

A Business Man
Knows the home paper comes first, with home news. The Herald brings the news that can not be reached in another way.

Evening Herald.

For Family Trade
No paper can take the place of the Herald. It is read daily by every member of the family. Subscribers appreciate this.

VOL. XI.—NO. 93.

SHENANDOAH, PA., TUESDAY, APRIL 7, 1896.

ONE CENT.

VENEZUELA
The Monroe Doctrine and Schomburgk line are the all-engrossing subjects of the day. There can be no question regarding The

.. New England Piano
Because our customers (the arbitration committee) decided long ago in its favor, conceding every claim for durability, richness of tone, and beauty of finish.

65,000 IN DAILY USE

SOLD ON EASY TERMS.
J. P. Williams & Son, S. Main St.
BARGAINS THIS WEEK!

TWO CASES RENFREW DRESS GINGHAMS, light, medium and dark plaids, regular price 12 1/2c per yard, our price, 6c per yard. No such bargain was ever before offered in Shenandoah county.

LADIES' KID GLOVES in black, tan and brown, worth $1.00, at 75c; better goods at $1.60, $1.35 and $1.50 per pair.

FIFTY PIECES JUST RECEIVED, BLACK AND COLORED HENRIETTES, 45 inches wide, heavy material and fine lustre, 50c, would be cheap at 90c.

We have added to our stock a LARGE LINE OF CARPETS, in Ingrain, Tapestry and body Brussels, Moquettes and Velvets. It will be to your benefit to look through this line as you will find the prices very enticing. See our line of children's ready-made dresses. We handle Buttericks' paper patterns.

P. J. GAUGHAN, - 27 N. Main St.

THIS IS OUR EYE OPENER!

Special Drive in Ladies' Footwear!
Our Spring Line of Ladies' Shoes is being increased every day. Takes in everything good and attractive in the market.

OUR SPECIALTY SHOE.

We are making a drive in the Waverly ladies' shoe. 300 pair will be sold at $2 a pair. Regular price is $2.50. This may be this last of this line this season. We have them in C, D, EX EE widths. No better shoe is made for the money.

JOSEPH BALL, 14 S. MAIN STREET, SHENANDOAH.

General Agent for the Snag Proof Duck Boot.

EASTER GREETINGS.

... Spring Novelties In Dress Goods and Trimmings.

NEW CARPETS—Rugs, Tapestry and Chenille Curtains.

Special Bargains in Window Shades at 49c.

J. J. PRICE'S, North Main St., Shenandoah, Pa.

ALFRED F. MORGAN. A SHOE TALE!
Only the happy wearers of Morgan's Shoes can appreciate their real goodness of quality, fit and durability. The prices are right—a trial will tell a long story. See our special in ladies' shoes.

Alfred F. Morgan,
No. 11 W. Oak Street.

REMOVED TO
30 NORTH MAIN STREET.
G. W. KEITER.

THE EX-PRESIDENT'S BRIDE.

General and Mrs. Harrison Off for Their Indianapolis Home.

A QUIET MARRIAGE CEREMONY!

Russell Harrison and Mrs. McKee, the Ex-President's Children, Purposely Absent Themselves From the Wedding. Will Go Home To-Night.

NEW YORK, April 7.—Ex-President Benjamin Harrison and Mrs. Mary Scott Lord Dimmick were married last evening at 5:45 o'clock, at St. Thomas' church, Fifth avenue and Fifty-third street. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. J. Wesley Brown, rector of St. Thomas', and was very simple. General Benjamin F. Tracy, former secretary of the navy, was General Harrison's best man. Mrs. Dimmick had no bridesmaids, but was escorted up the aisle by her brother-in-law, Lieutenant John F. Parker. The ceremony was witnessed by only thirty-six guests.

Mr. Daniel M. Ramsdell, ex-marshal of the District of Columbia, and E. F. Tibbets, private secretary to Mr. Harrison, acted as ushers.

Both the sanctuary and chancel of St. Thomas' were beautifully decorated with Easter lilies and lilacs. There were no decorations in the body of the church. For a half hour before the ceremony Mr. George W. Warren, the organist, rendered selections from the great masters. At the entrance of the bride the Lohengrin wedding march was played, and during the ceremony an intermezzo of Mascagni. The bride party left the edifice to the sweet strains of the Tannhauser wedding march.

Neither Russell Harrison nor Mrs. McKee, the general's son and daughter, were present. It is generally understood that they are displeased at their father's match, and absolutely declined to attend the wedding.

