REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

To the Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in special convention Thursday, April 2, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m. in the opera house, city of Harrisburg.

By order of the State Committee.

COUNTY CONVENTION CALL.

Notice is hereby given to the delegates, who attended the last Republican County Convention that in accordance with Rule 7, of the Republican rules of Schuylkill county, a convention will be held at Central Hall, Pottsville, on Saturday, April 4, 1896, at 10 a. m.

By the Executive Committee.

THE impression prevails that this is a Republican year in Schuylkill county.

CHRIS. MAHER BOW realizes that he doesn't even control Allegheny county, politically speaking. Chris' star appears to be on the wane.

It is possible that Gen. Harrison expects to be drafted into the service at St. Louis. He ought to be exempt for one year under the Mosaic law.

MARK TWAIN is going to Africa this month to deliver his humorous lectures. If he will take with him the Republican triumvir of Schuylkill county, all will be forgiven.

WHILE the managers of the other candidates for the Presidential nomination are kept busy preparing tables, our own Matthew isn't saying a word but awaiting developments.

A COLORADO MAN left $50,000 to his dog and yet the dog is not a whit stunk up over it. He is the same doggy as of yore, and this is where he differs from some Shenandoah people.

THE Supreme Court of Massachusetts has decided that a school teacher has no right to require a scholar to tell tales on a companion. Such a decision is certainly in the interest of honor and morality, whatever the teachers who try to promote treachery among their pupils may think about it.

GENERAL HARRISON arrived in New York to-day to make preparations for his wedding with Miss Mary Dimmick, which important event will take place on Monday. General Tracy, a member of the ex-President's Cabinet, will be the best man, while the other members of his Cabinet will witness the ceremony.

THE Pennsylvania Railroad Company will complete the first half century of its actual existence on the 13th inst., and arrangements are in progress to celebrate the occasion in a fitting manner. The Pennsylvania Railroad Company is the greatest corporation of its kind in the country, and sets the pace for the railroad world.

THE bill introduced in the Ohio Legislature by Senator Garfield to prevent the corrupt use of money in elections, primary as well as regular, is now a law. Candidates are limited to an expenditure, for personal expenses only, of not more than $500, and of $100 if but 5000 votes are concerned. The law will at least enable candidates to gracefully ignore some of the demands made upon them.

ONE of the shrewdest political observers to-day is Joseph H. Manley, and he predicts that McKinley will be defeated for the Republican presidential nomination. He bases his assertion upon the belief that the "present situation is precisely as it was twenty years ago, when, three months before the convention met at Cincinnati," it seemed to be absolutely certain that the late James G. Blaine would be nominated. It looks very much like history will repeat itself. Nevertheless, no candidate has yet received one-half of the 455 votes necessary to a choice.

SEVERAL things do happen in Jersey. As the worshippers were coming out of a Baptist church in New Brunswick Sunday night, a possum darted into the crowd, creating as much consternation among the ladies as a good sized rat would have done, but the "possum" was evidently a gallant one, he did not molest the ladies but buried his teeth in the leg of a young man in the crowd. The report of the affair states, and the conjunction seems a most appropriate one, that a colored man caught the "possum" and the excitement subsided.

THE New Hampshire Republicans held their state convention yesterday, and endorsed Thomas Brackett Reed for President as first choice and William McKinley as a second favorite. The platform says: "We recognize, as most conscientious among such candidates, New England's noble and illustrious son, the Hon. Thomas B. Reed, of Maine, and that pure and able statesman and champion of protection, the Hon. William McKinley of Ohio. We will give the electoral vote of New Hampshire to any nominee who worthily represents the party, but we prefer one of these, because either is in himself a platform."

Trickett's Arnica salve. The best salve in the world for cuts, bruises, sores, ulcers, salt rheum, fever sores, letter, chapped hands, chilblains, corns, and all skin eruptions, and positively cures piles, or no pay required. Political Paragraphs. Ashland has three candidates seeking the Democratic nomination for the Legislature. There is some quiet who pulling being done in Shenandoah on both sides of the fence.

The Miners' Journal were to stop, to McKinley, its so-called Republican contemporary in that town would be for the other fellow.

There are one or two aspirants for national delegate who are digging their political grave, by their candidacy for the position.

Hon. James B. Reilly took the oath of office yesterday and will enter upon his duties as United States Marshal on Saturday. There is little talk of state delegates. Shenandoah's candidate will probably favor opposition. James Williams deserves the honor.

Hon. Charles N. Brumm arrived home from Washington last night, and will devote his time to fixing up his fences for national delegates.

The delegation from town to the county convention on Saturday will vote unanimously, with probably one exception, for national delegates.

Chairman Andrews says the Senate Investigating committee will continue the investigation. They will hold their next meeting in May.

What the smothered-faced editor of the Evening Chronicle doesn't know about the Republican situation would fill a large volume. He will learn better when he grows older.

