A FIENDISH CONFESSION!

Brother and Sister Assisted in Their Father's Murder.

THEY DANCED GAYLY ALL NIGHT.

The Actual Murderer Was the Girl's Lover, Who Had Been Forbidden by His Victim to Visit Her—Killed With One Blow of an Ax.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 9.—Young Charles Lamborn and Annie Lamborn, his sister, who are in jail here charged with complicity in the murder of their father, have confessed to having actively assisted Thomas Davenport, the lover of the girl and the friend of the brother, in the commission of the crime. Old man Lamborn was murdered at his ranch in Fall Township, this county, on the night of Feb. 10.

According to the confession Lamborn and his sister left home to attend a dance. Near their home they met Davenport, and it was agreed that the aged father, who had forbidden Davenport to visit his daughter, and who, though wealthy, was commonly accused of making his two children slaves to the drudgery of farm life, should be killed. Davenport then went direct to the house, crept in through a rear door, and with one blow of an ax dispatched the old man as he sat in a chair by his fireside.

The two men then burned the dead man's will, by which he had disposed of an estate valued at $50,000. After this they joined the girl, and the three proceeded to the dance, where they seemed to enjoy themselves. After the dance they all returned to the house and slept there. In the morning they spread the news of the murder.

ORIOLES IN A FIGHT.

Baltimore Baseballists Have a Lively Time at Petersburg, Va.

PETERSBURG, Va., April 9.—Yesterday's baseball game, the second between Petersburg and Baltimore (the first being a tie), broke up in a general free for all fight in the second half of the seventh inning. The score up to that time was one run for Petersburg. Jennings, of Baltimore, made a very vigorous protest against a decision of Powers, of Petersburg, who alternated with Bowerman, of Baltimore, as umpire. Sholta, Petersburg's second baseman, became involved, but Jennings resented Sholta's interference by very foul and abusive language, and was promptly struck in the face by the latter. A general fight followed, and things became mixed up for a time, when matters were cleared up with the assistance of the police. The Orioles refused to continue the game, although promised adequate police protection, and left the grounds.

Subsequently the row began again at the Apomattox hotel, where in the general melee a local man was thrown through a glass door. The police were again called upon to quell the disturbance, and quiet was restored by a squad of police escorting the Baltimore team to the depot.

Harry's Boom for Pattison.

CINCINNATI, April 9.—The Commercial Gazette will print a communication with a Philadelphia date from Hon. W. F. Harry, chairman of the Democratic national executive committee, in support of ex-Governor Robert E. Pattison, of Philadelphia, as the Democratic candidate for the presidency. Mr. Harry says: "The Democratic candidate must be a man of broad views, undoubted integrity and with an inflexible purpose to meet the highest demands of the position. In Mr. Pattison will be found all the qualifications of such a leader. Nothing in his private life or official career has called for explanation, though his every act has been closely scrutinized by hostile and desperate political interests in more than one exciting canvass."

Anna Tate Was Murdered.

PHILADELPHIA, April 9.—The medical testimony submitted before the coroner yesterday afternoon in the case of Miss Anna Tate, aged 33, a housekeeper employed by Josiah Richoldeffer, of No. 1305 Swain street, showed beyond the shadow of a doubt that arsenic, which had been placed in soup, caused the woman's death. With no deliberation the jury returned a verdict in accordance and added: "We believe the poison was administered by George Barton." The suspected man is still at large.

Maryland and Pennsylvania Postmasters.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Twenty-nine fourth class postmasters were appointed yesterday. Of these twenty-two were to fill vacancies caused by resignations, six by removals and one by death. Among the changes were: Maryland: Mayo, Thomas J. Jackson, vice John T. Tucker, resigned; Pennsylvania: Gabell, David L. Snyder, vice Joseph N. Snyder, resigned; Garszen, Ellis Michaels, vice William C. Strong, removed.

The Bicycle Baggage Bill Passed.

ALBANY, April 9.—With only one dissenting vote in the assembly and by a vote of 95 to 4 in the senate, the bicycle baggage bill passed the New York legislature yesterday. The bill declares bicycles to be baggage, and "they shall be transported as baggage for passengers by railroad corporations and subject to the same liabilities, and no passenger shall be required to crate, cover or otherwise protect any such bicycle."

Killed by a Mine Car Collision.

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 9.—A train of empty mine cars collided with a train of loaded cars at the Atlantic mine No. 1 yesterday. Ernest Pie, of Osceola Mills, a motorman, was instantly killed. The conductor of his train had one leg badly crushed. Pie was the youngest son of ex-Sheriff Pie, of Clearfield county. A searching investigation will be made to fix the responsibility for the accident.

If you want a nice sweet loaf of bread try Otto's.

PROMOTERS UNDER ARREST.

Charged with Robbing a Philadelphia Lawyer by False Pretenses.

CHICAGO, April 9.—John H. Caruthers and H. L. Blockwell were arrested in the Auditorium hotel yesterday afternoon on a requisition from the governor of Pennsylvania. The men are charged by John H. Sutton, a Philadelphia attorney, with having fraudulently obtained $5,000 from him by a scheme to organize a company to cultivate emigrants to a plant containing a large proportion of tannic acid and growing in the arid regions of Arizona and Wyoming.

C. O. Beasley, another Philadelphia lawyer, began suit against Caruthers and Blockwell in the circuit court for $100,000. He claims that he assisted the men to form their company, and that he went to England for the purpose. When he returned he found that they had formed another company, leaving him out, and he now demands damages. Beasley claims that while in England he secured $25,000 for the company, which he turned over to Blockwell and Caruthers, and that he has never heard of it since.