The gowns of the bride have been pronounced simply gorgeous. The wedding gown is the palest gray fall silk, trimmed with old Houton lace, which has been in the Lord family as a heirloom for many years. This falls in graceful folds over the shoulders and sleeves, which are of the regulation size, and continues to the bottom of the heavy IV coat. Soft bows of turquoise blue velvet hold the lace in place over a full chiffon vest. The coat is finished at the waist and neck with soft folds of the velvet.

The skirt, which is cut demi-train, has the full flare and a jabot of lace in apron effect on the front vest. With this gown is worn in capote of turquoise blue velvet, trimmed with large pompons, aligrettes and white lilac.

The traveling gown is of a bluish gray checked cloth, made tailor fashion, the coat being of the Louis XVI period, and opening over a vest of garnet and blue checked, ornamented with tiny gold buttons. With this costume is worn a checked English straw bonnet, trimmed with chiffon and roses.

General Harrison's gift to the bride, a magnificent chain of pearls, was looped on the corsage. The bride carried a bouquet of lilies of the valley, tied with a long satin ribbon, and the groom a boutonniere of the same flower.

There was a large crowd around the church, which kept gathering after the bridal party had entered the edifice. Captain Steinkamp and seventy-five men kept the avenue clear for carriages. There was no block or unusual crush at any time. Immediately after the bridal party left the church the crowd dispersed.

At 7 o'clock General Harrison and his bride left the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pinchot, in Gramercy Park, and entered a closed carriage. In a second carriage were Lieutenant and Mrs. Parker and General Tracy, and in the third carriage Mrs. Harrison's maid, Daniel M. Ramsdell and E. F. Tibbets had left for the Pennsylvania depot immediately on leaving the church to prepare for the arrival of the bridal party. At 7:20 o'clock the party arrived at Bethesda street, and were driven immediately on board the ferryboat, which pulled out soon after for the depot. On the arrival of the party at the depot they were conducted to President Thomson's private car, which had been placed at General Harrison's disposal. The train, with Conductor A. Waters, started at 8:00 p. m., and is expected to arrive at Indianapolis at 10:15 tonight.

A Brief Stop at Philadelphia.
PHILADELPHIA, April 7.—The train bearing ex-President and Mrs. Harrison arrived here at 10:15 last night. The bridal party occupied the private car Haslamers. A crowd of about 100 people braved the rain storm and gathered about the entrance to the car. The ex-president appeared on the platform, while the bride stood in the doorway. After they had good bye to Lieutenants and Mrs. Parker, who left the train at this point, the groom turned and lifted his hat several times in response to the cheers of the crowd. He and his wife then returned to the car. At 10:27 the train left for Pittsburg. D. M. Ramsdell and the ex-President's private secretary, E. F. Tibbets, were the only ones in the car besides Mr. and Mrs. Harrison. The trip from New York to this city was spent mostly at dinner, and was a very pleasant one.

Rickert's Cafe.
Our free lunch to-morrow morning will consist of nice calf's liver, potato salad and dressing.

Committed to Jail.
William and John Etzka, the men who made a murderous assault upon Stiney Saluka at his boarding house in the First ward on Sunday, were taken to the Pottsville jail yesterday afternoon being unable to procure $500 bail, each. Their victim is still in a bad condition, but will recover.

Watson House Free Lunch.
Bean soup to-night.
Hot lunch to-morrow morning.

Umbrellas from 75c, up at Brown's. New stock just received. 4-3-4f

AMERICANS MEET GREEKS.

And Win Every Event in the Preliminary Contests at Athens.

ATHENS, April 7.—The athletic contests which are intended by the projectors as a revival of the ancient Hellenic contests opened yesterday, and the preliminary exercises were accompanied by an impressive ceremonial. Great enthusiasm was manifested by the people, and the occasion is observed as a national festival. The day opened with a religious ceremony, the singing of a Te Deum in the cathedral. This was attended by the royal family and a great throng of spectators and auditors. The number of spectators who looked on at the contests is estimated at 80,000. The crown prince and the committee met King George as he advanced in the middle of the arena. Here he was welcomed by his son on behalf of the committee, the crown prince begging him to take over the Stadion, which had been restored as nearly as possible to its pristine condition. King George, in reply, praised the incomparable beauty of the restored structure, and cordially welcomed the athletic youth who have come from all parts of the world to lend additional brilliancy to the festival. The king then took formal possession of the Stadion in the name of Greece.

The members of the American teams from Princeton and the Boston Athletic association came into the arena in excellent condition and full of confidence, and the Greeks were plainly in fear of their American competitors. The result proves that the confidence of the Americans and the fears of the Greeks were both fully warranted, the Americans carrying off first honors in each event in which they entered. The contests were preliminary trials, and so decide nothing definitely as to the final awards of victory.

