GEN. GOMEZ'S ACTIVITY.

Spanish Reports of the Insurgent Leader's Movements.

HE JOINS FORCES WITH TORRE

The Patriot Commander So Often Reported ported Spanish Victories,

Havana, April 6.—A report has reen re-ceived that General Suarez Inclan and Linares have fought the band of Maceo near Vinales in Pinar del Rio and that Maceo was routed, leaving thirty killed,

No details have been received.

The column of Pavia has inflicted a loss of six killed upon the insurgents at the plantation of Niaves, near Santo Domingo, in Santa Clara province.

It has been learned that while the forces of Gomez were marching on March 31, near Sitis Cito, in the district of Santo Domingo, they suprised eight soldiers who were acting as convoy to a supply of gro-oeries, killing two of them and taking prisoner a corporal and one private. It is not known what became of the other four. The insurgent leader Mariano Torro was encamped at the farm of Clavellina, be-tween Bodrigo and Siloe Cito. The column of General Luquo was encamped the next day, which was April 1, at the plantation of Harmonia, near Rodrigo, and he was pursuing the insurgents closely. The insurgents attacked an exploring engine near Sitie Cite, with the intention of surrounding the escort. The attempt proved nseless, as they were repulsed with a numerous loss. Gomez was encamped at the time at the plantation of Yabu Cité, between Santo Domingo and Cituentes. He left camp at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, but the direction he took is unknown. He ef-fected a junction with Torre, whose force

On April 2 Gomez was encamped at the plantation of Penato, near Santo Do-mingo. On April 3 numerous bands un-Stauart Co., Mich. der Gomez passed the plantation of Nieves. They are now at Central Saratoga, and occupying a space of about six miles in extent in the district of Santo Domingo and Esperanza.

Countrymen affirm that they have seen the insurgent leaders Vicente Nunez and Bermudez, and that Bermudez is entirely disabled by reason of wounds.

In an engagement between General Canella and the insurgents at Pinar del Rio the columns of General Canella at the first charge killed twenty-two insurgents Bermudez escaped as though by a miracle The greater part of the band were negroes, and they were nearly naked, badly armed and without shoes. For this reason they strive before everything to secure as plunder shoes and clothes.

The insurgents admit that the leader

Jose Copero was killed in an engagement four days ago while acting as a guide in the vanguard of Gomez.

Colonel Traja has discovered at Cienfuegos a collection of arms, consisting of twenty rifles, 300 revolvers, 15,000 cartridges and loading machines. Several persons have been imprisoned on suspicion of secreting the arms.

Cubans Wanted to Burn the Spanish Flag. TAMPA, Fla., April 6.—Passengers arriving last night from Cuba report that Spanish General Inclan's forces were en-tirely surrounded by the insurgents and a hand to hand conflict ensued. The conflict occurred in Vuelta Abajo district. Nothing official has been published, but a hundred wounded at this engagement were brought into Havana Friday night. All the wounds were machete cuts. Inclan also was wounded. Quintin Bandera, the insurgent chief, has sent a letter to General Weyler requesting humane treatment for helpless families. The Cabans here intended to burn the Spanish flag and Weyler's picture Saturday night, but the police

Infant Heroine Burned to Death.

CAMDEN, N. J., April 6 .- Eva Oney, 6 years old, daughter of Isaac Oney, No. 226 Division street, was burned to death Saturday night by her clothes catching fire while attempting to save the life of her sister Bessle, aged 4 years. The injured girl was taken to Cooper hospital, and lingered but a few hours. Little Bessie was burned about the hands and face, and her hair was entirely burned off, and it is feared that she will die. There was also a deep laceration on her forehead, caused by her falling against the stove. As far as could be learned from Bessie, she was playing with paper, and set it on fire, ig-niting her dress. Eva fought to save her sister, and in trying to put out the flames her dress caught fire.

A Creditable Financial Showing.

HARRISBURG, April 6.-The annual report of Banking Commissioner Gilkeson for the year 1835 shows that notwithstanding the financial difficulties during the year he did not have to appoint a single receiver for any of the strictly financial in-stitutions of the state. The commissioner calls attention to the enormous amount, $374,241,784.83, which is held by trust com-panies in the state as trust funds. For the first time in the history of this common wealth this information has been collected Colonel Gilkeson says additional legisla-tion is needed to protect the interests of the people who have trust funds in the hands of corporations.

Two Youthful Desperadoes.

West Chestes, Pa., April 6.—Jerome Lloyd and Arthur J. Lloyd, two youthful dimenovel victims, were given a hearing before Magistrate Rupert on the charge of attempting to wreck a train on the Phila-delphia, Wilmington and Baltimore rail road, four mlles south of this place. The defendants made a full confession, and were sent to the Chester county prison to answer the charge at quarter sessions court. The boys had been living in gen-uine "Deadwood Dick" style in a little cabin in a lonely woods south of Westtown station.