When arrested the men were with a party of capitalists, with whom they had made a tour of the west. Caruthers is said to come from Indianapolis, Ia., and Blockwell from somewhere in the south.

Deputy Sheriff Lee and Hall were with the detective when the warrants were served. The prisoners were turned over to Edgar F. Gunther, agent of Pennsylvania, and the party took a late train for Philadelphia. Altogether there were twenty-six investors and capitalists in the party, who, with the exception of the prisoners, continued their journey to Niagara Falls on the 8 o'clock train.

IN SENATE AND HOUSE.

Senator Turpie's Radical Speech on Cuba. The Bond Issue Resolution.

WASHINGTON, April 9.—Senator Turpie's speech on Cuba was the event of yesterday in the senate, and in many respects it was the most picturesque and vehement utterance heard on that subject. The senator has an inexhaustible vocabulary and a bitterly sarcastic style. While arguing for radical action on Cuba, even to the extent of sending a fleet to Cuban waters, much of Mr. Turpie's speech was given to sarcasm and ridicule of the course of Mr. Sherman and Mr. Lodge in managing the Cuban resolution. The senator created much amusement by his portrayal of Senator Lodge as a warrior about to fight a duel with Minister Dupuy de Lome, of Spain. Most of the day was given to the Indian appropriation bill, which was not completed. Unanimous consent was secured for taking up the resolution for a senate inquiry into recent bond issues next Tuesday.

In the house the bill to adopt the metric system of weights and measures was sent back to the committee on coinage, weights and measures for further consideration. On the first vote it had a majority of two, but the opposition was aggressive, and after a series of votes it was recommitted by a vote of 190 to 83. The remainder of the day was devoted to debate on the bill to exempt sailing vessels engaged in the coastwise trade from compulsory pilotage laws. This conference report on the agricultural appropriation bill was adopted.

NOE WAS A KNOWING ONE

Detective Amour Pulled Him up Short at Atlantic City.

ARRAIGNED HERE THIS MORNING

His Career Has Been a Series of Impositions and Swindles—A Champagne Supper at Hamburg on His List of Unliquidated Accounts—He Was Taken to Jail.

Detective Richard Amour arrived in town this morning with John A. Noe, a traveling book agent, whom the detective had been chasing about this state and New Jersey for several weeks. Noe is well known in this country, although he came into it for the first time only about a year ago. He is a high flier in his line and wherever popularity and prominence can be attained by "settling 'em up" he never missed an opportunity, or lost his grip. He also, admittedly, made good use of his membership in certain secret societies and up to last January was reputed as being one of the best agents that ever stepped within the limits of the county, as well as a royal good fellow. It was in that month that Noe disappeared and it was learned that his flights of generosity were sustained by sums procured from acquaintances on drafts that were returned as "no good" and other means.

Noe held forth in Pottsville most of the time while in this county and occasionally made trips to other towns south of the mountain. The police authorities say he left his trail of default in many places. Last January he came to this town. His stay was a short and dashing one. He lost no time in making friends and declined to talk business with anybody. He wanted it understood that the visit was but a preliminary one and after becoming acquainted with the people of the town he would return to Pottsville, place his business there in the hands of another agent, and then return here and begin making sales of the books he handled.

One day Noe disappeared leaving an unpaid board bill of $8 at the Ferguson House and two dishonored drafts of $15 each in the hands of J. W. Lloyd, who was one of his sub-agents. Noe had complained that he was short of funds and Lloyd advanced him $30 on two drafts that were subsequently dishonored.

Detective Amour adds an interesting chapter. He says Noe is wanted at Hamburg, Pa., by Hotelkeeper Hartley, where Noe gave a $75 champagne supper which he failed to pay for, and also for issuing a bogus draft for $50. At Pottsville, it is alleged, Noe procured a suit of clothes and $60 in cash on a bogus check. When the haulbag he left behind was searched it contained two bricks and a pair of cuffs. He worked the towns of South Jersey, beating hotelkeepers in Woodbury, Millville and Vineland, where he stopped at the Baker House, under the name of John Gibbs. He frequently gave the name of John Gibbs. He is wanted in Wilmington, Delaware, on several charges. Noe is a man who looks to be at least 45 years old, but claims he is only 30. He is tall and very stout. Detective Amour stated that Noe is wanted at Ovid, Mich., for deserting a wife and family.

When arrested by Amour the accused man assumed an air of dignity and injured innocence and wanted to employ a lawyer to secure his release under a habeas corpus, but changed his mind when the detective produced the requisition papers issued for his arrest by the Governors of Pennsylvania and New Jersey. Noe was arraigned before Justice Williams this morning and held under $500 bail for "beating" the Ferguson House. On the charge of forgery preferred by Lloyd Justice Williams declined to fix bail. In fact Noe was unable to get any and was taken to Pottsville on the 9 o'clock train by Detective Amour. Just before the train left the depot Noe said to a reporter: "It is a cold day when I get left. This hotel bill business is all a mistake. As to the Lloyd case, the fact is the drafts were sent to the house upon which they were drawn when the party who would have honored them was in Chicago. When I got to Pottsville I'll wire to Philadelphia and get $100, or $150, and settle up the whole affair." Noe took his situation with great unconcern and on meeting in town this morning several people with whom he became acquainted last January he greeted them with the usual "glad hand."
