REDDALL-BUCKMAN.

The Marriage Ceremony at Pennsylvania Valley Last Evening.
 Charles N. M. Reddall, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Reddall, of town, and Miss Anna M. W. Buckman, of Pennsylvania Valley, Pa., were married at the residence of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Buckman, at the latter place, last evening by Rev. W. S. McDowell, formerly pastor of the Methodist Episcopal church of this town. Miss Ida Buckman, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Thomas L. McDowell, son of the officiating clergyman, the groomsmen. Miss Josie Reddall, sister of the bridegroom, served as flower girl and the wedding march was played by Miss Susie Bedford, of Potsville. The ceremony was a private one, only members of the family and a few intimate friends being in attendance. Mr. Reddall and his bride will take a short tour and on the 24th inst. there will be a reception at the residence of the former's parents, on South Jardin street.

Orange Blossoms.
 Thomas J. Stephens, of Middleport, and Miss Mame Baldwin, of Girardville, were united in marriage Tuesday by Rev. H. G. Main, of Cambola. The ceremony was performed at the bride's home, and the couple were supported by Elmer Griffith, of Kaskawilliam, and Miss Arvelia Faust, of town. Mr. and Mrs. Edward Rosewald, of town, and Mr. and Mrs. George W. Johnson, of Lost Creek, were in attendance.

Martin Dixon, of Lost Creek, and one of the motormen of the Schuylkill Traction Company, was joined in matrimony to Miss Catherine Melligan, of Girardville, yesterday at noon at the latter place. After the ceremony the couple drove to Potsville.

The marriage of Miss Annie E. Sanger, at one time a resident of this town but now of Scott, near Mt. Carmel, to David Bodine, of Plainfield, N. J., was solemnized at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Paul Quirk, Miss Gertrude Sanger, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid, and Bert B. Bodine supported his brother. After a splendid wedding dinner the couple left for their future home at Plainfield, N. J.

If you want a fine wedding cake, let Otto make it for you.

To Mobilize the Guard.
 The mobilization of the Pennsylvania National Guard on the shores of Lake Erie is now under consideration by the war department. Lieutenant Alex. R. Paxon, United States Army, has been detailed by the war department to make report as soon as practicable as to how quickly the National Guard of Pennsylvania can be mobilized and assembled at Lake Erie. A detail of army officers will visit Lake Erie in a few days and inspect the several points for disembarkation.

Surprise Party.
 Miss Ella Shirey was tendered a surprise party last evening at the residence of parents, 209 West Cherry street, in honor of her 19th anniversary. The evening was a delightful one and the guests were entertained by a splendid collation. All high standard wines and liquors for sale at Scheiffy House at first cost to close out stock.

Assured a Rare Treat.
 Those who will have the pleasure of hearing Dr. Stafford, at Ferguson's theatre, on Tuesday evening, April 10th, are assured a rare treat, as his influence is unsurpassed by any orator or speaker at present before the American public. The subjects being of a literary order should be a strong attraction in this town where we pride ourselves on our excellent public school system, and the price being within the reach of all, 25c, 35c and 50c. Reserved seats can now be had at Kirilin's drug store.

Mysterious Finding.
 Quite an excitement was caused in Girardville yesterday by the finding of a cape, silk skirt and waist in the creek near the Lehigh Valley tracks. It was first supposed that it contained a child because the contents were tied up in a bundle. The effects were turned over to the Chief Burgess who, upon a thorough investigation without finding any clue to the owner, afterwards burned them.

One Little Thing . . . Buyers Don't See . . .

Until after the shoes are worn out, that little thing is wear. We have it in our shoes. Other dealers' goods may look as well, but for the sake of a big Profit they often leave that little word WEAR out of their shoes.

Take our MEN'S SHOES at $1.25; others ask you $1.50 for one not so good.

No other shoe store in this county sells Shoes at less than we do or gives as much for the money.
