REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention Thursday, April 25, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg.

By order of the State Committee.

M. S. QUAY, Chairman.

W. R. ANDREWS, Secretary.

COUNTY CONVENTION CALL.

Notice is hereby given to the delegates, who attended the last Republican County Convention, that in accordance with Rule 7, of the Republican rules of Schuylkill county, a convention will be held at Centennial Hall, Pottsville, on Saturday, April 4, 1896, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of electing two delegates and two alternates for the National Convention to be held at St. Louis, Mo., on June 18th, 1896; and also at the same time and place to elect delegates and alternates to represent the several Representative Districts of this county to the State Convention to be held at Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, April 23rd, 1896, in accordance with the rules.

By the Executive Committee.

HERD W. PAYNE, Chairman.

Ashland, Pa., March 26th, 1896.

THERE still exists pretty strong evidence that Hon. James B. Kelly is still the "boss" of the Schuylkill Democracy.

SOMETHING will have to be done to protect the oyster if the story of our devouring 20,000,000 bushels annually be well founded.

A NEWSPAPER heading says "Spain Wants our Friendship." We were under the impression that Spain wanted us to give her a good kicking, but apparently we are mistaken.

ONE "favorite son" dropped out of the Presidential race in Minnesota a few days ago, and it is now announced that the boom of Gov. Bradley in Kentucky has "busted" and that the convention will not endorse him.

THE New York Mercury truthfully says "The crowd of politicians in Pennsylvania which started out so proudly a year ago to down Senator Quay, has been most completely done up. Matthew was too much for the boozing gang."

THE discoveries of gold in Alaska will attract a large number of adventurous spirits to that part of the country this summer. A large party left San Francisco a few days ago backed by a company with a capital of $10,000,000 to go into the gold mining business on a large scale.

THE Ohio Legislature has passed a law to suppress big hats at the theatre. This is very well, so far as it goes, but they failed to tack on an amendment to imprison the idiot who explains every joke to his best girl, or the red-necked individual who goes out between acts to get a "clown."

POOR Uncle Sam! In addition to the Spaniard burning his flag and threatening to do terrible things to him, because he sympathizes with the Cubans, here is the unscrupulous Turk threatening to withdraw his Minister from Washington because he has sympathized with the Armenians.

AN interesting event in Masonic circles occurred in Washington, D. C., on Tuesday evening last, when Mr. Chung, the translator and attaché of the Chinese Embassy, had the degree of Master Mason conferred upon him by Federal Lodge No. 1. This is said to be a very unusual occurrence and has attracted considerable attention.

SENATOR STEWART is the Chief of the Populist Order of Silver Knights and publishes a newspaper which he calls the "Silver Knight," and every decided Populist who is afflicted with the 10 to 1 mania strongly enough to join the order pays 50 cents a year to support the paper, and incidentally enrich this straggle old gas bag from Nevada. He poses, of course, as the friend of labor, as all Populists do, and to show his great love for the working classes his paper, which has a circulation of 60,000 and purports to be issued in Washington, is really printed in Alexandria. The reason for this is that the Typographical Union of Washington is strong enough to regulate the wages paid printers in that city, but cannot reach him in Alexandria, hence this ardent old humbug gets his workmen for less than he would in the capital city. No one will deny his right to get his work done as cheaply as he can, but it is calculated to weaken his influence as a champion of labor now that the Washington Union are taking up the matter.

AN edition-de-luxe of the "Writings and Speeches of Grover Cleveland" was published by the Cassell Co., New York and London, in 1892. The edition was restricted to 200 copies, beautifully gotten up, each copy numbered. It was a very attractive volume, indeed, and sold for $12.50. Considering the high esteem in which the Hon. G. C. was held at the time it was supposed his numerous admirers would snap up the books like hot cakes and like other rare and valuable works they would soon command a handsome premium. But, alas, they failed to sell and a short time ago the remainder of the edition, consisting of books No. 100 to 200, were put up at auction in New York and brought only $1.60 per copy, a depreciation of 98 2/3 per cent. in four years. It is surprising in view of this, that the same individual, Grover, hesitates to announce that he is a candidate for a third term.

A REMARKABLE SCENE.

Town Business People Got Great Advertising Through Competition.

One of the most remarkable exhibitions of competition in trade ever given in this town took place on Main street last night and was such a howling success that the promoters, Louis Goldin and Levi Refowich, the clothes men, are about to shake hands and bury the hatchet. The advertising they got out of the scheme will more than repay them for the trouble and expense they incurred.

Goldin and Refowich have been in competition for years and when one makes a stroke in the direction of display, the other promptly puts a counter stroke in operation. A short time ago Goldin remodelled his show windows and celebrated the completion of the work with a "grand opening" and had the Grand band in attendance. Refowich then altered his show windows and prepared for an opening. Goldin also announced an opening. Both men hired the Grand band for last night, but upon learning that Refowich was to have the first concert, Goldin cancelled the engagement and hired the Lithuanian band for Wednesday. Refowich was at the electric light station prevented Goldin from properly illuminating his plan and his opening was postponed to last night, at the same time Refowich's opening was to take place.

