The Stafford Lecture.

After a course of farce comedies, comedy dramas, opera, melodrama and Shakespearean productions, Manager Ferguson has determined to give that portion of the community and surroundings who are intellectually inclined, a chance to hear that able orator, and eminent divine, Rev. D. J. Stafford, of Washington, D. C., in a lecture which is claimed to be both interesting and educating.

As this is his first visit here the prices have been placed within the reach of all at 25c, 35c and 50c. At Wilkesbarre, where he has lectured several times for the Stafford Literary Society, the seats are sold for $1, and standing room is at a premium. It is to be hoped that the people of this town will turn out and give Dr. Stafford such a hearty reception as he deserves, and one which he will remember with pleasure in years to come. His first appearance here will be at Ferguson's theatre, April 14th.

His Greater Wisdom.

Ed. HERALD: Can you inform a patient and suffering public what is wrong with the members of the Borough Council? Don't you think the seven members of the Citizens party in that body should coincide with Mr. Gable's views on the question of electing a successor to Oscar Betteridge? Surely his views are worthy of more consideration than the seven other members of the Citizens party. Besides, it matters little whether the valuable plant that cost the taxpayers about $50,000 is standing without an official head. But that doesn't matter. The people believe in the motto of some people. I think these seven Citizen Councilmen should accede to Mr. Gable's greater wisdom.

Brutally Beaten.

On Saturday three unknown Jews arrived in Shenandoah and applied for employment at the various collieries in this locality, but were unsuccessful. Yesterday one of the trio proceeded to Morgans in search of work and when near New Boston he was set upon by several ruffians and robbed of considerable money, brutally beaten about the head and face and suffers the loss of his left ear, for which he cannot account. He appeared before Justice Shoemaker this morning and swore out a search warrant for the arrest of the highwaymen.

ALMSHOUSE IMPROVEMENTS.

The Court Has Approved the Same and They Will be Made.

The court yesterday handed down the following order: "In the matter of the petition of the County Commissioners setting forth that the almshouse buildings are insufficient for the purpose of comfortably sheltering and maintaining the poor, sick and insane of the county of Schuylkill, and praying the court to recommend the construction of such new or additional buildings as may be necessary at a cost not to exceed $75,000. And now, April 6th, 1896, it appearing to the court that the Board of Directors of the Poor has recommended the erection of the proposed additional buildings as being necessary for the proper care and comfort of the poor, sick and insane of said county; and that the said petition of the County Commissioners was laid before the grand jury at the September sessions of 1895, by whom it was duly approved (the erection of new buildings for the purpose stated having been recommended by several grand juries prior to September, 1893); and it further appearing that the Board of Public Charities, at a meeting held in Philadelphia on March 25th, 1896, approved, as required by the Act of April 5th, 1872, P. L. 42, of the plans and specifications for the erection of said buildings, all of which proceedings have been without objection or remonstrance, the court now recommends the erection of the proposed buildings for the purpose, and not exceeding the cost stated in the petition of the County Commissioners." After consultation, the Commissioners and Controller have decided to push the work of improving the almshouse, and Controller Severn asks for sealed proposals in another column. The Commissioners will make a new bond issue of $75,000 in order to meet the expense to be incurred.