Whether or not Brumm is elected national delegate Saturday, he will not represent this county at Washington again. The Republicans of Schuylkill have little regard for a "hoggish" statesman.

The result of the national delegate fight in Allegheny county is a stand off between the Quay and Magee factions—each securing two, with the others to be contested in the convention. It is probable the Quay delegates will be seated.

Hanniton Diston and David H. Lane, two prominent leaders of the Combine in Philadelphia, have come out in favor of Senator Quay for the Presidency "first, last and all the time." This insures the Junior Senator eight out of the ten delegates from Philadelphia in his favor.

Dear Brumm: Keep hands off. What will bring a national delegate avail you if you lose your Congressional hold? Dear Charlie, don't be too greedy! Let some other fellow have a chance. You're lame and slower may be great, dear Brumm, but such things are oftentimes obliterated in a night. Get off the band wagon, Mr. Brumm, and wait for your own circus; it will be along one of these days and you may be short on performers.—Mahanoy City American.

Grip-Golds-Headache. Why suffer with Coughs, Colds and La Grippe when Laxative Bromo Quinine will cure you in one day. Put up in tablets convenient for taking. Guaranteed to cure, or money refunded. Price, 25 cents. For sale by Kirilin's Pharmacy.

MURDERER RECH'S CONFESSION.

CORNER'S JURY Holds Him Responsible for the Death of His Wife.

MAY'S LANDING, N. J., April 1.—The coroner's jury yesterday afternoon rendered a verdict finding John Rech, now held in Philadelphia awaiting requisition, responsible for the death of his wife, Elizabeth. This was the direct result of the production by Prosecuting Attorney Perry of the letter written by Rech in German to his attorney, Carroll R. Williams. After a number of witnesses had been examined the letter was offered and translated. The inside bore no date, but the envelope was stamped Philadelphia, March 28, Station V, and had been delivered March 29. The contents read as follows:

"MR. WILLIAMS: On Sunday morning I heard something in the lower part of my house, and there was Bossie ready to go away. That made me so mad that I strangled her, and after that I did not know what I should do, and then I buried her in the field. The little one is in 514 Callowhill street in board. I am miserable. His board is paid for two weeks. You attend to him. JOHN RECH."

The taking of testimony occupied the afternoon. The first witness was "Spiky" Jones, who discovered Mrs. Rech's body and to whom Rech attempted to divert suspicion. He recited in detail his suspicions and his search of the premises. He felt that the woman had been foully dealt with, because of Rech's frequent threats to kill her. He said he was not alone in his suspicions, as neighbors had heard similar rumors. He took a particular interest in the woman because she had once befriended him.

Emil Hoff, at whose house Rech spent the night after he is alleged to have killed his wife, told of Rech's agitation when he came to his home to ask him to care for the baby. Rech told Hoff a story of his wife having deserted him. He did not see Rech again until Thursday, after the murder, when he called and took the baby away.

Additional minor testimony was produced and then the letter was read, after which the jury promptly rendered the verdict.

The body of Mrs. Rech was taken to Philadelphia today for burial.

They Object to Deportation.

NEW YORK, April 1.—On Ellis Island yesterday 250 men, mostly Italians, held for deportation, made two desperate attempts to escape from their place of imprisonment, and but for the courage and alertness of the few keepers and inspectors who had them in charge riot and bloodshed might have resulted. During the excitement savage blows were struck at the officials, and more than one knife was drawn in the crowd, but after lively fighting the little knot of breathless officers had the crowd subdued.

A Mother's Suicidal Anguish.

GAITHERSBURG, Md., April 1.—Mrs. James Jackson made a desperate attempt to end her life in an upper room of her residence here Monday evening. She fired six shots from a revolver and then cut her throat with a razor. She is still alive, and hopes are entertained for her recovery. The act was evidently the result of grief over the recent death of a grown daughter.

THE WORK OF CONGRESS.

Sundry Civil Appropriation Bill Being Pushed in the House.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—The house spent yesterday considering the sundry civil bill and fair progress was made. A number of amendments were adopted. A determined effort was made by some of the southern representatives to strike from the bill the appropriation of $75,000 for the pay of internal revenue informers, which is particularly obnoxious to people in the "moonshine" districts, but it was successful.

Mr. Adams, of Pennsylvania, undertook to correct some of the false reports as to the alleged compact between certain free silver Republicans and some Philadelphia manufacturers. In that connection he referred to the resolutions adopted Monday night by the Manufacturers' club, of Philadelphia.

Mr. Hartman, of Montana, and other free silver Republicans in reply charged that these had been persistently and maliciously represented by the "gold bug" press. The conference, they asserted, had not been of their seeking.

In the senate the expected debate on the resolution for a senate inquiry into recent bond issues did not occur, as Mr. Puffer gave notice that he would defer his motion to proceed with the subject until today.