A Whole Block Destroyed by Fire, HONESDALE, Pa., April 6 .- A fire, sup posed to have originated from a cigar stub in Kain's restaurant, consumed an entire block of wooden buildings here Saturday block of women buildings, a fireman, was badly burned and bruised by being caught under a falling roof. Thompson and Miss McConnell Recovering LANCASTER, Pa., April 6.—Harry Thompson, the man who was shot by Bertha Me Connell, continues to improve, no unfa-vorable developments having manifested themselves. Advices from Contesville are to the effect that Miss McConnell is also growing better, and is on a fair road to re-

HEART DISEASE.

SOME PACTS EDGARDING THE RAPID INCREASE OF HEART TROUBLES.

Do Not be Alarmed, But Look For the Heart troubles, at least among Americans are certainly increasing and while this may Dead Moves from Place to Piace as He | be largely due to the warry and | excitement Pleases Devoltory Skirmishes and Res of American business life, it is more often the result of weak stomachs, of poor digestion. Real, organic heart disease is incurable; but not one case in a hundred of heart trouble, is organic.

The close relation between heart trouble and poor digestion is because both organs are controlled by branches of the same great nerves, the Sympathetic and Pneumogastric. In another way, also, the heart if affected by that form of poor digustion, which causes gas and fermentation from half digested food; there is a feeling of oppression and heaviness in the chest caused by pressure of the distended stomach on the heart and lungs, interfering with their action; hence arises palpitation and short breath.

Poor digestion also apoisons the blood makes it thin and watery, which irritates and weakens the heart.

The most sensible treatment for heart troubles is to improve the digestion and to insure the prompt assimilation of food.

This can best be done by the regular use, after meals, of some safe, pleasant and effective digestive preparation, like Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets, which may be found at est drug stores and which contain valuable, harmless digestive elements, in a pleasant, convenient form.

It is safe to say that the regular, persistent use of Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets at meal time, will cure any form of stomach trouble except cancer of the stomach.

THE WEEK IN CONGRESS

It Promises to be an Exceedingly Lively that in the House, against it than against the passage of the original resolutions. Immediately afterward an effort will be made to pass the river and harbor appropriation bill under a suspension of the rules. The bill carries something over $9,000,000 in actual appropriations, but authorizes contracts for almost $40,000,000 additional. The Demo crats would like an opportunity to attack the bill because of the enormous charge it makes upon the treasury in the future. and they will make all the redstance they are able to. Under the rules, however, their opposition is not likely to be effectual. There are two election cases to be decided, one of which will unseat Judge

Cobb, of the Fifth Alabama district.

The senate continues the consideration of the postoffice appropriations bill today.
It is noped that the day will suffice to conclude the debate on this bill. Senator Morgan has given notice of a speech tomorrow on the Pacific railroad refunding question and probably will consume the greater part of the day. The remainder of the week will be given up largely to the Indian appropriation bill. This measure contains several features which are certain to develop controversy. The naval appropriation bill will be reported during the week, and will be in condition to be taken up as soon as the Indian bill is out of the way. It is Senator Peffer's inten-tion to call up his anti-bond resolution if opportunity offers.

A Prayerful Conflict.

CLEVELAND, April 6.—There was a conflict between Ballingson Booth's Ameri flict between Ballingson Booth's Ameri-can Volunteers and Corps No. 1 of the Salvation Army here yesterday. It was a conflict of prayer and melody, however. The Volunteers held their first meeting in the public square. There were about twenty-five of the Volunteers. Most of them were the old Salvation Army uni-form and the Ballington Booth badge. When the meeting in the square was in progress the Salvation Army corps, with progress the Salvation Army corps, with a brass band, appeared on the seem, drowning the prayers of the Volunteers. The meeting went on, however, and soon the two bands of soldlers were praying in different parts of the little park. There were many patriotic speeches by the Vol-

He is a pronounced McKinley man, and it is charged at the state house that he would not follow instructions for Bradley if the the state convention adopts Bradley reso-

To Test the Raines Law.

SCHENECTADY, N. Y., April 6 .- The new liquor law was strictly enforced here yesterday, and nearly every saloon keeper complied with its provisions. Andrew M. Stock, proprietor of the Terrace hotel, at-tempted to evade the law under the hotel chause. He did a rushing business until 5 o'clock, when he was arrested. His bar was exposed, but he was serving liquor in was exposed, but he was serving inquor in the dining room. He had a big register, containing over 200 names, and a small lunch was served with each drak. The proprietor, clerk and watters were all arrested and were admitted to ball. A test will be made of this.

Miss Pollard Unable to Collect.

Lexisoros, Ky., April 6.—Colonel W.
C. P. Breckinridge has been quietly practicing law here ever since the suit for damages of Madeline Pollard two years ago caused him to be succeeded in congress by Colonel W. C. Owens. Although Miss Pollard got a judgment for $15,000 she has never been able to get execution or to recover anything. Now that Colonel Brock

Young Mosser applied the match to the fuse, when in some way a quantity of loose powder in his pockets became ignited, and in an instant the boy was a mass of flames from head to foot. His companions had presence of mind enough to toar off his clothing, but he was so severely burned that his recovery is doubtful.
