Horse Racing in Maryland.

BALTIMORE, April 9 .- There is now no reasonable doubt that it is the purpose of those members of the racing fraternity who are not in accord with the turf can-gress to make Maryland the scene of their future operations. Following close upon the recent announcement that they had secured tracks at Elkton and Arlington, and that they would build another at Barksdale, near Elkton, comes the further news that they have also leased Herring Run and Back River tracks, and that they mean in the very near future to creck others at Laurel, Md., and In Anne Arun-del county, near Brooklyn. Under exist-ing law racing can be carried on for seven months in the year without hindrance.

PARDONED BY THE PRESIDENT.

Waster to "Do Time." WASHINGTON, April 0.-A penuliar case where the president was obliged to come to the relief of a man who tried, and for a time in vain, to go into fall to serve his sentence, came to light in the routine presentation of parion cases yesterday, J. Reubon Phillips was the man, and for "working in a distillery without any sign" he was arreaded by revenue agents and sentenced by the court in South Carolina to three months in juil. That was at the September term of court last year, and for some reason, probably to permit the man to harvest his little crops, the judge in his sentence provided that the term of imprisonment should not begin until Jan, 1 of this year. The rest of the story is told in the president's in-dorsement upon the case, which is as follows:

Granted. This prisoner was sentenced to three months' imprisonment, to begin Jan. 1, 1895. On that day he reported at the jail for the purpose of entering upon his term, and was refused admittance behis term, and was refused admittance be-cause his commitment papers had not ar-rived. For this reason he did not begin his term until Feb. 19, 1896 If he had been admitted on the day his sentence required his term would have expired before the present time. In view of this fact and the pitiable condition of his family, and upon the recommedation of the judge and dis-trict attorney, this pardon is granted."

A Jealous Woman's Divorce Refused.

THENTON, April 9. - Vice Chancellor Reed yesterday filed on opinion denying the application of Celine Duvale for a di ce from her husband, Charles F vale, on the ground of crueity. The Du-vales have resided for several summers past at Atlantic Highlands. They were married in New York in 1877, and lived since then in that city and Philadelphia. Mrs. Duvale sought a divorce in the New York courts in 1893, but the application was dismissed. She then took the case to this state. The testimony is a wearlsome recital of bickerings and alleged blows, in which the wife seemed always to be the provoking spirit because of her lack o confidence in her husband's fidelity, a suspicion, the vice chancellor says, not at all warranted.