The postoffice appropriation bill, carrying $105,000, was considered in part, but not completed. A sharp debate on mail subsidies arose, Mr. Vails opposing an extension of the subsidy system, while Senators Perkins and White, of California, upheld them. Senator George's speech in opposition to Mr. Dupont's claim to a seat occupied most of the day, and was not completed.

Too Much Identification.

CHICAGO, April 1.—The body of the man found in a box sold at auction in this city last week has been identified too much, and there are signs of trouble before the matter is finally adjusted. The body has been positively identified as that of Oliver Pike, of Ohio, and it has been positively identified as Prosper Chazal, of France.

The coroner's jury, however, has decided in favor of the Ohio man. Friends of Chazal declare that they will secure possession of the body even if they have to call on the republic of France to protect them in their rights.

Colonel Cockerill Decorated.

SAN FRANCISCO, April 1.—Colonel John A. Cockerill, the American journalist, has been the recipient of a signal honor at the hands of the emperor of Japan, who has bestowed on him the decorations of the Order of the Treasury for the just reports he has given in the United States of the condition of Japan, combined with his advice, on several occasions, on state and political matters. It is the only instance where such an honor has been bestowed on a newspaper man.

March Went Out with a Roar.

ST. PAUL, April 1.—The month of March went out with a roar last night that was heard and felt all over the northwest. Specialists indicate that the weather all over the state was like that experienced in this immediate vicinity, which was most peculiar. Hard little pellets of snow were driven before a howling gale and heavy thunder and lightning accompanied the blizzard. All street car traffic was suspended at West Superior on account of the blizzard, and in that city snow drifts six feet high are reported. At Duluth, Sauk Rapids and St. Cloud two feet of snow is on the ground. South Dakota and Nebraska points send similar reports.

During the winter of 1893, F. M. Martin, of Long Beach, West Va., contracted a severe cold which left him with a cough. In speaking of how he cured it he says: "I used several kinds of cough syrup but found no relief until I bought a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, which relieved me almost instantly, and in a short time brought about a complete cure." When troubled with a cough or cold use this remedy and you will not find it necessary to try several kinds before you get relief. It has been in the market for over twenty years and constantly grows in favor and popularity. For sale at 25 and 50 cents per bottle by Grubler Bros., druggists.

Callum's District for McKinley.

DECATUR, Ill., April 1.—Senator Shelby M. Callum's home congressional district, the Seventeenth, endorsed McKinley for president yesterday. Joshua Humphrey, McKinley's principal worker, was made a delegate, and Hugh Cress, known until recently as a Callum man, was also made delegate, but this was done only after both had declared that they would observe their instructions.

Will Accept the Checks.

BAY CITY, Mich., April 1.—The big strike at Wheeler & Co.'s ship yard, which started last Saturday and ended in a lock-out, ended yesterday by the men returning to work just where they left off. The company decided to pay off in checks and the men wanted cash. The men, however, decided to accept checks, having found they pass as currency.

It will be an agreeable surprise to persons subject to attacks of bilious colic to learn that prompt relief may be had by taking Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. In many instances the attack may be prevented by taking this remedy as soon as the first symptoms of the disease appear. 25 and 50 cent bottles for sale by Grubler Bros., druggists.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Prince Hohenzollern, the German chancellor, yesterday celebrated his seventieth birthday.

New Hampshire's Republican convention declared for both Reed and McKinley, but elected Reed delegates to St. Louis.

Charles Holt and child, and John Jenkins and two children, were drowned in a swollen stream in Russell county, Va. last night.

A cloud-burst in Clay county, Ky., laid waste a five mile strip on Little Sexton creek. Wade Mader's wife and daughter were drowned. Other fatalities probable.

There are 4,000 people destitute and suffering at Phenix City, Ala., caused by a strike against operation of mines at the Eagle and Phenix mills in Columbus, Ga.

An unknown negro who snatched a pocketbook from a woman in a Chicago street car was chased by a crowd. Seizing capture inevitable, he cut his throat, dying instantly.

THE MATABELE UPRISING.

Failure of the British Forces to Subdue the Warring Blacks.

CAPE TOWN, April 1.—The news from the seat of the outbreak in Matabelle increases in gravity, and details are coming to hand of the failure of the forces dispatched against the natives to gain any substantial advantage over them. The rebellion is spreading, and the inadequacy of the present force and equipment to quell it is admitted.

It is learned that five white men, including Messrs. Cass, Mandley and Barford, have been murdered at Layati, forty miles northwest of Bulawayo. A patrol force which was sent to the relief of Layati found that the place was too hot to hold and they were compelled to retreat.

