train this morning. They could not understand why the husband and father should be punished for being almost killed.

Insurance Agent Gone Wrong.

Charles Osman, of Hazleton, agent for the Pennsylvania Building and Loan Association, of Altoona, was placed in the county jail charged with embezzlement and larceny. Osman is $400 short in his accounts. The charge of larceny was preferred because he had taken the office furniture. Fast company and gambling is the cause of Osman's downfall.

One Boy Stabs Another.

William Michael, of Mahanoy City, aged 15 years, stabbed Mike Cavanaugh, who threw a snow ball at him as he was going to school yesterday afternoon. The stabbing was done with a pocket knife, and the blade entered Cavanaugh's arm to a depth of an inch and a half. Justice Dochney held Michael under $300 bail for his appearance at court.

A MISSIONARY CONFERENCE.

Two Meetings Held in the Calvary Baptist Church.

BOARD OF OFFICERS RE-ELECTED.

Representatives From Philadelphia, Reading and New York in Attendance—A Missionary From the Latter Place Describes Her Work.

The Women's Missionary Society of the Reading Baptist Association convened yesterday afternoon in the Calvary Baptist church, on South Jardin street, with a good attendance of delegates and a number of other ladies engaged in church work present.

The delegates present were Mrs. William Barber, Mrs. Gertrude Barber, Mrs. Estelle Pettit, Mrs. Thomas F. Beyer and Mrs. M. E. Scheibner, of Reading; Mrs. A. Griffiths, Mrs. Ray, Mrs. H. Williams, Mrs. J. Williams, Mrs. Jenkins, Miss C. Lewis, Mrs. N. Long, Mrs. Wetman, Mrs. Birch and Mrs. Price, of St. Clair.

The association is divided into circles, each local organization being designated a circle. Shenandoah was not represented by a circle, but yesterday's meeting was so successful that one was organized at the close of the afternoon session.

Among the notable representatives present were Mrs. H. N. Jones, of Philadelphia, state secretary of the Women's Baptist Foreign Missionary Society, and Miss Gedallus, who is engaged in conducting missionary work among the Hebrews of New York city and is credited with having converted a number of them to the Christian faith.

An extended report on home and foreign missions was read. It made special reference to the work in China and Japan and was considered very favorable.

An election of officers of the Association for the ensuing year was then taken up and resulted in the unanimous re-election of the old board, namely: President, Mrs. M. E. Scheibner, Reading; First Vice, President, Mrs. J. W. Parker, Mahanoy City; Second Vice President, Mrs. J. Craighead, Portland; Secretary, Mrs. Thomas F. Beyer, Reading; Treasurer, Mrs. R. C. Green, Pottsville; Executive Committee, Mrs. E. Edwards, Minersville; Mrs. T. D. Griffith, St. Clair; Mrs. John Bankin, Reading; Mrs. Jonathan Fly, Easton; Mrs. J. S. Bromley, Reading.

After the singing of a hymn Miss Gedallus spoke for some time describing the method of conducting missionary work among the Hebrews of New York City. She establishes sewing schools and gains intercourse with the adults through the children who attend the schools. Her work has been arduous and very discouraging, but she has made many conversions.

State Secretary Jones closed the meeting with an interesting talk on home and foreign missions and was so successful in appealing for organization in Shenandoah for the work that a foundation was laid for a local circle.
