SECRETARY REEDER has decided that conmissions cannot be issued to L. B. Camden, Samuel E. Raesly and John H. Davis, of Bangor, who were elected Justices of the Pence at the February election. The reason assigned is that the borough is only entitled to two Justices, to be elected by the concurrent votes of each ward. W. R. Grubb holds over and the Governor will appoint the second Justice.

Tilk windows of business places are beautifully decorated with Easter eggs, cards and flowers and present a neat appearance. The Lenten seesen will have ended with Sunday next. Most of the churches have made extensive preparations for the joyous services. Those who have been observing the requirements of the season will no doubt feel better, religiously and physically.

WITH nations like Spain and Turkey fairly sizzling with helpless rage at the United ! State, we may rightfully claim to have conclusive evidence that the great republic is and civilization. If the Spaniard and the Turk professed to love this country it would be in order for Uncle Sam to look around and see wherein his moral principles were unsound.

A NEW religious organization has made its appearance in the shape of the American League of the Grand Army of the Cross, As its name implies, the league is of a military character, and its object the evangelization of America. Unlike the Salvation Army, this organization discards the military uniform, but in the prosecution of its mission it will appeal to the masses by popular methods of singing and exhortation

Mr. Leach's services to the Republican party have been of such a conspicuous nature and characterized by such brilliant successes that there is no doubt as to the result should be be chosen to conduct the battle in 1806. It would also be a proper recognition of the hard work done by him for the party, not only in the state but also in national politics, at critical times. His systematic pains taking business methods of conducting campaigns have tended greatly to make Penusylvania the banner Republican state it is.

A GAME OF CHANCE.

As an oldect lesson in politics, says the New York Advertiser, the widely different plans of campaign pursoed by the half dozen leading aspirants for the St. Louis nomination a highly interesting study. Major McKinley represents the latter-day American 'hustle" in its highest form of development; Governor Morton accepts with dignity the indorsement of his own state and permits his friends and advisers to go into others where there are no home caudidates with a view to the making of combinations when the proper time comes; Speaker Reed, content to New England do what it may for him, has been busy for the past four months haudling an unwieldly Republican analority in the lower house of Congress, preventing it from making mistakes and really strengthening the party and the opposing candidates as much as, if not more than, himself; Senator Quay has done little else than to place him self in a position where he can cut a little more ice than usual in the National Convention; Scuator Collom put out a lightning rod. early and is loading it steadily in positionwhile the Hon William Boyd Allison is Opposite Reading ratiroad station.

A POISONED LIVER.

WASHINGTON, March 31,-Justice Brown Don't Keep Poison in Your Body Longer Than You Have To.

If your stomach poisons your liver the consequences may be serious.

What poisons arise in your stomach come from undigested food which has decomposed there. They are abserbed by your blood and go to your liver, where they paralyze its functions and make you billons.

Finally they go into the blood again and are carried all over the body, disordering your different organs, and parhaps making your different organs, and parhaps making your dispersive for many diseases which are not always known for what they are.

This is the origin of many diseases which are not always known for what they are.

The poisons of undigested food can only be got rid of by the use of a purifying, strengthening, digestive tonic, like the Shaker Digestive Cordial.

A few doses of this wonderful cordial will soon clear away all undigested, formeating, palaconus substances, restore your appetite, and you to digest your food, purify your liver and blood of all dangerous poisons, and restores you to perfect health.

It will cure billiousness, indigestion, names, headache, dizziness, mental depression, wontrees, fever, fatulence, constitution, loss of appetite, bad taste in mouth, stomachache, anaemia, recumilism, dec, where other medicines will barely give relief.

of Mrs. Stone.

Aknov. O., March R.—Auson B. Strong was arrested restorday at Ravenna, Portago county, and charged with the nurrier of Mrs. Alvin N. Stone at Tallmadge of Saturday night. The evidence on which the charge is based is largely circumstan-tial. Thirmen years ago Strong was sent to the penitentiary for horse stealing, his conviction being secured by the testimony of Stone. Several years later, after his release from peison, he was arrested again for the same crime, and again, convicted for the same crime, and again convicted on the testimony of Stene. He gained his liberty the second time about three weeks ago, and was at once suspected of the mur-der of Stone and his wife.

When taken into custody Strong said he was at the home of his sister in Ra-venna all of Saturday night, and that he had gone to church Sunday morning. A search of the sister's house, however, resulted in the discovery of a suit of clothes and an overcost which had been placed by a stove to dry. There were no blood stains on the clothing, but Strong's sister said she had washed the garments yesterday. railroad ticket from Ravenna to Kent, the scene of Saturday night's tragedy.

Strong was brought here at 6 o'clock last evening and placed in jail. A big crowd assembled, and, while there was no disorder. Mayor Harper decided to prevent an outbreak by ordering a militia company to assemble at its armory and await developments.

The Angeliers on Trial for Murder. BALTIMORE, March 31.—Frank and Mattie Angelier, busband and wife, were put upon trial in the criminal court here terday, charged with murder in the first degree in having killed Charles Parker, a traveling salesman from Massachusetts. The crime occurred on Jan. 11 in the cigar store and pool room kept by the couple on Charles street in this city. Parker had been in the habit of visiting the place frequently, and Angelier accused his wife of undue intimacy with the salesman. The women declares she did the shooting in defense of her honor, and that her husband had no share in it. The police claim to have secured evidence implicating both husband and wife to so great a degree as to make a conviction of murder in the first degree probable.