F. G. Solous, the great hunter and campaigner, whose fur was attacked last night, and who made a raid in the Matopos hills, has also retired from the hills. The Matabelle are assembled there in large force and are well victualled. Solous did not retire without trying the mettle of the black men, and in his fight two of his men were wounded, while several of the Matabelle were killed.

The force dispatched against the blacks in the Matopos hills report that it is not strong enough to dislodge them from their positions, and asks for reinforcements to accomplish that purpose.

It is asserted on reliable authority that the Transvaal government is about to offer England the assistance of the burgher forces to crush the Matabelle uprising.

Benets of Burden for Their Dual Master.

WOODSTOCK, England, April 1.—This pretty little town was in a state of holiday parade yesterday to give a hearty welcome to the Duke of Marlborough and his bride, formerly Miss Consuelo Vanderbilt, of New York. The horses were taken from their carriage, ropes were attached, and the tenants drew the young couple to the palace, escorted by the yeomanry. On all sides among the tenantry are heard expressions of good will for the young duchess, and everything in the neighborhood seems to look upon the arrival of the pair as the dawning of good times for Blenheim.

Rheumatism Cured in a Day.

"Mystic Cure" for Rheumatism and Neuralgia radically cures in 1 to 3 days. Its action upon the system is remarkable and mysterious. It removes at once the cause and the disease immediately disappears. The first dose greatly benefits; 75 cents. Sold by C. H. Hagenbach, Druggist, Shenandoah.

For Economical Sleeping Cars.

WASHINGTON, April 1.—In the house Mr. Moody, of Massachusetts, introduced a bill by request requiring railroads to accommodate the poor class of passengers with sleeping berths as good and as cheap as the seats available in common cars. The price of a night's rest is not to be over fifty cents per passenger, "so that the working class of people shall be recognized properly on night trains, and have the privilege of lying down by paying for simple economical accommodations at an appropriate price."

Electric Bitters.

Electric Bitters is a medicine suited for any season, but perhaps more generally needed in the spring, when the languid exhausted feeling prevails, when the liver is torpid and sluggish and the need of a tonic and alterative is felt. A prompt use of this medicine has often averted long and perhaps fatal bilious fevers. No medicine will act more surely in counteracting and freeing the system from the malarial poison. Headache, Indigestion, Constipation, Dizziness yield to Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at A. Waseley's drug store.

Coming Event.

April 16.—Musical and dramatic entertainment by the Guilds of the All Saints' church in Ferguson's theatre.

April 10.—Grand phantom dance under the auspices of the Clover Club of Shenandoah at Robbins' opera house.

Relief in Six Hours.

Distressing kidney and bladder diseases relieved in six hours by the "New Great South American Kidney Cure." This new remedy is a great surprise on account of its exceeding promptness in relieving pain in the bladder, kidneys, back and every part of the urinary passages in male or female. It relieves retention of water and pain in passing it almost immediately. If you want quick relief and cure this is your remedy. Electric Bitters. Only fifty cents per bottle at A. Waseley's pharmacy, 107 South Main street.

A Death Mystery at Greensburg, Pa.

GREENSBURG, Pa., April 1.—Benjamin McByrre, of Harrison City, died under mysterious circumstances Monday night. He attended a festival held by the ladies of the M. E. church, near his home, last Friday evening, and during the night was taken ill. After consulting a physician he got better, and attended the festival Saturday night, and on Sunday afternoon was taken ill again, and died, it is thought, from poisoning. Several others who attended the festival have been ill. It is thought something eaten at the festival may have been of a poisonous nature.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dimondale, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at River Junction she was brought down with pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little interruption and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at A. Waseley's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

The Steamer Commodore Seized.

CHARLESTON, S. C., April 1.—The collector of the port yesterday seized the steamer Commodore, which recently arrived here after having, it is alleged, discharged a number of men and a cargo of arms and ammunition on the coast of Cuba. A few days ago several of the crew became dissatisfied with the wages paid them for a trip, and made a report to the collector. Their charges were investigated, and the seizure is the result of the investigation.

A Railroad Official's Experience.

ME. EDWARD LEMMONS, long connected with railroad construction in Nebraska, writes: "My heart troubled and pained me for 10 years. Shortness of breath was the constant and most common symptom. I was, excruciating pain, generally followed by severe exertion. Faintness, hunger without any appetite; fluttering that made me clutch my breast, and palpitation, that often staggered me as if I would fall, were frequent attacks. Again, everything would turn black if I arose from a stooping posture quickly. Sleepless nights with their prostrating unrest were numerous and I could get no rest day or night. I consulted leading physicians and tried advertised remedies. They gave me no relief. One of Dr. Miles' circulators described my case so exactly that I took Dr. Miles' New Heart Cure and I am now a well man. I hope every one troubled with heart disease will try Dr. Miles' remedies. If they will write me personally, I will gladly give them full details of my experience." E. W. EDWARDS. P. O. Box 65, David City, Nebraska.
