REPUBLICAN STATE CONVENTION.

The Republican electors of Pennsylvania: The Republicans of Pennsylvania, by their duly chosen representatives, will meet in State convention Thursday, April 23, 1896, at 10 o'clock a. m. in the opera house, city of Harrisburg, for the purpose of nominating two candidates for representative-at-large in Congress and thirty-two candidates for Presidential electors, the selection of eight delegates-at-large to the Republican National convention, and for the transaction of such other business as may be presented.

By order of the State Committee.
M. S. QUAY, Chairman.
J. B. HESS, Secretary.

The road is now clear for John J. Ingalls' return to the Senate. Mary Ellen Lease says she will not oppose his election.

MARRIED men are used to getting a "blowing up" from their wives, but a fellow in Texas blew himself up—with dynamite—and from the accounts of him he did well.

The United States has two torpedo boats to England's 126. Even Spain has thirty-three, a fact that should not be overlooked when the subject of war is under discussion.

ALABAMA and Pope Leo XIII. are hard workers at 80, and Denmark is by no means disabled at 81. The theory that the brain can be easily overworked by men of good habits is not sustained in these conspicuous cases.

AS AN evidence that the times are improving is the phenomenal increase in postal money orders, in both number of orders and amounts. No more positive proof could be adduced to show that the cloud of hard times is rolling away.

NEW MEXICO is in a fair way to become a state. It is understood that the United States Senate is willing to pass a statehood bill and the House Committee on territories has just decided in favor of that measure. The territory has waited long and patiently for promotion.

A HYPOTHETICAL question in a New York will case contained 12,000 words and its reading consumed an hour and a half. The reply of the witness is not given, and probably he was suffering from legal hypnosis.

POPE LEO XIII. approves of the idea of international arbitration which the Venetian ambassador has brought into prominence. Cardinal Rampolla, by his direction, writes a letter to the London Chronicle approving that journal's efforts to establish a permanent tribunal of arbitration.

WHILE the smooth-tongued Spanish minister at Washington is praising Genl. Weyler's humane method of conducting the war in Cuba, a Frenchman resident on the island has written a letter to the Paris "Soir" which has caused a sensation in that capital which has heretofore been friendly to the Spaniards. The Frenchman's letter shows that in addition to carrying on the war in a cruel, barbarous manner he has covered up his tracks so as to hoodwink foreign nations. A few more letters of the same kind will rouse civilization and will open the eyes of even Senator Hale.

ASHLAND is threatened with an epidemic of scarlet fever, and the newspapers of that town are urging the formation of a Board of Health. It is surprising that a town the size of our sister borough has been so long without a Board of Health, and the present scare may be the means of bringing the borough officials to a realization of their duty. Shenandoah's healthy condition is traceable, in a great measure, to the effective work of our health authorities, and Ashland cannot too soon prepare for epidemics.

It appears that Congressman Jack Robinson is not very deep in Senator Quay's confidence as regards that gentleman's intentions in the Presidential campaign. General Clarkson received a telegram from the Senator Thursday night and immediately announced "on advice received direct from Florida I am able to deny positively that Senator Quay is going over, or is thinking of going over, to McKinley." Thomas C. Platt, who is with the Senator in Florida, also wired that the "Quay story is a malicious lie." So that this little game of the McKinley managers is promptly knocked out. This will not prevent our esteemed contemporary, the Pottsville Republican, from ringing the changes on it for a week or so longer.

THE Archduke Francis Ferdinand, of Austria, who made a tour of the United States about a year ago, gives his impressions of America and Americans in the usual way by publishing a book about us. He expresses some pretty frank opinions of Americans. In one part of it he says "there is an undeniable element of grandeur in their character, though it is often grotesque and even outrageous." From this we would infer that Tom Ochiltree must have told his Highness some of his characteristic stories, or that some Col. Mulberry Sellers tried to interest him in some speculation or other. Further on he expresses the opinion that there is a "disposition on the part of a citizen of the United States to be more than life-size, to be more than man, and has caught the infection from the nature of his surroundings." As the Archduke's visit was not in the year of a Presidential campaign, it is interesting to speculate upon what his opinion would be if his visit had occurred about October, 1896, when all our political speakers will be wound up properly for the close of the campaign.

The Lyon-Dunn Contest.

The fourth sitting of the Lyon-Dunn Orphans' Court Judgments contest was held yesterday afternoon. Much time was consumed in informal argument and then the court handed down an order making absolute the rule requiring the petitioners and contestant to furnish a bill of particulars 10 days after this date, as asked for by the counsel for the respondent. This bill of particulars must contain the names of at least 50 illegal voters. According to the instructions in the opinion the respondents will then have 15 days to make answer or show cause why he has not done so. Affidavits were presented showing that Tax Collectors Scanlan and Dougherty, of Shenandoah and Butler township, respectively, had refused access to the tax duplicates. A rule was granted, made returnable May 8th, on the above Tax Collectors to show cause why their duplicates should not be accessible to the taxpayers of their respective districts. The court will not appoint examiners, but will hear the testimony themselves. The next session will be held on May 8th.