In the 100 metres dash, the first heat was won by F. A. Lane, of the Princeton team, Spokoly, a Hungarian, coming in second; time 12 5/8 secs. Second heat, Thomas E. Curtis, of Boston, first; Chalkokondichis, a Greek, second; time 12 4/8 secs. Third heat, Thomas E. Burke, of Boston, first; Osman, a German, second; time 11 4/8 secs.

In the running race for 800 metres none of the Americans competed. In throwing the discus (similar to putting the shot in modern athletics) Captain Robert Garrett, of Princeton, won against the Greeks Paraskevopolis and Verle.

In the 400 metres running race H. B. Jamison, of Princeton team, won the first heat, with Osman, the German, second. Second heat, Thomas E. Burke, first; Gimelin, an Englishman, second.

J. B. Connelly, an American, won the hop, step and jump, covering 13.71 metres.

Murdered by a Jealous Rival.

WILKESBAHRE, Pa., April 7.—Michael Hoko, a Slav, was murdered by John Gildred, a jealous rival, last night. Hoko and Gildred were in love with the same girl, but she favored Hoko. Gildred, who had on several occasions threatened his rival, lay in wait for him with a number of companions last night, and attacked him with a knife. Hoko broke away from his assailants and sought refuge in the saloon of Harry Biddleman. Gildred and his companions attacked the place, breaking the windows and doors. They then pounced upon Hoko and beat him to death. Three of Hoko's friends were also badly injured. The saloon was completely wrecked. Five of the attacking party were lodged in jail.

The Booth Family Jar.

NEW YORK, April 7.—The following statement was made last night by Commander and Mrs. Ballington Booth in the headquarters of the Volunteers: "We have met and had a long conference with our sister, Mrs. Booth-Tucker, and wish it most distinctly understood that our attitude is absolutely unchanged, and that our future plans for the Volunteers will go forward as heretofore stated. Apart from the matters of controversy on which we must still differ there still exists, as there always has, the warmest affection for Mrs. Booth-Tucker as a sister."

Municipal Changes in Williamsport.

WILLIAMSPORT, Pa., April 7.—Mayor Mamed took the oath of office yesterday, and was formally installed. Only six of the old police force are retained under the new administration, and the heads of all departments except that of fire are changed. City councils also reorganized.

Neglected Three-Year-Old Cremated.

READING, Pa., April 7.—The 3-year-old child of Mrs. Ida Heckendorff was burned to death in a fire which destroyed the house of the mother at Mockville, this county. The family was absent at the time, and the origin of the fire is unknown.

At Breen's Rialto Cafe.

Purée of pea soup will be served free during and between the acts to-night. Everybody invited.

Free hot lunch every morning. Meals served at all hours.

Officers Elected.

At a regular meeting of the Hope Section Pioneer Corps, held in their hall last evening, the following officers were elected for the coming term: Captain, William E. Davis; lieutenant, Thomas Dove, Jr.; secretary, John Charles; treasurer, Alfred Millichap. The corps is now preparing to inaugurate their weekly drills as soon as the weather will permit.

Society House.

Berks county vegetable soup will be served free for everybody to-night. A nice dish awaits you.

Elected President.

Lewis A. Riley was yesterday elected president of the Lehigh Coal and Navigation Company to succeed Calvin Pardee. The new president is a civil engineer and the senior member of the firm of Lewis A. Riley & Co., who recently disposed of their Centralia collieries to the above company.

DOINGS IN POLICE CIRCLES

Three Prisoners Make Escape From the Lockup.

ONE RECAPTURED AFTER A FIGHT.

Others Confined in the Cells Build a Fire on the Floor to Keep Themselves Warm—Timely Discovery Made by Policeman Goodman.

The dilapidated condition of the lockup is a source of great annoyance and chagrin to the policemen and they are anxious that the steel cages the Borough Council has contracted for shall be put in place as soon as possible. Last night three prisoners escaped from the cells by climbing through the openings near the ceilings that were made by the fire.

At about midnight special officer Peter Brennan heard the noise of breaking glass at the lockup and a few moments later saw a fellow leave the alley brushing his clothes, and then dash eastward on Oak street. Brennan notified Chief Tush and the two gave chase over the electric railway bridge, but the fugitive had too much of a start and got away. The prisoner had been locked up by Gibbon on a charge of assault and battery and Tush notified the constable of the escape. The two officers called at the prisoner's house. The occupants denied that he was at home and insisted that he was at the lockup, but the officers forced their way into the house and found the man under a bed. The prisoner showed fight, but Gibbon grabbed him by the throat and Tush took charge of his legs and pulled him from under the bed. This morning Gibbon took the man to the Pottsville jail.

