SATURDAY, MARCH 25, 1906.

REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican caucus of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention at Harrisburg, Pa., on Saturday, April 28, 1906, at 10 o'clock a. m., in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representatives-at-large in Congress and thirty-two candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

By order of the State Committee. M. S. QUAY, Chairman. J. H. ANDREWS, Secretaries.

COUNTY CONVENTION CALL.

Notice is hereby given to the delegates who attended the last Republican County Convention that in accordance with Rule 7, of the Republican rules of Schuylkill county, a convention will be held at Centennial Hall, Pottsville, on Saturday, April 4, 1906, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of electing two delegates and two alternates for the National Convention to be held at St. Louis, Mo., on June 16th, 1906; and also at the same time and place to elect delegates and alternates to represent the several Representative districts of this county to the State Convention to be held at Harrisburg, Pa., on Wednesday, April 26th, 1906, in accordance with the rules.

By the Executive Committee. RUD W. PAVNE, Chairman. Ashland, Pa., March 25th, 1906. 3-25-11

HAZLETON is complaining of the tramp nuisance. This is not the only thing that city is infested with.

It was not the longest pole this time, but a certain stout Reed that knocked the persimmons at the Republican state convention in Texas.

EIGHT criminals have been pardoned by the State Board of Pardons. This is a sad commentary upon justice. There is either something wrong with our jury system or the Board of Pardons.

The action of the St. Clair Council in threatening to annul the ordinance granting the right of way through the town to the electric railway, has brought the two companies to terms. The cars were running today.

STATE SECRETARY REEDER has refused to grant charters to new gas companies at Allentown, Lancaster and Williamsport. There are twenty-five other new companies seeking charters that will be given a hearing on April 28th.

THE KANSAS CITY Journal rises to remark that the Republican party is not troubling itself about campaign material this year. "In fact, it has an embarrassment of riches in that line. The Democratic record of the last three years is campaign material enough to supply the demand for a generation."

THE State Board of Health has decided to give all small towns the same protection against the spread of diphtheria as is accorded most of the large cities of the Commonwealth. For a merely nominal fee, payable by the local Boards of Health, sterile swabs in tubes will be supplied physicians for the purpose of determining by bacteriological examination the presence of diphtheria germs, and it is urged as a very important sanitary measure that all Boards of Health should avail themselves of this opportunity.

YESTERDAY was a proud day for Thomas Brackett Reed. The Republicans of Massachusetts launched his presidential canvass under most favorable circumstances. The convention was unanimous in its choice—a distinction no Republican candidate for the presidency before had. By many Republicans Mr. Reed is regarded as embodying a more brilliant intellect, sounder judgment, keener political perception and more elements of statesmanship than any of his opponents for the Presidential nomination. The prevalence of such opinions will tend to make him a strong candidate at St. Louis.

YOUR OWN TOWN FIRST. We may honestly differ in matters of politics, religion and medicine, says an exchange, but there is no room for difference of opinion in the matter of the plain duty of every citizen to stand by home institutions.

Patronize home industries, should be the motto emblazoned on every blank space in the town until it becomes an ingrained habit that needs no urging to enforce. Let everybody with a dollar to spend remember that every dollar spent at home helps to swell the volume of currency in the local channels of trade, and every interest in the city and every dweller in it is benefited by the impetus given to local trade by plenty of money freely circulated.

One dollar in the course of a day pays many dollars of debt, and every dollar taken from the trade of your town and sent to swell the currency of another is a direct blow to home interest. The prosperity of each is bound up in the prosperity of all, and no individual can escape his share of responsibility for the result. To criticize the method of those who are trying to advance home interests is not as conducive to good as to take off one's own coat and put a shoulder to the wheel and push together.

Stand by home industries, patronize home merchants and manufacturers and be willing that all should receive a fair profit for their labor. Society is a partnership of interests in which all are entitled to receive a share of the profits, and in advancing the common welfare, the day laborer and the money lender are alike under obligations to do their share, according to their resources.