THIS DUEL MAY PROVE FATAL.

Count Von Kotze Seriously Wounded Baron Von Schrader.

BREITEN, April 11.—Baron Von Schrader, the master of ceremonies of the pension court, was shot and badly wounded in the side in a duel near Pottsdam yesterday with Count Von Kotze, formerly one of the court chamberlains, who was tried and acquitted on the charge of being the author of anonymous letters addressed to high court officials. Baron Von Schrader was taken to a hospital, where his wound was pronounced to be of a very serious nature. It is feared that he will not recover. Count Von Kotze's arrest has been ordered. This is the third duel of the series of about a dozen for which challenges were sent out last April by Count Von Kotze.

The scandals which gave rise to the series of duels fought by Count Von Kotze originated about five years ago, when received anonymous letters and postal cards, containing charges and insinuations against their friends and relatives. Count Von Kotze was arrested, but was acquitted after a long trial, and immediately challenged those whom he considered his accusers.

CONSTANTINOPLE, April 11.—An official note has been issued by the Turkish government categorically denying that Rev. George P. Knapp, the American missionary who is "visiting" the valley of Bitlis, is imprisoned there, as has been reported. The note also states that the reported expulsion of other missionaries from Asia Minor is devoid of foundation.

Marvelous Results.

From a letter written by Rev. J. Gunderman, of Dinwoodie, Mich., we are permitted to make this extract: "I have no hesitation in recommending Dr. King's New Discovery, as the results were almost marvelous in the case of my wife. While I was pastor of the Baptist church at Ives Junction she was brought down with Pneumonia succeeding La Grippe. Terrible paroxysms of coughing would last hours with little intermission and it seemed as if she could not survive them. A friend recommended Dr. King's New Discovery; it was quick in its work and highly satisfactory in results." Trial bottles free at A. Wasley's drug store. Regular size 50c and $1.00.

NUGGETS OF NEWS.

Charles E. Hills, cashier of the Belding (Mich.) Savings bank, has been missing since last Tuesday. There is a shortage in his accounts.

The Republican convention of the Ninth Tennessee congressional district resulted in a split and two sets of delegates, each instructed for McKinley.

Last night Dr. A. H. Williams, a prominent citizen of Hendersonville, Tenn., was shot from ambush within twenty steps of his own door. No clue.

The Thirteen club of New York expelled Albert L. Lawson for sending out a garbled version of a letter received by that organization from the Prince of Wales.

A split in the Republican convention of the Fifth Kentucky congressional district will result in two sets of delegates at the St. Louis convention—one set for Bradley, the other for McKinley.

A dispatch from Johannesburg to a London newspaper says that it is probable that the trial of the reform committee prisoners will be postponed until after Dr. Jameson's trial has been concluded in England.

A Notorious Swindler Captured.

New York, April 11.—Joseph Crigan-ski, 48 years old, is locked up in the Tombs on the charge of grand larceny. This prize case is one of the most notorious swindlers on two continents, and is known variously as Joe Bond, Joseph Kahn and F. C. Kray, but to the police of the United States and Europe he is better known as "Paper Collar Joe," a bunco steerer and green goods swindler. He has served terms of imprisonment for his crimes, but his sentences have usually been short ones. He has swindled some of the most prominent millionaires in the country, Collis P. Huntington, it is said, having been a victim to the amount of $40,000, and the late William H. Vanderbilt $17,000. Crigan-ski was arrested yesterday charged with working a confidence game upon John Hanford, of Ithaca, N. Y. A check of $300 and a small amount in cash were secured.

Deny Their Alleged Confession.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., April 11.—A fresh sensation in the murder case of the wealthy farmer, J. T. Lamborn, has developed. Annie and Charles Lamborn have made sworn statements to their attorneys denying the alleged confessions, in which they were made to admit having planned the murder of their father and in which Thomas Davenport, the girl's sweetheart, was charged with committing the crime. They declare that their signatures to the "confession" were forced from them. There is a heavy reward for the conviction of those concerned in the murder, and hints of a plot to incriminate the children to gain it are made. Annie Lamborn is described as a weak minded girl, capable of being easily influenced.

"DR. MILES,"

Through His Nervine Is a Benefactor to Thousands.

A WIDELY known Wisconsin publisher, who resides at Green Bay, writes March 8th, 1895, as follows:

"Five years ago I became so nervous the mental work was a burden. I could not rest at night on account of sleeplessness. My attention was called to Dr. Miles' Restorative Nervine, and I commenced to use it with the very best effect. Since then I have kept