Shortly after this man escaped Adam Moraski and Julius Grishko escaped from the lockup in a similar manner and no trace of them has been seen since. The man was committed in default of $300 bail each for forcing open a door and firing five shots at the house of Joe Hoels.

At about three o'clock this morning Chief Tush and Policeman Foltz found a bum wandering about the streets. He could give no account of himself, except that he came from Boston. When the officers arrived at the lockup they found that two prisoners placed in the only good cell in the place by Constable Gibbon and Policemen Lee and Goodball had built a fire in the middle of the cell floor to keep themselves warm. The police promptly put the fire out. They say that it was fortunate that the floor and its surroundings were damp. Under any other condition there would have been more work for the fire companies.

He Takes the Cake.

The drawing to determine the ticket-holder entitled to the prize cake at Otto's took place this morning. A disinterested party drew the lucky number, which was No. 333. The holder of this ticket will please call for the cake. W. V. OTTO.

Birthday Party.

John Fatkin, of West Lloyd street, celebrated his 56th birthday last evening and entertained the following friends: Mr. and Mrs. William Emanuel and sons, Willie and Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. James Emanuel, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wagner and son, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel W. Davis, Arthur Davis, Mrs. Turnbull and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Brown and daughter, Miss Carrie Fatkins, Robert Lipdumuth, James Tobin and John Smith. Music and refreshments made the evening a pleasant one.

Cut With a Bottle.

Alex. Tapolski was arrested last night on a charge of badly gashing the scalp of Anthony Fast with a bottle. Tapolski is one of the men with whom Policemen Stanton had to contend in the riot on Mayberry alley Sunday night. Justice Williams put Tapolski under $500 for a hearing on Friday night.

Attracted a Big Crowd.

The ball given in Robbins' opera house last evening by the Phoenix Hose Company was largely attended and proved a grand success. The hall was crowded to overflowing and the music furnished by the Cleary orchestra and a contingent of the Schoppe orchestra formed a big treat for the merry dancers.

Kendrick House Free Lunch.

Pea soup to-night.
Hot lunch to-morrow morning.

Settled the Case.

Constante Lupicki appeared before Justice Shoenmaker yesterday and swore out a warrant for the arrest of Frank Rekyu, for assault and battery, committed by hitting the prosecutor in the face and tearing his shirt. Rekyu agreed to settle the case by paying the costs and $1 damages for the shirt.

It Will Pay You to Buy Your Hats and Gents' Furnishing Goods at the Up-to-date Hat Store, 15 East Centre street.

A Good Move.

Chief of Police Tush and his force are commended for establishing a patrol service at the fire yesterday. The firemen appreciated it and the service will be continued at all fires hereafter, as it is more effectual than the work done by the safety committees of the fire companies.

Counters and Shelving for Sale.

We will sell the counters, etc., used in the Ketter store at a bargain. Call at once. 4-7-24. L. J. WILKINSON.

A Visitor Afflicted.

George, 14-month-old child of Mrs. Jeffrey, of Ashland, who is visiting her sister, Mrs. Glock, at 33 South Bower street, was attacked by scarletina yesterday and to-day Health Officer Conry placarded the house.

A Hit for Coughs and Colds.

What? Pan-Tin, 25c. At Grubler Bros. drug store.

THE BUSY STORE

116 and 118 North Main Street. Proprietor, MAX SCHMIDT.

HERE IT IS!
COME AND SEE IT!

Two Solid Things at a Broken Price.

REAL HAND PAINTINGS.
REAL IMPORTED CHINA.

BEAUTIFUL EASTER PRESENTS AT LITTLE COST!

NUMBER I.

Our artist has been working for quite a while to complete this lot ordered for us for Easter.

A full line of handsomely hand-painted stamp plates are now on exhibition. We not only give you plates painted but have them all trimmed in tasty style with ribbon to suit.

The whole at a price 37c the painting would cost.

NUMBER II.

A beautiful line of real imported china has come in in time to make your Easter present. Every plate, cup and saucer, oat meal dish or any other article bears the stamp. So you can not be deceived that you have the genuine. For this special sale we have them all marked 10c a single price.

VE LOVERS OF CHINA, DO NOT MISS THIS CHANCE!

116 and 118 North Main Street.

GIRVIN'S

Pocket Knives, WARRANTED & FEEL,

Indestructible Handles, with 1, 3 and 4 blades.

Your Choice 25c.

GIRVIN'S
8 S. Main St.

A CARD.

The administrators of the estate of the late JOHN T. GRAF, would inform the old patrons, as well as the new, that the business will be continued at the old stand, and that the past reputation for fair dealing will be maintained by the present management, and the same high standard of goods kept in stock. We solicit a continuance of the trade.

Graf's,
122 North Jardin Street, Shenandoah.