The Feast of a Passover. This evening the feast of the Passover will commence and continue for eight days. This feast will be kept by our Jewish citizens with appropriate religious observances commemorating the last of the ten plagues of Egypt, when the first-born of the Egyptians perished and also of the escape of the Israelites from bondage. Every Jew will have on this occasion upon his table during the festival a piece of the Sacrificial Lamb "Matzers" or unleavened bread and bitter herbs, that is the green tops of horseradish or parsley. The unleavened bread is eaten in remembrance of the hasty manner in which the Jews made their escape out of Egypt, as they had not time to put yeast in the bread, therefore they were compelled to bake it without. The bitter herbs are eaten in remembrance of the sufferings endured by the Israelites during their time of bondage, and is considered one of the most important periods in Jewish history.

Political Plums. Congressman Brimm is still in the fight for national delegate, so says his law partner, George W. Dyson.

Rev. Charles T. Steck, of Shamokin, has decided to become a candidate for Congress on the Democratic ticket.

Hon. James B. Reilly, since his appointment as U. S. Marshall, is being besieged by applicants for the deputyships. Shenandoah has at least two of the latter.

It is hinted—and it comes from reliable source—that Senator Coyle will be a candidate for national delegate.

James Williams, of town, is a full-fledged candidate for state delegate and he has assurances of success "Jimmy," as he is familiarly called, would make an excellent representative from this district. He is a faithful worker for the party, and the fact that he was turned down once before for the position makes his claim the stronger.

Mysterious Suicide in New York. NEW YORK, March 25.—A handsome woman committed suicide by shooting herself in the head last night near the Seventy-second street entrance to Central Park. Her clothing was of exceptional richness, and the police believe that the woman's position in society was above the commonplace. She appeared to be 35 years old, and her features were strongly French. Beside the body was a white handkerchief, with a mark which looked like an initial "E." Beyond that there was nothing to lead to her identity.

Boers and Matabeles. LONDON, March 25.—A Cape Town dispatch to The Times says: "There are the wildest rumors at Johannesburg that the Boers have fomented the Matabele uprising. Possibly one cause of the disturbance is the regulations recently enforced in Rhodesia to stamp out the rinderpest, the Kaffirs being greatly attached to their cattle. It is stated that the disturbers are not true Matabeles, but are Amatoll and Mashonas, from whom Dr. Jameson has predicted trouble."

A New Evangelistic Movement. NEW YORK, March 25.—William Phillips Hall, president of the Hall Singal company and a director in several large corporations, has organized a new evangelistic movement. It will be known as the American League of the Grand Army of the Cross, and its leaders will bear military titles. It is modeled on the lines of the Salvation Army. No uniform will be adopted. Its object is "aggressive evangelism among the people."

Nerves and Blood. Are inseparably connected. The former depend simply, solely, solidly upon the latter. If it is pure they are properly fed and there is no "nervousness." Our Indians. "Our Indians" is the title of a strong article by Hon. Hoke Smith, Secretary of the Interior, published in The Youth's Companion of March 26. Perhaps there is no national theme which arouses more quickly the sympathies of all fair-minded Americans. The Indian who once had complete liberty to hunt and occupy this fair land has found the United States Government a master whom he cannot understand. This article is one of a series by American statesmen, appearing in The Companion, including articles by Hon. Thomas H. Reed, Hon. H. A. Herbert, Secretary of the Navy, and Hon. J. Sterling Morton, Secretary of Agriculture.

The Business Outlook. NEW YORK, March 25.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s weekly review of trade says: "No important change has occurred in the general condition of business during the week, and it trades in some respects look worse in other respects they look better. Some failures of magnitude have occurred which have caused much apprehension and unwillingness to lend among bankers, and there have been somewhat less favorable features in the dry goods market, but in iron and steel conditions are slightly and in boots and shoes considerably more hopeful."