The first conclusion the people acquainted with the arrangements reached was that there would be a collision by the bands with each other and long before the hour fixed crowds gathered in front of the stores, which are located opposite each other. Fortunately there was no disturbance. The police were on hand and managed to keep passages clear on the pavements. At 7:40 the Lithuanian band appeared and marched up Main street, on the west side, past Refowich's store. A small boy headed the procession, carrying a banner announcing the concert at Goldin's. A few minutes later the Grand band left its headquarters and followed in the wake of the Lithuanian band, old Peter Mebermont, a short, very stout and jolly-faced son of the Green Isle, strutting in the rear under a banner announcing Refowich's opening. The two bands marched up the west side of Main street to Coal. There the boys made an attack on Refowich's banner with mud balls. Mebermont stuck to his standard until two mud balls struck him on the head. Then he dropped the banner and fled. The banner was carried back to Refowich's in a dilapidated condition by some boys who threw it from side to side on the street en route to the store.

From Coal street the two bands marched down Main street on the east side, both playing as hard as lungs and fingers would permit. The Lithuanian band was some distance ahead of the other and was in line in front of Goldin's store when the Grand band reached Centre street. The latter was not disposed to create a collision and on reaching the corner crossed Main street and marched down past Refowich's store. This did not satisfy Refowich, however. He insisted that the band lengthen its parade and his orders were obeyed. Here is where the most ludicrous feature of the evening presented itself. The Grand band marched down Main street to Oak, crossed over to the east side of Main, and then up past Goldin's store. The Lithuanian band was arranged in open order under Goldin's awning, playing a selection under the leadership of Prof. Zeitz, when the Grand band passed between the ranks playing a march to the full capacity of all instruments. This point was looked for with great apprehension by the immense throng of spectators, but it passed off without the slightest jar. Each band held on to its own tune, neither waving or dropping a note, and the Grand band passed around to Refowich's store in the same order as it would if no other band had been on the street. Meanwhile Prof. Zeitz conducted his band to the end of the selection and when the last note sounded the band retired to Goldin's store, where the concert was continued until about 10 o'clock. The Grand band played two selections in front of Refowich's store and then went inside, where the concert was kept up with brief intermissions until 9 o'clock. During the night Refowich distributed cigars to the visitors. Goldin had a barrel of beer on tap. It would take two columns to detail the various other methods to which the clothiers resorted to excel each other during the evening, but one should not be overlooked. Goldin placed four small boys in front of his store with sticks of red fire in their hands. When Goldin's luck was turned the boys deserted to Refowich's camp. Col. Scheffey entered into the spirit of the affair by burning green lights in front of his restaurant.

INCOME TAX FOR FRANCE.

But the Deputies Refuse to Indorse the Government's Scheme.

PARIS, March 27.—The chamber of deputies, by a vote of 290 to 270, has voted for the government's proposal of the principle of an income tax, but has refused the details of the scheme to a committee. The action is in the nature of a compromise, indorsing the principle of an income tax, but throwing aside the details of the government's scheme.

According to this scheme incomes of less than 2,000 francs ($500) were to be exempted, and 2,500 francs were to be deducted from the assessment of all taxable incomes. Up to 5,000 francs the rate of the tax was fixed at 1 per cent.; between 5,000 francs and 10,000 francs, 2 per cent.; between 10,000 francs and 20,000 francs, 3 per cent.; between 20,000 francs and 30,000 francs, 4 per cent.; above 30,000 francs, 5 per cent. These progressive rates for the tax were to apply only to the excess of incomes over the sum coming under the next lower rate; that is to say, a millionaire would have his income divided into five heads, each taxed at a different rate. The abolition of the present house tax, by which it was calculated that 6,000,000 persons would escape direct taxation, was also involved in the scheme, while it was estimated that the new tax law would apply to 1,500,000 people, two-thirds of whom would pay less than they have been paying under the house tax.

When you are taken sick with pain in your stomach or chest, nausea, vomiting, headache, dizziness, nervousness, neuritis, faintness, exhaustion, mental depression, weakness, languor, loss of appetite and other similar symptoms, you are infected with the poisons of indigestion and food.

Your stomach needs help. A dose, spent for a simple bottle of the Shaker Digestive Cordial will show you whether or not to expect help from that source. If you really are a dyspeptic, it will relieve you after a few doses. If it does, keep on till you are cured. If not, don't take any more, your gut dyspeptic.

Indigestion or dyspepsia is a dreadful disorder, all the more that so few people believe in its dangerousness. That is because they don't die of indigestion, but of rheumatism, consumption, pneumonia, and other diseases which they would never have "caught" if their bodies hadn't been starved and weakened with indigestion.

Shaker Digestive Cordial acts on the food in your stomach and helps the digestive juices to dissolve it. In this way it aids your stomach to do its work without effort and enables you to live for your whole body.

At druggists. Ten cents for a trial bottle. Write to The Shakers, 30 Reade street, New York, for an interesting book.

Ministers Should Use Dr. Miles' Heart Cure.

THERE IS NO PROFESSION, whose labors so severely tax the nervous system, as that of the ministry. The derangement of the nerve centers of the brain by over work, frequently brings on attacks of heart trouble, and nervous prostration.

Rev. J. P. Kester, M. D., Pastor U. B. church, London Mills, Ills., himself a physician, writes Feb. 26, 1895: "Heart affection and nervous prostration had become so serious last fall that a little over work in the pulpit would so completely prostrate me that it seemed certain I must relinquish the work of the ministry entirely. Heart palpitation became so bad that my auditors would ask me if I did not have heart disease. Last November I commenced taking Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure alternately with Dr. Miles' Nerve and derived the greatest possible benefit. I have just closed revival work of 10 weeks, preaching nearly every night and twice on the Sabbath. I can speak for hours without suffering as I formerly did. Hard working ministers should keep Dr. Miles' grand remedies on hand."

Dr. Miles' Heart Cure is sold on guarantee, first bottle will benefit or money refunded.
